Yesterday's hero—Brimm, the Pirates first baseman knocked a homer in the ninth inning that beat the Reds 4 to 3 in the play off of a protested game. The Pirates made it two by winning the regular game 5 to 3.

Williams thirteenth homer gave the Browns 1 to 0 victory over the White Sox in the second game after they had won the first 8 to 1.

The Tigers knocked Bagby out of the box and beat the Indians 6 to 3. Manager Cobb spiked himself sliding and had to retire.

The Final Games.

The final games in the Junior League schedule will be played at the Belmont park diamonds at 6 o'clock this evening, the contests being between the Chorus Girls and Pyramids, and the Tigers and the Reds. Raymond Harting will umpire the game between the former teams on the city diamond. The Tiger vs. Red contest will be staged on the high school diamond, with Avon Burk as the official. Manager Suttles desires to meet all the captains in the Junior League at the Industrial association rooms this evening at 8 o'clock. Games last night resulted as follows:

Pyramids, 4; Junior Cubs, 2.
Chorus Girls, 11; Junior Reds, 5.

Huntington vs. Decatur.

The local base ball fans are assured a game out of the ordinary Sunday afternoon when the fast Erie Specials, of Huntington, accompanied by a special train of rooters will clash with the locals in a return game at Belmont park, the contest to be called at three o'clock. Both teams are evenly matched as was shown in the game last Sunday afternoon at Huntington, the locals being forced to bow to defeat in the first game this season by a score of 1 to 0. The Huntington aggregation is coming with their regular line-up and will do their best to again defeat the locals.

The locals are going to work harder than ever to cop the victory and have a real surprise in store for the fans as a number of new players will make their appearance. Bowersox will take the mound for the locals with Pevert on the receiving end and as the locals are desirous of winning the contest, they are desirous of your support. Come out to the best game of the season. Admission fifty cents, grandstand free.

The local line-up will be as follows: Adams lf; Coffee rf; Jehosky 3b; Woman cf; White ss; Compton 2b; Pevert cf; Bowersox p; Goshorn p; Huth U.

The local management announced this morning that the game tomorrow afternoon would be the last game in this city until July 24, when the local club will cross bats with the fast Marion Booster outfit.

PERU MINISTERS ESCAPE DEATH AS CAR OVERTURNS

Peru, Ind., July 2.—Rev. F. F. Thornburg, his son Dwight, Rev. Charles Thornburg and wife, and Miss Clara Mowbray had a miraculous escape from a serious injury when the automobile in which they were riding struck the abutment to the bridge across a creek one-half mile north of the Denver road, overturning down a seven-foot embankment and landing bottom-side upward with the occupants under the car.

The party had been to Fort Wayne to attend a recital given by a music school of that city in which Dwight Thornburg was on the program. Fortunately the men of the party were but slightly injured and the ladies, while suffering from bruises and sprains, escaped without serious injury. The Thornburg car was almost a total wreck.—Fort Wayne News.

FORD RAISES PAY.

Detroit, Mich., July 2.—(Special to Daily Democrat).—Henry Ford today announced an increase of pay for all the employees on the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad.

In contrast with the majority of the railroads of the country, who today are putting into effect the 12 percent decrease ordered by the U. S. States railway labor board, the D. T. & I. will put the Ford minimum wage scale of $6 per day for unskilled labor in effect. Proportional increases for skilled work are granted.

Ford also announced he expects to present the men with a new bonus and investment certificate plan by which they may share in the profits.

Junior Base Ball.

The Junior base ball league is progressing nicely with every team in the running for the silver plate or cup to be awarded the champions with their names engraved on same. The standing of the teams to date is as follows:

Carpentier Floored In The Fourth

tier, one punch cutting his nose. Carpentier landed terrific right under the eye. Dempsey hooked a left to the head. Clinch. Dempsey uppercut and hooked a left to the nose. Carpentier missed a right to the head. Dempsey smashed Carpentier with a right. Carpentier missed a right and fell through the ropes. Carpentier landed a right to the face staggering Dempsey ten seconds before the bell. The round ended with the fighters together, but neither suffering any danger. Dempsey round. Carpentier looked bad, his ribs and stomach were red and his nose was cut.

Round Two.
They danced about Carpentier missed and they clinched. On the break Carpentier danced away and then landed a hard right to the head. Carpentier resumed retreat but came in with a left and right leads missing both. Clinch. Carpentier hooked a left to the head and in the clinch Dempsey uppercut with his left. Carpentier landed left and right to the head staggering Dempsey repeatedly and Dempsey came in and uppercut with his right and split Carpentier's left cheek with his right. Carpentier retreated and fought continuously for a clinch. Carpentier tried two left jabs and a right swing. Dempsey shifted and missed with his right. Carpentier tried a right for the body and left for the head but missed. Carpentier round. Dempsey was almost all in the middle of this round when Carpentier rocked him and he went up against the ropes with his guard down. Taking right to the jaw he recovered quickly and the Frenchman seemed to lose heart a little.

Round Three.
Dempsey bore in and kept Carpentier away, landed a right to the head but it was too high. Carpentier returned the compliment. Carpentier missed a terrific right. Then Carpentier uppercut twice to the face and missed on the third attempt. It was a clinch. Dempsey pounded head and body with both hands. Carpentier missed another right and almost fell to the floor. Dempsey missed a left hook to the head and landed with same blow. Clinch. Both beat the body. Dempsey pounded head with left and right staggering Carpentier. Dempsey jabbed Carpentier's face. Carpentier missed left and right to the head. Clinch. On break Carpentier danced away and again missed with both hands. In the close they pullelled without damage. Ten seconds before the bell Dempsey landed two lefts and two rights to the head and jarred the Frenchman. Dempsey's round.

Round Four.
Carpentier retreated, Dempsey caught him and pounded head and body with right and left but could not find the mark. Dempsey uppercut with right to the face but in the break Carpentier leaped with right to head. Dempsey floored Carpentier with a right to the jaw for a count of nine. When he arose Dempsey tore after him like a tiger and before the challenger was fairly set Dempsey chopped him on the jaw with another right and Carpentier went down for the full count.

While the referee stood over him tolling off the seconds Carpentier struggled to arise lifting up his arm as if in protest against the crowd. He was unable to pull himself to his feet.

The knockout came one minute and sixteen seconds after the gong starting the fourth round.

Special to Daily Democrat.—The first preliminary started at 12:14. The contestants were Micky Delmont of Newark and Johnny Curtin of Jersey City, bantam weights.

Curtin outpointed him by a wide

Carpentier Floored

In The Fourth

The first preliminary boys were hardly out of the ring when the second number went on. It was eight rounds between Paddy Gatty of New York and Frankie Burns of Jersey City, feather weights.

Burns knew too much for Gatty and won the popular decision.

Babe Herman the bantam weight stable mate of Dempsey came on with Joe Metanga, og New Orleans.

Spectators apparently were not interested in anything but the main business of the afternoon.

Old timers in the press box called it a packed house of 90,000 the largest in America boxing history.

When Metrang fell across the ropes in the fifth round Herman refused to hit him. He turned to the referee with a "stop it," and the officials stepped between them just as the towel flew from the New Orleans corner.

The fourth preliminary was supplied by Dick Griffin of Ft. Worth, Texas and Bennie Cofer, New York bantam weight.

Cofer was covering up the ropes after going down twice. He was waved to his corner.

Jene Tunney, the light heavyweight champion of the army and Soldier Jones came one next.

Danny Sullivan was referee. Referee Sullivan stopped the fight preliminary in time to save Jones from further punishment in the seventh round. Tunney hit him with everything he had.

Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul contender for the heavyweight championship, came to the ringside and announced that he would formerly challenge the winner of the main bout.

The fans were getting nervous just before time for the semi-windup. They stood up in their seats and refused to carry out the orders of Announcer Humphrey to take their seats. Humphreys announced that the Miske-Rennett semi-windup would not go on and that Dempsey and Carpentier would come a immediately.

Behind a flock of officers Carpentier preceded by his manager, Descamps, entered the ring at 2:56.

He was given a great ovation. He turned in every direction smiling and shook hands over his head.

Dempsey entered the ring at 2:59. With him was Jack Kearns, his manager.

OTTO REPPERT

Dempsey and Carpentier shook hands. They both smiled at each other.

Referee Ertle then entered the ring. Dempsey showed not a tremor as he stood shaking the Frenchman's hand. The ring was practically clear at 3:04.

Carpentier's swig was announced at 172 and Dempsey's at 188.

Tex Rickard was introduced with the principals. The ring was cleared at 3:13 with the exception of the seconds.
