

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

POSTOFFICE AT KINGSLAND
HAS BEEN ABANDONED

The postoffice, department has announced the discontinuance of the postoffice at Kingsland and mail will go to former patrons of the Kingsland postoffice by rural routes, most of them to be served from the Ossian office. Milo Nelson was the last Kingsland postmaster and he tendered his resignation, on account of age and infirmities. The receipts of the office had dwindled in recent years until the salary became merely a nominal sum, and no one it appeared, cared to accept the responsibilities with the small pay.—Bluffton News.

BLUE CREEK FARMERS
ENJOYED MOTION PICTURES
AT WOOD SCHOOL MONDAY

On last Monday evening the farmers of Blue Creek Township met at the Wood school and enjoyed an evening of motion pictures shown with the Farm Bureau machine. Films furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture on Club Work and home conveniences were shown by County Agent Busche. The matter of the purchase of binder twine through the Farm Bureau was also discussed and will be further considered at the next meeting, which will be held about the middle of June. There were about seventy-five men, women and children present at the meeting.

AUTOS COLLIDE

A large Studebaker touring car driven by Mrs. John McCrory and a Willy-Knight coupe driven by Dan Erwin collided at the corner of 2nd and Jackson streets about 10 o'clock this morning. The Erwin car was going north on 2nd and Mrs. McCrory was driving west on Jackson street, side curtains on her car preventing her from seeing the coupe until she was upon it. The McCrory car striking the Erwin car a glancing blow on the right rear wheel damaging the front of the Studebaker and throwing the back wheels of the coupe out of line.

WOMAN BLAMED BY HER FAMILY
Restless, irritable, nervous excitable and exacting is the charge against her by those nearest and dearest. How little they realize the struggle the overworked wife and mother is making to keep about and perform the hundred and one duties that devolve upon her! Every hour her headaches, backaches and pains drag her down until she can stand it no longer. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored more women in this condition to health and happiness than any other medicine. The grateful letters we are continually publishing in this paper from women who have found health by its use prove it.

VELOUR FINISH

Is Your House A Home?

The answer is on the walls

WALLS are the background of family life. They affect the beauty, cheer and cleanliness of every room.

When finished with the soft mellow tints of Devol Velour Finish (a flat oil paint) walls not only help to make the things in front of them beautiful, but become beautiful themselves.

And because such walls are washable, their cleanliness and fresh beauty are easily preserved by the occasional use of soap, water and a rag.

Devol Velour Finish can be applied on any interior wall or ceiling.

Devol Products are time-tested and proven,—backed by the 168 years' experience of the oldest paint manufacturing concern in the U.S. Founded 1754.
