ged and mortised, little metal and few nails being used. The original Rappites well continues to supply the drinking water.

In 1841, Robert Henry Fauntleroy added to the original five room house, nine rooms, bath, trunk room and rear inclosed porch. It is heated by hot air, is electric lighted and has running water. The old home contains a choice small library and many of its original century old possessions, it is said.

New Harmony is on the Indiana state highway road No. 20, and on the "Wonderland" detour of the Atlantic-Pacific highway and only fifteen miles from the Illinois state highway. The two highways will be joined soon.

SPORT SUMMARY

United Press Staff Correspondent
Memphis, Tenn. — Continuing to play careless, Crazy Ball, the New York Yanks lost to Brooklyn, 6 to 4. Sam Jones, hurling star, did not live up to it.

Princeton, N. J.—Bob Tait, captain of the Princeton water polo team, could finish both Jack Dempsey and Strangler Lewis in the water, according to Frank Sullivan, tiger swimming coach.

State College, Pa.—The Oxford Cambridge Lacrosse team from England defeated the Penn State team, 6 to 0. The Britishers played brilliantly.

Americus, Ga.—Ty Cobb, manager of the Detroit Tigers, will be out of the game several days. He twisted his ankle sliding in a game in which the Tigers beat Rochester, 10 to 3.

New York—Willie Hoppe, former billiard champion, will enter the business end of the game with a string of billiard parlors.

Melbourne—Because Gerald Patterson and Norman Brookes may not be able to make the trip to the United States, the Australian tennis team may default out of the Davis cup tournament.

Jersey City—Louis J. Messano, Jersey City lawyer, was appointed chairman of the New Jersey state boxing commission succeeding R. H. Doherty, resigned.

Chicago—Judge K. M. Landis, back home after a tour of the southern training camps, sees a big year for baseball. The judge sported a new coat of tan and lots of pep as a result of rest and strength gained on the trip.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Red Faber showed the old time stuff and the white Sox downed the giants, 6 to 2. Allowing the champions only eight hits.

Hutchinson, Kans.—The cubs were due here today for a series of games with Hutchinson, Wichita and Kansas City on their way home.

Mr. Stewart to Take New Place

In this office where we knew him well he has been a most faithful and loyal assistant and it is needless to say that every one connected with the Democrat knows he will more than make good in his new and responsible position. The Stewarts are popular here and there is nothing too good for them. While they regret to leave here the opportunity is a splendid one and they feel they cannot afford to pass it.

Our best wishes will follow Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Meredith and Max.

FOR CITY PARK

club and the Rotarians have signified a willingness to assist in the work and with the co-operation of the councilmen and Mayor DeVoss it is thought that Decatur can boast of an attractive city park this summer.

Some time ago the proposition of taking over the old cemetery on Winchester street and making a park out of it was discussed and steps may be taken later for the securing of this site from the township and turning it into a beautiful park.

MARRIED AT PERU

Ahr, just west of the city, where they expect to stay until fall, and will then go to housekeeping.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Gehrig of Eighth street, is a most pleasant and popular young lady, and for some time has been employed as a stenographer at the Vail offices. The groom is also energetic and popular with the younger people of the city. Since leaving school a few years ago he has been assisting his father in the farm work and stock business. The congratulations of their many friends is today being extended to the happy couple.

THE COURT NEWS.

There was only one entry on the court docket this morning, being in the case of the Harpinola Company vs William F. and Robert A. Jaberg, the action being on note. A motion by the defendants to require plaintiff to file sufficient cost bond was overruled by the court. Objections by each defendant.

Samuel Craig vs. John Gallogly, complain for damages, is the title of a complaint reaching the county clerk's office today on a change of venue from the Huntington circuit court. Bowers & Feightner are attorneys for the plaintiff.

BOXING BOUT AT MOOSE HALL.

A boxing exhibition has been arranged for Tuesday evening, April 18, at the Moose hall which is being looked forward to with great interest by the lovers of the fist sport. Two eight round bouts have been scheduled, one between Buck Mathias, of Fort Wayne and Charlie Blue, of Huntington, both weighing 135 lbs. The second bout will be staged between Roy Saylor, of Fort Wayne and Kid McCoy of Dayton, Ohio, and both promise to be quite exciting.

A battle royal will also be staged between five colored boys which will prove a thriller.

A COURT OF INQUIRY.

(United Press Service).
Washington, April 5.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—An army court of inquiry will be appointed to investigate the shooting to death at Oklahoma City of Lieut.-Col. Paul Ward Beck, army flyer of Post Field, Okla., is was learned at the war department.

This is in accordance with regulations requiring such an inquiry in the event of the death of an army man from other than natural causes in peace time. This step will be taken independently of what action is taken by county authorities. The army court will be appointed by the commandant of Ft. Sill, Okla., is was said.

ORGANIZE COUNCILS.

Postmaster General Work, in instructions sent out today, has extended the work of the welfare Department to include rural carriers and fourth class postmasters, who have not heretofore had councils of their own. There are now about 700 welfare councils organized in that many post offices which are composed of representatives of clerks, carriers and other employees. Under the extension the rural carriers and fourth class postmasters will be permitted to organize county councils where the number of postmasters and rural carriers are sufficient to justify the organization of a council.
