

The Indianapolis Star $1,500 Picture-Puzzle Game

How Many Objects in This Picture Start With the Letter B? —Like "Broom," "Bicycle," "Balloon," Etc.

The picture above contains a number of visible objects beginning with the letter "B," like those mentioned. The idea is to find the most. We are going to give fifteen cash prizes for the fifteen best lists of words submitted. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words will be awarded first prize; second best, second prize, etc. It is a most enjoyable game, interesting, educational and amusing, with the prospect of a very substantial reward for your efforts.

Open to All—Cost Nothing to Try

The picture puzzle game is an innovation equally interesting to man, woman and child. It is simple, but intensely fascinating, and you will find it grippingly absorbing. Try it and you will agree. Its hidden fascination and fun-provoking qualities are not revealed until you start a list of "B" words. A joint hunt for "B" words by all the members of your household will result in an amazing amount of fun. We know you will find it the best game ever, and so we invite you, Mr. and Mrs. Reader and family, to try this puzzle game. It costs nothing to take part and you don't have to send in a single subscription to win a prize. If your list of "B" words is awarded first prize you will win $50.00, but if you would like to win more than $50.00 we are making a special bonus offer whereby you can win bigger cash prizes by sending in one or two subscriptions, with remittances to cover, to The Indianapolis Star.

You Can Win $1,500

Here's how: If your answer wins first prize and you have sent in a yearly subscription to The Indianapolis Star, you will receive $500.00 instead of $50.00. (See second column of figures in prize list.) Or if you are awarded first prize and you have sent in two subscriptions, either One New and One Renewal or Two New subscriptions to The Star, you will receive $1,500.00 instead of $50.00. (See third column of figures in the prize list.)

It takes but two subscriptions to qualify for the big $1,500.00 reward. Absolutely two subscriptions is the maximum, one of which is to be a new subscriber. Your own subscription will count as one and we can take subscriptions to start at any future date. In sending in your subscriptions, give full instructions on a separate sheet from that on which you send your answers. Note—One new or renewal six months' daily and Sunday subscription at $6.50 (to be delivered in towns where The Star has delivery service) will be accepted as one subscription to qualify for the $500.00 prize. Two six months' daily and Sunday subscriptions at $6.50 each, one of which must be a new subscription, or one new subscription for a full year, $12.00 in all (to be delivered by carrier in towns where The Star has delivery service), will be accepted as two subscriptions in qualifying for the $1,500.00 prize.

OBSERVE THESE SIMPLE RULES

1. Any man, woman or child who is not an employee of The Indianapolis Star, or a member of an employee's family, may submit an answer. It costs nothing to try.
2. All answers must be mailed by Saturday, March 18, 1922.
3. Answers should be written on one side of the paper, numbering words 1, 2, 3, etc., and send your list of words to the upper right-hand corner of each sheet.
4. Only words found in the English dictionary will be counted. Compound, hyphenated or obsolete words will not count. Either the singular or plural can be used.
5. Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once. However, any visible part of the object may also be named.
6. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words will win first prize, etc. Neatness, style and handwriting have no bearing upon deciding the winners.
7. Candidates may co-operate in answering the puzzle, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household, nor will a prize be awarded to more than one of any group outside of the family where two or more have been working together.
8. In the event of a tie for any prize offered, the full amount of such prize will be paid to each tied participant.
9. All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless of whether or not a subscription to The Indianapolis Star is sent in.
10. Subscriptions (both new and renewal) by mail or carrier will be accepted; however, in qualifying for the $1,500 bonus reward, at least one new subscription must be sent in.
11. A new subscriber in any one who has not been receiving The Indianapolis Star by mail or carrier since February 28, 1922.
12. All new subscriptions will be carefully verified by the Puzzle Manager and candidates marking old subscriptions as new will positively forfeit the credit for such subscriptions as qualifying for the maximum bonus reward.
13. There will be three independent judges, having no connection with The Indianapolis Star, who will judge the answers submitted and award the prizes at the end of the puzzle game, and participants agree to accept the decision of the judges as final and conclusive.
14. The judges will make the decisions as soon as possible after the close of the puzzle game, and the announcement of the prize winners and the correct list of words will be published in The Indianapolis Star as quickly thereafter as possible.

Plans for the study work for the coming year were discussed and other business disposed of after which Mrs. Sutton assisted by her small son, Dick, served, very delicious refreshments. The close of the club work this year will mark the fortieth year's study, this being the oldest club in Decatur and one of the oldest in the state. The next meeting will be March the 8th at the home of Mrs. J. C. Patterson and the hostess will also have charge of the program for the afternoon.

The Ladies who have not turned in their mite-boxes will please bring or send them to the meeting Friday afternoon at Mrs. Chalmers Schaefer's. The mite box secretary wants to make her report and wants every box reported.

THE PEOPLES VOICE

To the Editor of Decatur Daily Democrat:—
Consolidated Schools vs. One Room School

One can scarcely realize that there is anyone living in this age, who is so unprogressive, such a block in the way of progress, such an enemy to the welfare of the children as to oppose such modern improvements as the consolidation of rural schools.

In large cities like Chicago, broad-minded well educated men are selected for the school board, men well qualified for the position which is simply honorary.

In the country anyone can be elected as trustee, with no qualifications, no fitness no knowledge of child life, no knowledge as to fitness of teachers, and absolutely uninterested in the welfare of the children, yet these very men can build one room school houses and cause the people to be taxed for these worse than worthless schools.

A writer has well said "that a country school is a place to go for a few months in the year to expose yourself."

The present Governor of Indiana has said "that if the country people do not know what they need" (which many of them do not) we will pass laws forcing them to consolidate the schools in the rural districts."

There are very few even in best of country districts fitted to be trustees and from these one room schools, there will be no better timber for the future. Patrick Henry said "We must educate, we must educate or perish from the earth."

I can think of nothing more disgusting than to think of these unfit men building one room schools near their farms in order to enhance the value, or a man that has no vision beyond his own family circle. He who does not have in mind the good of a community who lives in his own absolute selfishness, is unfit to administer to the needs of the children, even his own.

It is surely sad to think of, that in all reformations for the good of humanity, that revolution must precede evolution, that revolution has delayed evolution, but just as sure as the sun shines consolidation of rural schools will come and all this expense of building one room schools and taxing the people will only be a waste of time and money for laws will be passed enforcing consolidation. The last words of Galileo were "The Earth Do Move" whether you like it or not, the wheels of progress will carry you with them and force you to submit to these advanced ideas.

Kerosene - Coal - Oil Gas-Burner

This burner sets in the fire box, on grates and will fit in any coal or wood stove. Actually puts a gas plant in any cook stove. Works equally in old stove as in a new stove. Coal-oil gas positively makes the hottest fire of any fuel. Coal oil is by far the cheapest fuel known. This new wonder oil gas burner will heat a cold oven to baking point in 15 minutes. It gives an even fire which keeps oven heat at even heat. This means a better oven for baking.

Easy on a stove, can't burn out grates or warp stove top, can be installed in a few minutes. Does away with coal bin, wood pile, ashes and dirt. It is one of the greatest inventions of the last 10 years. Comes under written guarantee and makes good everywhere. Above all this burner brings this grand convenience to the people at a very low price—Oil Tank, Pipe Fitting and Burner, all for $12.50. See demonstrations any evening; Friday and Saturday all day and evenings at 316 Jackson street, one and one-half block West of interurban station, Decatur, Indiana.

Miss Tonnelier IS VERY MODEST

Tonnelier is a little over thirty years of age, petite, a brunette and of very affable personality.

She undoubtedly is richly endowed with those prime requisites cited by Mr. Duss in his masterly exposition of the essay contest in which he stated that to win in a contest of this kind the writer among other qualifications, must possess modesty, dignity and the saving grace of humor.

In any event the prize goes to an idea recipient. "I am just an ordinary person," said she in answer to a request to tell something about herself.

Now that is just exactly the kind of person whom we wanted the prize to go to; also thereby hangs a tale. Again quoting Mr. Duss; for he said that essays written by judges, ministers, college and university professors, teachers of literature, etc., were swept away "like chaff before the wind," when they came up against the calm, cold scrutiny of the eliminating and superior judges.

If Miss Tonnelier's essay is an index of her character then New Smyrna is to be congratulated; if we are to be blest with her presence, even tho it be but a short time yearly.
