"SO LONG, LETTY" AT MECCA

One of the best comedy-dramas of the screen is "So Long, Letty," the Robertson-Cole super-special, which will be shown for a period of two days at the Mecca theatre beginning tonight. Adapted to the silver screen from Oliver Morosco's famous and successful stage play of the same name, "So Long, Letty" appears to better advantage on the screen because of the wider scope of the camera.

Al Christie, producer and director of "Letty," is pleased to believe that the screening of the comedy-drama is his best work of his career. Aside from a number of bewitching bathing girls who did not waste any material when making their bathing suits, Mr. Christie has selected four excellent artists to play the principal roles. They are T. Roy Barnes, Grace Diamond, Colleen Moore, and Walter Hiers.

The story of "So Long, Letty" has to do with swapping wives, disgruntled husbands, home cooked meals, Paris gowns, cabarets, gingham dresses and sundries. Likewise it teaches a lesson to perpetually dissatisfied individuals.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Williams, southeast of the city was the scene of a happy social gathering on Sunday when the office force of the Nickel Plate railway company at Fort Wayne was a guest at their home. During last week, their son, H. O. Williams, an employee in the offices, placed an invitation to the force on the bulletin board in the offices, to spend Sunday at his father's home, promising them a good chicken dinner. The men and their families, and those who were unmarried and had no families accepted the invitation, and spent the day at the farm, and one glorious day was spent in the country. Music and horseshoe pitching provided amusement, and the chicken dinner served was never equalled, they all declare. The dinner was planned by Mrs. O. J. Small and Mrs. L. G. Williams. Those who enjoyed the day were: Nickel Plate Agent and Mrs. H. C. Tunberg, Peter Eggina, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Simmes, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Measel, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lantz, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. William Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kirback, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ehlerding, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Scudder, Mr. and Mrs. George Baker, A. P. Phipps, H. O. Williams, Miss B. Moffett, Miss L. Wille, all of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thornhill and daughters, Izora and Elizabeth, of Geneva; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Williams and babe of Indianapolis; Mrs. M. A. Davis of Willshire, and Miss Leah Porter of Decatur. William Porter of this city took a picture of the group.

Miss Mary Madeline Coverdale entertained twenty-four little boys and girls yesterday afternoon in honor of her seventh birthday. The youngsters played games and had a jolly good time. Canning candy favors were served with cake and chocolate ice cream. Miss Mary Madeline cut the birthday cake which was trimmed with seven pink candles forming a figure "7". Many lovely gifts were presented to the little hostess. Miss Chrisanna Ellis of Indianapolis was the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Blecke entertained the following guests at dinner last evening: Rev. and Mrs. Hinz, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gotsch, Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt, and Mr. Henry Schamerloh.

Mrs. Dr. Earle Coverdale was hostess at a seven o'clock dinner given last evening honoring Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hughes and Mrs. Ellis of Elgin, Ill. After dinner Mrs. Scott Hughes entertained the guests with music. The house was decorated in June flowers, sweet peas, nasturtiums and roses. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moses and son, Winfield, of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. J. S. Covdale of this city.

The Misses Edna, Marie, and Hattie Blecke gave a shower last evening for Mrs. George Schmidt, nee Miss Erma Gotsch, who were married some time ago. Mrs. Schmidt received many beautiful gifts which were presented to her in a very clever fashion. In a corner of the room on a large round table stood an umbrella covered with trimmings to give the effect of rain. Under the umbrella was a tiny kewpie bride with the gifts piled about her. The edge of the table was decorated with sweet peas and roses. During the evening buncos and other games were played and the prizes won by Misses Louise and Martha Blecke, were given to the bride. A delightful lunch was served later in the evening. Guests were Charlotte Reinking, Ella, Martha and Angeline Krueckberg, Edna Hilda, Louise and Martha Blecke, Velma and Irene Walters, Victor, Harold and Walter Blecke, Edgar Blecke of Fort Wayne, Rev. and Mrs. Hinz, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gotsch,

Mrs. Henry Schamerloh and Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt.

The Helping Hand society of the Reformed church will meet Thursday afternoon in the Sunday school room of the church. It is requested that all members be present. Mrs. M. F. Worthman will be the hostess.

BACK WAS BROKEN

William Reiff, well known, Wells county farmer, who lives just a few miles west of Linn Grove, near the Six-Mile church, was seriously injured Tuesday morning, in a fall from a load of hay at his barn, his back being broken in the fall. Mr. Reiff was moving hay from a wagon into the mow of his barn when a trip rope broke, causing him to fall from the load, a distance of twelve feet. The man in the loft, assisting in the work, state the crunch of the broken vertebrae could be plainly heard by him when the body of Mr. Reiff struck the barn floor. Reiff's body is paralyzed from the hips down. He was removed to the Wells county hospital, and is resting on an air cushion. The unfortunate man has a wife and child. He is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, and has many friends in Adams county.

THE HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. John Burkhead, living on South Twelfth street, was operated upon this morning at her home for cancer of the uterus. The operation was a very serious one, and required a long time. The physicians state the outlook is only fairly favorable. Drs. C. C. Rayl, P. B. Thomas and Elizabeth Burns were in charge of the operation, and Miss Hendricks is the attending nurse.

Mrs. Fred Patterson, operated upon Monday at the Magley hospital, is getting along nicely, a fact her many friends are glad to know.

Clarence Smith, Preble bank cashier, was able to walk up town today and says he feels fine. He spent an hour or two visiting at the various banks, and chatting with friends along the way. He expects to go to the home of his father, W. S. Smith, at Monroe, Thursday.

Joe Brennan, Gregg Brandyberry, Charles Mowery and Joe McDonalds spent last evening in Bluffton visiting with friends.

WHY DOES SHE LOOK SO OLD?

This question has been asked about many a woman under thirty, who has married and taken upon herself the cares of a house and young children.

When a woman is suffering from female weakness, bearing down pains, head and back ache and nervous irritation, it is well nigh impossible to attend to her duties and retain the charm and freshness of youth. Must she then struggle on toward the inevitable nervous breakdown or premature old age?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from such a fate. Thousands of grateful letters from such women testify to the merits of this wonderful root and herb medicine for female ills.

CARE OF THE HAIR

A New York woman says: "I have used Parisian Sage only two weeks, but my hair has wonderfully increased in beauty, seems much heavier, and is entirely free of dandruff. Holthaus Drug company sells it with money back guarantee."
