

Better Than Pre-War Prices Are In Effect On KARO

KARO has gone back to better than the old low pre-war prices. Karo has always been one of the most economical foods for the large family—and now it costs still less.

Give the children lots of Karo on their pancakes, biscuits or toast. Or as a delicious spread on bread.

See how they'll relish it, and how it will help give them strength and energy for all their little needs of play, work and study.

P. S.—Please don't forget to tell your little boy or girl to bring home a can of Karo on the way home from school.

ON MILK RATION.
Warsaw, Jan. 6.—Pupils of the west ward school building here are on a milk ration and after a tryout of two weeks are said to have been greatly benefitted.
A charge of fifteen cents a week is made for the milk, the cost being three cents for each feeding of one-half pint.

It is given to the pupils at the recess period, being served in bottles and drunk through a straw.
The Parent-Teachers' association of Warsaw recommended the rationing of milk in this way and the plan probably will be extended to the other schools of the city.

Otto Wefel of Magley, Ind., made a business trip to Decatur today.

Mrs. August Scheiman and daughter of route 1, shopped in the city this afternoon.

OBITUARY.

William Custer, son of John and Elizabeth Custer, was born in Mercer county, Ohio, August 25, 1843, departed this life at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. P. Aspy at 10:20 o'clock Wednesday evening, December 28, 1921, age 78 years, 5 months, 3 days.

He grew to manhood on the farm of his father in Mercer county, Ohio.

When war clouds gathered in '61 he heard his country's call and enlisted in Co. A, 46th O. V. V. I. at Columbus, O., and was immediately transferred to the front and saw four years of active service in the army of the west.
He march with Sherman in his famous march to the sea.

When Lee surrendered he marched with the army to Washington and passed before the beloved Lincoln in review and was honorably discharged at Louisville, Ky., 1865.

Returning to his old home he was united in marriage to Sarah Elizabeth Streete in 1868.

T this union was born six children, Mrs. J. W. Watkins, who passed away September 5, 1920; Mrs. Asa McMillen and Mrs. M. F. Aspy of Pleasant Mills; Mrs. W. F. Beery of Decatur; John and Lee Custer of Hicksville, O.

Besides these he leaves seventeen grandchildren; fifteen great grandchildren and friends without number.
In middle life he heard the call of his Heavenly Father and after the dictates of his military conscience answered: "Jesus, Captain, Here Am I." He united with the M. E. church and was a pillar of the church during the trying days of its struggle for existence. He worked untiringly for the church and gave freely of his time and money. He was long a trustee of the church and held the trust sacred.
He was also for year steward and to many in this community still living.
His call in his official capacity was a looked-for pleasure.

As he advanced in years, broken in health, he relinquished his tasks to younger hands and quietly and uncomplainingly awaited the sounding of taps, which came last Wednesday evening at 10:20 o'clock.

He had repeatedly said during his last illness that only Jesus could help him and that he would soon come. No one doubted his faith. His was a trust sublime and he is today basking in the sunshine of his Father's love.

Don't Stub Your Toe

ONE dark night—so the story goes—a certain monarch placed a large boulder in the middle of the road. Thousands of his people, thereafter, severely stubbed their toes or troubled to walk around. At length, one lusty youth—wiser than the rest—seized the stone and heaved it from his path. And where it had rested, he found a bag of gold.

Are you stubbing your toe? Are you overlooking any bags of gold? How about the advertising in this paper?
Do you read it—consistently? It is a bag of gold to many of our readers.

In our columns you will find the advertisements of alert progressive merchants and manufacturers who seek to tell you something they think you ought to know.
This advertising is news about the very things that interest you most—articles that will save you money, lessen your work, or add materially to your comfort and well being.

Thrifty men and women read advertising. To them it is a plain, every day business proposition—a duty they owe themselves and their purses. It tells them where they can buy exactly what they want at a price they can afford to pay.

Advertising pays them. They make it pay.

It will pay you, too. Read it.
