A DELIGHTFUL COMEDY.

A delightful comedy is "The Rookie's Return" starring Douglas MacLean the popular young Paramount-Ince light comedian, which comes to the Crystal theatre Friday. The story is a brilliant one and there are numerous mirth-provoking situations of which the star and his supporting players make the most. Doris May who has been Mr. MacLean's co-star in several picture successes, is his leading woman and in the company are such well known players as Frank Currier, Joe White, Wallace Beery, Kathleen Key and others. Jack Nelson was the director. Benefit American Legion.
