(Reported by M. R. Murdock and his worthy assistants, Emmens, Gillie and Springer)

The students of the Reppert Auction School, know that there is one real class composed of men, real men, too, at the M. E. church. It is quite often the case that when a stranger shows up at church, everyone looks at him in such a way, that he feels as though they are thinking: "Well, who is he and what is he doing here?"

Not so, at the M. E. church. They have a glad hand for all, make us feel at home and do not neglect the "inner man", all of which is appreciated very much by the students.

Mr. Watson arrived from Vermont spreading Hoof and Mouth disease. Students running all over town last night. Student Gorrell has contracted first severe attack of mouth disease.

Col. Garten breaks world's record as a talker, eats one cup of coffee and drinks sandwiches and never misses a word.

We find that we have two great students theology, one member of the faculty and No. 92. The debate was hot and heavy, but called to a draw when No. 54 who went to sleep during the debate, fell off his chair.

Rev. Col. Perdue's subject for his daily sermon was "Do not burn all your gas while standing still with the clutch out." We are wondering if Col. Harold T. Gillie, student No. 40, used good sales management in his sale last night, it seemed that it took him and his aides at least an hour and a half to get sales started after they were called to the block with orders to shoot.

Student Matthew Kee No. 78 of Perdue Sask. Canada, is confined to his room with rheumatism.
