WONDERFUL TRIP

we might speak of. We came past Soap Lake, Wash., a health resort. Also the Snoqualmie Falls, which are certainly beautiful. We ferried across the Missouri river at Mabridge, S. D., and we came across a long toll bridge just before we got to St. Paul, Minn. The long hill we spoke of was called "Lookout Pass."

Well, this is enough of our trip, and if you don't think it is a wonderful trip, just take it and see. We followed the Yellowstone trail from Fort Wayne, Ind., to Spokane, Wash.

CARPENTER COULD NOT DRIVE A NAIL

South Bend Man Was Forced to Give Up His Trade—Feels Fine Now.

"I had to give up by trade because I actually got in such condition I could not drive a nail, but I am in fine shape now and can work as well as I ever did in my life," said W. D. Faunots, R. F. D. 3, South Bend, Ind., for thirty years a carpenter in South Bend.

"I have seen many remarkable things but I never saw anything in my life to equal the change Tanlac made in me in a short time. It has just built me up in every way. I have the best appetite I have had in many years and my stomach is as sound as a dollar, although for months before I began taking Tanlac I was not able to eat anything without suffering afterwards.

"Even the muscles of my arms, which had gotten soft and flabby, are hard and firm now, and I feel fine all the time."

Tanlac is sold in Decatur by Smith, Yager & Falk's and by leading druggists everywhere.

Chas. Mowrey and Ralph Krill went to Fort Wayne yesterday afternoon where they visited with friends.

A gift of flowers from her husband! And their perfume froze her soul!

For now she knew that "Heliotrope Harry" was free. Out of prison to save his daughter's happiness. Out to wreak vengeance on this inhuman, blackmailing mother!

Yet he never lifted a hand against her. His victory was far more terrible—far more noble—than that.

As "Humoresque" showed to the world the heart of a mother, so "Heliotrope" stands as the greatest story of father-love ever filmed.
