LESSON FOR MAY 21

HILKIAH'S GREAT DISCOVERY

LESSON TEXT.—II Chron. 34:14-35.
GOLDEN TEXT.—Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.
—Ps. 119:105.

REFERENCE MATERIAL.—Deut. 6: 9-10; Josh. 1:8; Col. 3:16; II Tim. 3:14-15.

PRIMARY TOPIC.—How the Lost Bible Was Found.

JUNIOR TOPIC.—Hilkiah Discovers the Lost Bible.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC.—
How to Make the Bible Our Own.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC.— The Authority and Influence of the Bible.

About a hundred years elapsed between the reformation under Hezekiah and that of Josiah. Some time during this time the book of God's law had been lost. Two wicked kings had reigned in this interval. The Lord had given Hezekiah much wealth. His son Manasseh, coming into possession of his father's property, and being un-godly, would naturally neglect the Bible, if not purposely try to put it from sight. Those who do not obey the law of God, are usually interested in putting it out of sight.

1. The Book of the Law Found, (vv.
14-17).

1. The Occasion (vv. 14). It was while repairing the temple during Josiah's reformation that the law was discovered.

2. The Book Delivered to the King (vv. 15-17). Upon making a report to the king of work done, the king was told of the finding of the book of the law by Hilkiah, and the book delivered to him.

II. The Effect of the Reading of the Law (vv. 18-28).

Shaphan the scribe read the law before the king.

1. The King Rent His Clothes (v. 19).
As the law was read before him he was led to realize more seriously the awful extent of the nation's departure from God. He knew that sin merited punishment. The function of the law is to reveal sin. The man who will honestly hear the demands of God's law will fall upon his knees before God and cry for mercy. The reading of the royal robes indicated that the king was penitently sorrowful.

2. The King Sent a Deputation to Make Inquiry of the Lord (vv. 20, 21).
The king included himself in the guilt before God. "Go inquire for me and for them that are left, for great is the wrath of the Lord that is poured out upon us." His sense of sin was so keen that he sent them to inquire as to whether there was any means of averting the judgments of the Lord.
Instinctively the human heart turns from God's threatening judgments to a means of escape. The soul that sorrow for sin inquires for a way of escape. The law prepares for the gospel. The law is our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ. The soul under condemnation inquires, "What must I do to be saved?"

3. The Message of Huldah, the Prophetess (vv. 22-28). (1) Confirmation of what the law said (vv. 22-25).
She said that all the curses written in the law must fall, for the sins had been so flagrant that God's wrath could not be restrained. Destruction was hanging over Jerusalem and it was too late to avert it. It was not too late to repent to obtain mercy from God, but the outward consequence of sin must be realized. This finds fulfillment on every hand today.
The murderer must hang. His soul may go directly to heaven, provided he has accepted Jesus Christ. (2) Acceptance of Josiah's repentance (vv.
26-28). Because of his tenderness of heart and deep penitence, the Lord said he should be gathered to his grave in peace, and should not see all the evil to be brought on Jerusalem and its people. What Huldah said was true even though Josiah died in battle (35: 23-25). When God accepts a man and forgives him, his death is a peaceful one even though it may be on the battlefield. God's presence is with him and he thus will go straight to the heavenly home.

III. The Law Obeyed (vv. 29-33).

1. The King Read the Law (vv. 29, 30). He gathered together the inhabitants of Jerusalem, including the priests, Levites and elders, and read unto them the law.

2. The King Made a Covenant Before the Lord to Keep His Commandments and Testimonies (vv. 31, 32).
This was done sincerely—with all his heart and soul. He caused all that were present to stand to it.

3. The king took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to Israel (v. 33). All the days of the king they departed not from following after the Lord.

He Will Save You.
When you feel as if things were dragging you down into the depths will you remember that the Lord Jesus Christ is at your side? All human help may seem very far away; but He is not far away. Even through the noise of the storm He can hear the faintest cry. "Lord save me, I perish," and He will save you to the uttermost.

Adversity.
Adversity is the first path to truth.
—Bryon.

EXPECT MANY AT HEALTH EXPOSITION AT INDIANAPOLIS

Indianapolis, Indiana, May 15.—Arrangements have been made for the accommodation of half a million people during the nine days of the Indiana Health Exposition which commences Friday, May 19th, at the State Fair Ground, Indianapolis. More than 6000 persons will take part in the programs including health educators from throughout the United States. The cost of building the Exposition exceeds two hundred thousand dollars. Every phase of Public Health work is depicted by one or more exhibitors from one hundred forty seven different organizations, departments and institutions.

Twenty-five clinics will be operated in which physical examinations will be made and visitors to the Exposition told what they must do to prevent diseases. Displays showing the manufacture and use of preventative medicine are featured. The work of the blind, the deaf, the feeble-minded and the insane are shown in the Exposition together with various curative methods now in use by State Departments and Institutions.

Bacteriology is shown in more than a dozen laboratories and hospital exhibits where the various recognizable germs of disease may be examined microscopically by the public.

Every known method of sanitation for the home, hospitals and institutions and cities and towns will be displayed.

The Exposition will open with Public School Day, Friday May 19th, on which occasion the public schools of Indianapolis will be closed in order that pupils may attend.

The People's Voice

In the face of adverse weather conditions during the past month which has promoted a heavy growth of weeds and grass, Decatur citizens have made an earnest effort to care for lawns and cooperate with city officials in cleaning the city. The well-kept lawns and neatly arranged flower beds to be seen on every hand bespeak that the efforts put forth for "beautiful Decatur" have availed much. However, there is to be found here and there a vacant lot that has been neglected—the grass has been allowed to grow and great masses of dandelions are scattering their blooms over lawns that people are endeavoring to keep clean. It is not necessary that these vacant lots be cut with lawn mowers every week however in justice to property owners who are endeavoring to make conditions better it is urged that owners of vacant lots make an effort to remove these unsightly conditions. Visitors to our city this year will be more favorably impressed thereby and the task of keeping Decatur clean another year will be simplified by the efforts put forth this year.—CIVIC SECTION.

PAVING OF GAPS ON THE NATIONAL HIGHWAY IS SAID TO BE PROGRESSING NICELY

Indianapolis, May 19.—Paving of the six gaps on the National road under contract by the state highway commission, is progressing despite numberous setbacks by heavy rains this spring, Lawrence Lyons, state highway director, said today.

All contracts will be completed this year when the National road will be paved across the state from Terre Haute to Cambridge city.

The same activity is in evidence on eighteen bridges contracted by the commission April 4, the largest of which is the 1800 foot bridge to span White river at Hazleton where the water course divides Knox and Gibson counties.

TWELVE HOUR DAY IN STEEL WORK DOOMED

the economic readjustment now under way.

He warned the business men attending the United States chamber of commerce that they must not expect to go back to the "old order" of American industry and exchange, adding that business leaders must always have thought for the masses who made both production and consumption possible.

Harding believes the nation is on the "threshold of a new era" and that the business revival will be checked unless the captains of industry agree to place labor on a higher plane than ever before.

This was his main reason for asking the steel industry to abolish the twelve hour day and establish in its place three shifts of eight hours.

The question of the proposed steel merger of eight independent companies, which will be discussed by attorney General Daugherty tomorrow with the heads of the concerns involved, was not mentioned at the White House steel dinner.

East Chicago, Ind. May 19.—We've heard that story before. We want to see it before we will believe."

That was the general attitude today of workers in steel mills in the great Calumet district toward announcement in Washington of agreement on an eight hour day in the industry.

The news that an eight hour day was promised, however, caused great excitement in streets and homes in the industrial towns.

Men coming from the night shift gathered in streets and discussed the promise despite a downpour of rain.

"We have been told for a long time we were going to get the eight hour day," said George C. Zarnik, who was employed by the Illinois Steel Company as a laborer for many years.

"We aren't going to count our chickens this time before they are hatched."
