

Consider Your Clothes

HAVE you ever stopped to think of the part petroleum plays in converting raw material into the fabrics which are used to make your suit of clothes? From the wool on a sheep's back to the clothes on your back is a long journey and petroleum shortens it at every step.

By machinery lubricated with petroleum, a man may shear from 175 to 200 fleeces a day. By the old method, 50 fleeces would be considered a big day's work.

After leaving the sheep, the wool passes through ten major processes before it is ready for the tailor. Each of these require the use of intricate machinery, having bearings which run at speeds varying from 350 to 12,000 revolutions per minute.

From the clipper to the last finishing machine, a diversity of mechanical conditions exist, each of which has been studied and experimented with, and a lubricant found which meets exactly the needs of the machinery.

In solving these lubricating problems, and manufacturing oils and greases which enable these machines to perform their work, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) always has been among the leaders.

Its staff of carefully trained chemists, refiners, and lubricating engineers are constantly at work, devising new and more efficient means of reducing friction.

This Company computes its success not wholly upon its balance sheets, not wholly upon the number of useful products it manufactures, but rather upon the fact that many of the useful products of petroleum are made from material which otherwise would be wasted, and are made by processes which were evolved in the Company's laboratories.

STATE CLOSES CASE.

Warsaw, Ind., June 8.—(Special to Daily Democrat).—Drawing its evidence to a close in the insurance murder trial the state dealt largely today with the final scene of the tragedy in which LeRoy Lovett met his death.

The evidence was intended to prove beyond doubt that Fred and Calvin Decker were involved in the crime along with Virgil, their 18 year old brother who is now standing trial. The state has spent nearly all its time trying to show the jury that a conspiracy existed between the three brothers and their mother to collect $24,000 life insurance by falsely identifying the boy.

THE BIBLE SCHOOLS

Attendance at the Presbyterian Vacation Bible school has shown an increase each day since the school began on Monday morning. Including the teachers there were sixty-three in the school today. Misses Lucille Smith and Genevieve Smith substituted in the school today for Mrs. W. A. Lower and Miss Elizabeth Peterson, who are at Auburn today. Miss Gertrude Vandervoort, sister of Mrs. Saunders, is teaching the children as a regular teacher now, the attendance having shown the need of an additional instructor.

The Evangelical school also shows an increase in attendance each day, and Rev. Haney and his teachers, Misses Fuhrman and Kern, have about sixty children enrolled. Parents and church officers are showing a great interest in the schools, and it is probable the work done this year will be the beginning of great work among the children in the years to come.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Decatur. No resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony. Ask your neighbor!

W. H. Pennington, carpenter, 218 S. First St., Decatur, says: "Some time ago my back was hurting continually. I do not know what brought on the complaint but it seemed to get worse every day. As another member of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results I decided to try them. I got a box at Haltouser's Drug Co. In a short time the backache disappeared." (Statement given Dec. 5, 1908.)

On Oct. 23, 1920, Mr. Pennington said: "My faith in Doan's is as strong as ever. Whenever my kidneys get out of fix a short use of Doan's is sure to fix them up."
