The scratch of a lion's claw is almost as deadly as his bite, for he never cleans his nails, and he always carries under them rotting meat that is rank with deadly germs. Flies and water bugs do the same thing on a smaller scale; and "Don't forget," says the U. S. Public Health Service, "that they never wipe their feet."

The corn pricks up its ears. Every tree takes its leave.

Winter Sports in Midsummer
(United Press Service)
Seattle, June 2.—Winter sports in midsummer is the novelty to be offered visitors to Rainier National Park this season.

The big feature of the sports entertainment is the fifth annual ski tournament scheduled for July 3, at Paradise Valley, 5,557 feet above sea level on the slopes of Mount Rainier, where the "Flowers and glaciers meet."

Ski jumpers from the Pacific Northwest, Middle West, Canada, Norway and Sweden will compete for honors. These ski jumping contests are held under the direction of the Northwest Ski Club. Last year hundreds of persons went to Paradise Inn and from there viewed the ski jumping. Other crowds lined one side of the course which was marked off on Alta Vista knoll near the Inn. The tournament this season will be held over the same course.

The warm weather last year made the course sticky and the going rather heavy, so that no new records were set up.

WHO'LL WIN?

New York, June 2.—Tom O'Rourke, veteran manager:

"If Dempsey doesn't end the bout in the first round, it will be a hummer. This Carpenter is good. I have seen him in action several times. He is very fast, game and can hit. Dempsey must be good on the offensive because if he gives the Frenchman an opening he is going to feel it."

Watching the Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero—Dave Bancroft. He got a single, double, triple and a home-run in four trips to the plate. The Giants beat the Pills two games, 9 to 2 and 8 to 3. Kelly got his ninth. Jimmy Johnston's single in the ninth drove in the run that gave the Robins a 5 to 4 win over the Braves.

Two singles, a hit batsman and an error gave the Cubs two runs in the ninth inning, but the Pirates won 4 to 2.

Rixey was knocked out of the box by the Cards and the Reds lost 10 to 4. Heinie Groh signed a contract.

Mays went to pieces in the ninth inning. Washington scored five runs. The Yanks lost 8 to 7.

The Red Sox and the Pathetics split one. The Sox won 6 to 3 and lost 3 to 2.

MONROE NEWS

J. A. Hendricks' and wife entertained Dennis Hendricks and wife of Kendallville and Mrs. Laura Krill and son, Ralph, last Sunday.

Mrs. Conroy left, Wednesday for Fort Wayne on a several days' visit.

Frank Ray the veteran bachelor, is now comfortably domiciled in his new home on Aristocratic avenue, having moved his lately-purchased home which he had moved from east of town. Frank now invites his friends to call and see him.

On Monday afternoon twenty-five of the little friends of Alice, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Aurand, gathered at her home to assist her in celebrating her sixth birthday. Ice cream and cake were served, games were played and the little folks had an enjoyable time until late in the evening.

Harve Haggard and Don Essex, students of the Angola normal school, are spending a week's vacation with their parents here.

The sub-district all-day meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society held here at the Methodist church on Wednesday was one of the largest attended ever held here. One hundred and fifty representatives from Bluffton, Ossian, Decatur and Hartford were present which helped to fill the large church. The morning session was devoted to the regular routine of business, reports and short talks. At noon a sumptuous dinner was served by the W. F. M. society in the school house basement. The tables groaned with the weight of the good things to eat, and no doubt surpassed any similar occasion as to quantity and quality in the eating line. The afternoon session consisted of talks by the visiting W. F. M. members. Miss Forsythe, the returned missionary from India, gave an eloquent address on that country and her work, and was very interesting throughout. A Standard-bearers organization was then formed consisting of a number of young ladies with Mrs. R. F. Shirk as leader, which will be an auxiliary to the society. Several talks were then made by the ladies after which it was decided to hold the next meeting at Bluffton. Mrs. Zhart of Fort Wayne district, had charge of the meeting and Mrs. Binford, district secretary of Greencastle, Ind., was present. These two ladies gave talks at the morning session. The ladies' quartette of Bluffton rendered several good songs. All those attending praised the meeting and were loud in their comments on everything and everybody for their untiring efforts in making the sub-district meeting one of the most interesting and enthusiastic ever held in this community.

Mrs. Leo Wilhelm, formerly of this city, now of Fort Wayne, has been visiting in the city the last few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mumma, and other relatives.

DEATH A MYSTERY

Grand Jury Continues Investigation of Death of Young Girl

FOUND IN THE RIVER
(United Press Service)
Lafayette, Ind., June 2.—(Special to Daily Democrat) — Additional witnesses testified today before the Tippecanoe county grand jury investigating the death of Margaret VanCamp, pretty 20 year old girl, whose body was found in the Tippecanoe river, May 16. Twenty persons were examined by the grand jury yesterday.

Physicians said the girl was soon to have become a mother. She had been riding in an automobile the night before she disappeared, with Ray Runkle, a farmer youth of 20 years. Young folks who associated with Miss VanCamp were summoned before the jury. She had asked her father for $15 to buy a new coat shortly before Runkle called to take her riding in the automobile. Runkle said he left the girl at the door about 8:45 o'clock after the VanCamp family had retired.

OLD PITCHERS FIND 1921 GOING MIGHTY ROUGH

New York, June 2.—Old pitching bones have had a lot of tough going this season.

Youngsters, unknown and unsure, are slipping into the regal robes of the old kings of the mound.

"Lefty" Cooper, Fred Toney, "Babe" Adams and "Red" Faber are the only veterans showing anything close to their old form.

Alexander the Great is doing bench duty for the Chicago Cubs with a sore arm and Jim Vaughn, his big teammate, isn't delivering as expected.

Dutch Rauter, sensation of the 1919 pennant dash of the Cincinnati Reds, is a disappointment in Brooklyn and his old staff mate, Hod Eller, is out of the game under suspension.

Burleigh Grimes, Sherry Smith and in fact all of Uncle Robb's All-Star pitching staff cracked and Brooklyn is falling down in the pennant race.

Ferdie Schupp and Bill Doak, of the Cards are out of form. Scott Perry has fallen by the wayside with the Athletics. Bob Shawkey has been useless to the Yankees and Tris Speaker is having his trouble with his stars, Voleskie, Bagby and Mails.

Arthur Nehf, the $35,000 beauty of the New York Giants, hasn't been as effective as Bill Ryan, a rookie pitcher from the International League.

Walter Johnson's work with the Washington Senators makes it seem that the old star is almost through. Joe Bush hasn't shown anything for the Boston Red Sox and George Dais has done the Tigers very little good. Dick Radolph had to give up after a brave effort and is now working with the Braves as a coach.

Managers blame the cold, rainy weather of the early season for the failure of the old winds to get in shape. But while they are waiting for the coming of the hot rays, clubs with good young hurlers may get out for a lead that will be hard to overcome.

"The Pittsburgh Pirates are getting the best pitching of the year, "Lefty" Cooper is in his best form, "Babe" Adams looks as young as ever and Glanzer, Zinn, Ponder and Yellow-horse are delivering.
