"THREE WISE FOOLS" TONIGHT.

With all due respect to relativity theories, John Golden, theatrical producer, has evolved an idea that time and space will have to be destroyed before the essence of laughter can possibly be removed from the type of comedy that the people want. He has a rare specimen in the very successful comedy, "3 Wise Fools", which he will present at the Majestic Theatre, Ft. Wayne, tonight and tomorrow night.

"No matter how serious the moral to be drawn from each story," says

KEMP'S BALSAM
for that COUGH!

Golden, "laughter is its wholesome and appetizing decoration." And this is true of all his successes; "Lightning", the world's record breaker; "Turn to the Right", "The First Year", "Dear Me", and "Thank You" in the present comedy John W. Ransome, famous as the original Haus Wagner in "The Prince of Pilson" will have a principal role, and will be supported by Burke Clarke, Harry Forsman, Robt. L. Keith, Hazel Sexton and several other prominent players.

THE CHICKEN LAW

Any person who shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this act shall be fined in any sum not more than $10 nor less than $1 for each and every day that such turkeys, chickens or geese are allowed to trespass after such written notice shall have been given.

Failure to set your house in order and to plan for the inevitable by making a will may impose unnecessary hardship upon your wife at a time when sorrow makes her least able to endure any annoyance. It is a blemish on a man, who has been well esteemed all his life for his wisdom and discretion, to leave his wife the settlement and management of a troubled estate.

By making your will now and appointing this company as executor and trustee, you assure to your heirs the financial responsibility, training and experience of an institution skilled in estate and trust matters, and you make certain the property carrying out of your expressed wishes.

MRS. ELVA CAULKINS.

"I have gained thirty pounds since taking Tanlac and never felt better in my life than I do now. Mother says she hasn't seen me looking so well since I was a girl," said Mrs. Elva Caulkins, 303 Blandina St., Utica, N. Y.

"For eighteen long years I suffered from stomach trouble and sluggish liver, and during all that time I hardly knew what a well day was. As I almost starved myself trying to avoid indigestion, I fell off until I was hardly more than a shadow, and was so weak I was barely able to drag myself around the house. As a result of my long suffering I became almost a nervous wreck."

"This was the condition I was in when I started taking Tanlac, but today I am strong and well, feeling and looking like a different person from what I did a short time ago. It is no wonder to me that so many people praise Tanlac to the skies."

Tanlac is sold in Decatur by Smith, Yager & Falk's and by leading druggists everywhere.

TO TAKE CENSUS

(Continued from page one) important result of the census. This question is to be asked of every soldier in the community. The bill offers the soldier his option of any one of the five following provisions for compensation: (1) Adjusted pay for the term of service put in; (2) a paid-up 20-year insurance policy; (3) expenses paid for a course in vocational training; (4) a loan for the purchase of a farm or home; (5) application of a man's adjusted pay on the purchase of government improved property.

The adjusted pay is to be set at the rate of $1.90 a day for home service and $1.25 a day for service overseas. The face value of the life insurance policy offered is to be 3.38 times the amount that would be received by the same man as adjusted pay. His vocational training aid or farm or home loan would be 140 per cent of what he would receive in cash.

All back claims against the government are likewise to be entered in the Legion census. If a man did not get his $60 bonus on discharge he is requested to make it known. If the government owes him back pay, travel pay, if his allotments or liberty bonds have gone astray, if he has never received his victory medal, he is to enter his complaint on the Legion questionnaire.

"We want to know everything that every ex-service man has coming to him," is the word that has come from state headquarters at Indianapolis. That is what the local post is going after.
