

Goes Farther

A can of Calumet Baking Powder will make more pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins, etc. than a can of most other brands.

It lasts longer—goes farther because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength—therefore you use less.

When a recipe calls for two teaspoons of baking powder, use two level teaspoons of Calumet, the results will always be the same—perfectly raised bakings—remember this when you buy baking powder and don't forget that Calumet is the economic buy because it goes farther.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Little baskets of candy were placed at each place, the brides table being arranged with a large corsage of brides roses, violets and lilies of the valley. At the brides table were seated Mrs. Parent's mother, Mrs. James Gay, her sister, Miss Goldie Gay and an intimate friend, Miss Tena Schurger. A delicious three course dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock after which "500" was played, the prizes being awarded to Miss Virginia Murtaugh and Mrs. Raymond Gass who presented them to the bride. After the cards, the guests all went to the dining room where the table, decorated with streamers of colored paper from the chandelier was laden with beautiful gifts of cut glass, aluminum, silver, linen and a beautiful floor run as gifts for the bride. CARPENTIER K. O's LEWIS (By Charles M. Mean)

United Press Staff Correspondent
London, May 12.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Georges Carpentier knocked out Ted Lewis with a fair blow, was the verdict today of a jury consisting of referee Joe Palmer, Jack Dempsey, World's Heavyweight Champion, Jimmy Wilde, World's Flyweight Champion, and all London sport writers.

London, hearing as many as a dozen different tales from hysterical ring-siders who admit that they don't remember anything that happened, did not know what to think today about the rather sensational one-round knockout of the idol of the east by the Frenchman at the Olympia last night.

The gallery crowd shrieked "foul! foul!" when Carpentier clipped Lewis with a terrific right hook to the jaw and put him down for the count after two minutes of fighting.

Joe Palmer, in a statement to the United Press, said today:

"The final blow was perfectly fair. The men had broken from a clinch. It was Lewis' business to protect himself. He didn't do it."

Jack Dempsey, World's Champion, who sat at the ringside, said:

"The blow which ended it was perfectly fair. The men were at such tension that anything was liable to happen. Carpentier simply took advantage of an opening. He was just too good for Lewis, that's all."

Lewis today in a statement to the United Press, said:

"I was hit while the referee was holding my left hand. The next thing I knew I was struggling to get up. I fought clean expecting Carpentier was a clean fighter."

Jimmy Wilde, World's Flyweight Champion, who sat at the ringside, said:

"It was some punch. It would have knocked over a lamp post. I never saw anything like it. It didn't look like a foul to me."

London sport writers emphasize the fact that Lewis turned his head momentarily and Carpentier leaped to the opening like a tiger. They all supported the decision of the referee.

Tommy Burns, former World's Champion, took an opposite view. To the United Press he said today:

"It was the dirtiest two and one-half minutes I ever saw. Both were to blame but Carpentier was the worst. I can't see why the Frenchman wanted to foul by butting with his head and holding and hitting when he had an advantage of 20 pounds over an opponent in every way his inferior."

"Lewis undoubtedly had the Frenchman worried with his infighting and forced him to clinch for protection. However, we must abide by the referee's decision."

Yesterday's hero—Dave Bancroft, first up in the first inning smacked a single and prevented Bill Doak from getting into the no-hit, no-run ranks. The Cards beat the Giants, 2 to 0—New York's first shutout of the year.

McClelland muffed a pop fly and two runs trickled in that gave the Yanks a 4 to 1 victory over the White Sox.

Dutch Reuther's support fell down behind him and the Pirates beat the Robins, 12 to 6. Hungling, Brooklyn's new catcher, hit a homer.

The Browns made a three out of four by beating the Senators, 5 to 3.

Detroit won its fourth straight game beating the Red Sox, 5 to 3. Bassler hit safely three times in three up.

The Cubs dropped down into fourth place when the Phils beat them, 11 to 2.

Kopp, Ford and Molke completed a triple play but it didn't help the Braves, the Reds winning, 9 to 5.
