YOU can now obtain at perfume counters everywhere these famous extracts in the most delightfully economical form.

Imagine being able to carry your favorite perfume with you wherever you go, without danger of breakage, spilling or evaporation.

And how simple and convenient to use! You open the little French Ivory case—it's about the size of a lipstick—take out a NIP, break off both safety sealed ends and Presto!—out comes the rare extract. The glass you break has the consistency of sand. Each NIP contains just enough essence for correct perfuming; there's no danger of over-use; so common when applied from a bottle.

With NIPS, wastage is impossible. Breakage is unknown. You can drop a case of NIPS from your purse to the street yet every tube remains intact, its fragrant contents safe and sound.

Go to the nearest drug, perfume or department store and ask for this new case and this way of carrying the world's most exclusive extracts. If you cannot supply yourself at your dealer's, mail order and cash direct to Chicago, June 9—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Police today ended the career of a bandit band that has committed over 100 robberies in the last few months.

John J. Janeck, 26, was shot and killed and Mike Oneziewski, 28, fatally wounded by police during an attempted hold-up.

Two other members of the band, Jack Piech, 19, and Joseph Gorbonski, 26, who were captured, confessed to over 100 other crimes. Among which was shooting a woman and baby during a hold-up.

"Let me have some sleep and I will show you that Jesse James' record is only a supplement to ours," said Piech.

of the inspector is correct. Mr. Wagner, the Fort Recovery man, is a friend of J. E. Elberson, of the Elberson Service station, and the touring car took on gas and oil at his station.

The work of the officers in getting hold of the thief and car showed quick action, and it seems that the way of the auto thief is getting to be a rough road. With several of the states passing legislation that makes it extremely difficult to dispose of a second hand car, it is likely the number of stolen cars will diminish and the man who takes another man's car will certainly be taking a long chance in an attempt to dispose of it.

Mrs. Lucille Mackey, 16 Buena Vista St., Washington, Pa., writes: "Last winter my 3-year-old girl caught a bad cold which left her with a dry cough. It bothered her most at night and she would cough until she vomited. I think she must have had whooping cough. I saw an advertisement for Foley's Honey and Tonic. I tried it and bought two bottles and her cough left her before she finished the second bottle. She had gotten awfully thin, but now she is fat as ever." Sold everywhere—Advt.

MAY CHANGE RULE

"Lively Ball" Causes Bosses of National Pastime to Look for a Way to

CURB LONG DRIVES

Of the Hitters—Ball Now Used Harder to Handle, and Also to Hop On

(By Henry L. Farrell, United Press staff correspondent)

New York, June 9.—Admitting that a lively ball is in use, even if not intentionally, bosses of the national pastime are now looking for measures to curb excessive hitting.

If the American league will concur, the National league is willing to come to the help of handicapped pitchers by permitting the use of resin on finger tips.

Veteran pitchers, such as Fred Toney and Slim Sallee, have maintained the barring of resin an unwarranted measure in as far as its use to dry damp fingers and get a better grip on the ball is concerned.

Ban Johnson president of the American league, recently admitted the new ball is lively, but he quoted the statement of the manufacturers that it was the result of the use of a better grade of wool, that gave the sphere more resiliency, rather than an intentional desire to make it go farther.

Players have maintained all along that the ball was livelier, harder to pitch and more difficult to handle.

Bill Killifer, star catcher of the Chicago Cubs, said recently there was no doubt the new balls had more life.

"One of the new balls hit squarely will either ride out of the yard or line down the infield too hot to handle," he said. "I've seen balls driven through the infield too fast to be seen."

"Increase in hitting is not due entirely to the ban on freak deliveries or the new pitching rules. Pitchers who never used any kind of tricks are being hit just as hard as the ones who used to use emery, resin and other prohibited substances."

"As the ball is harder to handle, so it is harder to pitch. It seems to take more effort to get a fast one across and more stuff to get a hop on it."

Women everywhere should remember that most of the common ailments of women are not the surgical ones—they are not caused by serious dislocations or growths, although the symptoms may be the same, and that is why so many apparently serious ailments readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it acts as a natural restorative. It can be taken with perfect safety and often prevents serious troubles.
