Can You Solve This Movie Puzzle?

Here's a new puzzle that's as simple as A-B-C. Everybody can solve it, from grandma to baby Jim. The operator of a Movie Machine in a theater decided to play a joke on his audience, so he rearranged the names of 10 Movie Stars and threw them on the screen. The above picture shows how they look. To solve the puzzle all you have to do is rearrange the letters of the 10 funny sentences so that they spell the correct actors' or actresses' names. For instance No. 1 is Helene Chadwick. Everybody knows who she is. If you can name all ten you can win the Ford Sedan or $800.

Probably you know the names of the most famous Movie Stars, but just to refresh your memory, we are listing below a few of them—Charlie Chaplin, Alice Brady, Tom Moore, Wallace Reid, Charles Ray, Theda Bara, Jackie Coogan, Elsie Ferguson, Douglas Fairbanks, Norma Talmadge, Dustin Farnum, Anita Stewart, Pearl White, Earle Williams, Mary Pickford.

185 "Points" Wins First Prize

You will receive 10 "Points" in this Movie Puzzle Game for each name that you arrange correctly, or 100 "Points" in all will be given to you if you can arrange all the Movie Star names the way they were in the first place. You can gain 60 more "Points" by qualifying your answer. That is by proving that you have shown a copy of our paper—The Rural Weekly, to five people. The final 25 "Points" will be awarded by the three final judges to the person sending in the best correct answer.

The answer gaining 185 "Points" (which is the maximum) will win the Ford Sedan or $800 in cash. The second highest will win a $200 Diamond Ring, and so on down the list of the 25 big prizes. In case of a tie, both answers will receive the same prize. Send in your answer TODAY. As soon as it arrives, samples of The Rural Weekly will be sent to you FREE to assist you in qualifying.

Costs Nothing to Try—You Can Win

You will not be asked to subscribe to The Rural Weekly; nor to spend one penny in order to win. We have given away over a hundred automobiles and thousands of other prizes. You can be the next lucky one. Be sure that your name and address appear on your puzzle solution. You can win the Ford Sedan or $800 in this contest—Answer the puzzle NOW.

BEAUTY IS HARMONY

There can be no harmony, and therefore no beauty, in a home in which the wife and mother is cross and irritable and dull-spirited. Often as not, disease is at the bottom of such a condition.

Let the woman who is always tired and who suffers from low spirits and mysterious aches and pains, only try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She will then see that the beauty and harmony will be restored to her home with the return of her health and good spirits.

More Comfort Comes with These Shoes of Striking Style

MARTHA WASHINGTON shoes of style have taught millions of women that foot comfort no longer necessitates shoe clumsiness. In these modish shoes that you would select for their beauty alone, there awaits you the welcome surprise of unaccustomed comfort—ease unlooked for where ultra elegance has seemed the only thought. Inspect these shoes. Let us give you a fitting.

HOLDS UNIQUE WAR RECORD

Editor of Legion Publication Left Post and Marched to the Front
A. W. O. L.

Walter T. Neubert, editor of the Service Star, official publication of the American Legion of Montana, has what is believed to be the most unique war record of any man who served in the A. E. F.

He was sergeant instructor in France, but his desire to get into the front-line fighting caused him to virtually desert the army. He left his post and marched to the front A. W. O. L. He went through the St. Mihiel drive and was in the thick of the Argonne fighting when an order was issued for his arrest. Neubert didn't mind the arrest but he hated to quit fighting. A court-martial followed and he was reduced to a private. Later, following the armistice, he was sent to Coblenz as linotype operator on the Aмарoe News.

Neubert is president of the Great Falls (Mont.) Typographical union, and is adjutant of the Great Falls post of the American Legion.

LEGION HERO WITH ONE LEG

Detroit Member of Organization Displays Makeup of True Soldier During Fire.

Once a hero, always a hero, is what Detroit is saying of Leo Fuhrman, World War veteran, who lost a leg in France, but who nevertheless saved the life of a stranger in a burning building recently, while able-bodied spectators stood about wringing their hands.

Fuhrman, a member of the Charles A. Learned post of the American Legion, lost his left leg at the thigh while serving as a machine gunner with the Thirty-second division of the A. E. F. Early one morning he was awakened by shouts and soon learned that a nearby house was on fire. Garbed in a dressing gown he made his way to the burning house and found a crowd of spectators awaiting the fire department. Fears were expressed for the safety of occupants in the house, and as no one volunteered to enter, the Legionnaire broke open a window and went in. He returned dragging Aaron Pruitt, whom he found overcome on a bed.

"Any soldier would have done the same thing," declared the hero.

IN MIDST OF SHELL SHOWER

Husky Seattle Legion Member Was Wounded Twelve Times Within Half Minute.

The weathering of three years rough and tumble as a Walter Camp All American tackle on the Yale football team conditioned Charles H. Paul, Seattle, Wash., for one of the World War's most unusual experiences.

Paul, then a first lieutenant in the Three Hundred and Sixty-fourth infantry, Ninety-first division, was wounded in 12 different spots in half a minute during the Argonne struggle. One high explosive shell burst near him, hurling him about 15 feet distant. He had just landed when a second shell exploded almost under him, tossing him back to where he started from. He thought it over for several months in army hospitals.

Also a graduate of Harvard law school, Paul is junior partner in one of Seattle's legal corporations. He is commander of Rainier-Noble post of the American Legion, Seattle.

Legion Man Sets the Pace.

Ageratum, architrave, chamfer, cleftogamous, elohim, gambit, guimpe, intaglio, metacarpal, mitosis, nada, pomology, rocco, Simony. How many of the above words can you define? Michael Nolan, 42-year-old mental wizard, who has been classed with the world's "best minds" defined all of them in less than one minute. Nolan is a charter member of Rainier-Noble post of the American Legion at Seattle. Nolan, who has been a lumberjack and a sailor, is a student in the engineering department of the federal board of vocational training at the University of Washington. He was shellshocked in France. He broke into fame when he established a new record in the army "alpha" test with a perfect score of 212 points in thirteen minutes. The best previous score in the psychology test was 207 points in seventeen minutes, made by a Yale professor.

DOINGS IN SOCIETY

CLUB CALENDAR

WEDNESDAY.

Christian Ladies' Aid Cake Sale—Schmitt Meat Market.

FRIDAY.

Zion Lutheran Aid—School house. Ladies Aid Society of M. E. Church—Church parlors.

C. L. of C. Special Meeting—K. of C. hall.

Members and friends of the Ladies' Aid society are urged to remember the social to be held in the church parlors Friday, p. m., November 25. A most delightful program is planned and an enjoyable time is assured all who attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher will have as their guests at dinner tomorrow, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Biggs and son, Woodrow.

Mrs. L. A. Holthouse very pleasantly entertained the members of the Bachelor Maids club Monday evening at her home in the north part of the city. The girls bided to the Holthouse home and enjoyed the fine chicken dinner served at 6:30 o'clock and then played "500." Prizes were won by Miss Mayme Harting and Miss Ade, laide Deininger, Miss Weber taking the guests prize. At the same time Mrs. James Niblick entertained the ladies of the Afternoon club, these ladies also enjoying the dinner and five hundred. Prizes were taken by Mrs. Carrie Ehinger and Mrs. E. X. Ehinger. This was the last meeting for either club until after the holiday season.

Very pleasant was the party in the form of a surprise given by Mae Baker at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Baker, in honor of her mother's forty-sixth birthday. The evening was spent in a social way. A delightful lunch was served in the form of a pot-luck supper. Those present were: Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Emily Niblick, Mrs. Jesse Niblick, and children; Mrs. John Beery, Mrs. Emil Baumgartner and children, Mrs. Earl Amrine and daughter, Mrs. Winnie Russell, Mrs. Jennie Case, Mrs. Ben Amrine, Mrs. George Steele, Mrs. Rachel Andrews, Miss Deborah Andrews, Mrs. William Chronister, and children, Mrs. Carrie Andrews, Mrs. Frank Winans, Miss Mildred Fisher. Out of town guests were: Mrs. Jane Barnhart of Swayzee; Mrs. Elmer Archer, Fort Wayne; Mrs. Nellie Baroff, Ohio City, and Miss Olive Merriman, of Monroe. All departed at a late hour wishing Mrs. Baker many more happy birthdays.

Members of the So-Cha-Rea club entertained their husbands, sweethearts and friends at a dinner Sunday evening at the Murray hotel. The dinner was served in four courses, and Mrs. George M. Kustes, of Clinton, Iowa, was an out-of-town guest. The tables were beautifully decorated in Thanksgiving colors and decorations, and the dinner was faultlessly served.

The meeting of the Root Township Home Economics club, announced for this week, has been postponed because of the death and funeral of Mrs. Samuel Krill. Members will please take notice.

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY

Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills for pains in sides and back; rheumatism, backache, kidney and bladder ailments; and Foley's Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic for constipation, biliousness, headaches, and sluggish bowels. Sold everywhere.

WORN NERVES

Nervous troubles, with backache, dizzy spells, queer pains and irregular kidneys, give reason to suspect kidney weakness and to try the remedy that has helped your neighbors. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. John Durbin, 127 S. 9th St., Decatur, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had sharp pains through my back and I was almost helpless. I couldn't sleep nights and was miserable all day. Headaches almost drove me frantic and I became nervous and irritable. My feet swelled and I felt bloated all over. My kidneys caused a great deal of annoyance and were irregular in action. I used Dean's Kidney Pills from Smith, Yager & Falk's Drug Store and they helped me right along until I was free from backache and that heavy bloated feeling. My kidneys were regulated and I felt fine." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Durbin had. LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 27

PAUL'S VOYAGE AND SHIPWRECK

LESSON TEXT—Acts 27:1-44

GOLDEN TEXT: I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.—II Tim. 1:12. REFERENCE MATERIAL—II Cor. 11:23-28; Phil. 4:12, 13.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of a Shipwreck

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul in a Shipwreck

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Storm and Shipwreck

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul's Power Over Men

1. A Stormy Voyage (vv. 1-20).

1. The ship. A ship of Alexandria sailing from Myra to Italy.

2. The company. Two of Paul's friends, Aristarchus and Luke, are permitted to go with him. Besides these three there were 273 in the ship (v. 7).

3. The storm. The ship made little headway on account of unfavorable winds. Paul advised that they winter in Fair Havens (vv. 9-12), but his advice was unheeded. The gentle south wind deceived them, so they loosed from Crete, only to be soon overtaken by the tempestuous wind, called Euryclodon. They did everything possible to save the ship. They took up the boat which was towed behind; they bound great cables around the ship to strengthen it for the storm; they lightened the ship by bringing down from the masts and rigging everything that was superfluous; and finally, the cargo and tackling of the ship itself were thrown overboard. All this seemed to be of no avail, so that all hope of being saved was removed. It seemed that wicked men and material forces were combined to prevent the great apostle from reaching Rome. However, this is only apparent, for these very experiences were overruled by God to bring good cheer and salvation to many on the way. We should remember that tempestuous winds, as well as the soft breezes, await God's faithful ones. The presence of storms does not prove that we are going the wrong way.

II. Paul's Serene Faith (vv. 21-26).

To a man who did not know God, the failure of the sun and stars to shine for many days, the fading of all hope, was natural; but to the man of faith, hope still burns brightly. God is just as near to His own in the midst of a stormy sea as in their quiet homes.

Note Paul's behavior:

1. His rebuke for their failure to heed his advice at Fair Havens (v. 21). This was not a mere taunt, but a reference to the wisdom of his former advice urging them to give him a more respectable hearing.

2. Bids them be of good cheer (v. 22). He inspired them with hope.

3. He promises them safety (v. 22). Though the ship would go to pieces, every man's life would be saved.

4. The source of his information (vv. 23, 24). The angel of God had revealed it unto him.

5. The reason of Paul's calm faith (v. 23). "Whose I am and whom I serve."

III. The Ship's Crew All Safe on Land (vv. 27-44).

This was exactly as the Lord had said. We can rest assured that all God has spoken shall come to pass, even though there be a broken ship, burnt soldiers and a perishing crew. Aside from the fulfillment of God's promise, the most important part of this section is the splendid sanity which characterizes Paul's action on the way. Two things especially mark his sanctified common sense.

1. His vigilance had detected that the sailors had planned to escape. He knew how much they would be needed presently, and at once took steps to prevent their escape. He went straight to the man in charge and said, "Except these abide in the ship, we cannot be saved." He practiced the truth that genuine reliance upon God is the all-powerful incentive to human action. God's decrees always include the means for their accomplishment.

2. He knew that the famishing condition of the people was not the most favorable for the physical struggle which was soon to be undergone by them when they must struggle through the water to the shore. So he gets them to take a substantial breakfast. He had the good sense to look after that which was necessary. It was no time to talk to these men about their souls, for their bodies needed the main attention. His prayer for that meal had more effect upon the people than his preaching would have had. Let us learn from this the divine method of administration, namely, God overruling while man trusts Him and acts. A vigorous faith manifests itself in reasonable action.

Peopled the Holy City.

And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem; the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities. And the people blessed all men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.—Nehemiah, 11:1 and 2.

At War Against the Soul.

Dear brother, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.—I Peter 2:11.

DR. LEONHARDT SAYS

External treatments seldom cure

Nor do surgical operations.

The cause is inside—bad circulation.

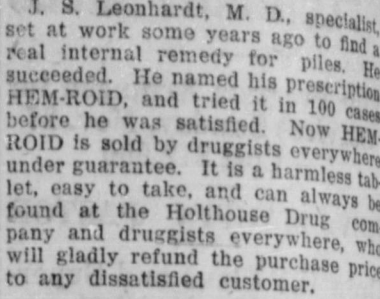

The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.

The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through the stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 100 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at the Holthouse Drug company and druggists everywhere, who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.
