That's How You'll Feel

Have you ever gone to work in the morning a little earlier than usual and felt the thrill of being just a bit ahead of the whole big world?

That's how you'll feel when there is a snug balance in your Savings Account growing steadily week by week and month by month as you keep adding to it regularly.

You just know that ordinary emergencies can easily be met; the force of greater ones considerably diminished.

What can contribute in larger measure to a genuine sense of preparedness than a growing Savings Account.

The regular meeting of the Yeomen lodge which was held last evening was a very interesting one. Mr. George Frink, National President of the Brotherhood of Yeomen was to have attended the meeting, but was called to Chicago in the morning and could not attend. Talks were made by the delegates who attended the Sunday meeting of the lodge at Fort Wayne which were very interesting. The members who attended the meeting at Fort Wayne Sunday were: John B. Stultz, George Stultz, Charles Breiner, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Lord and daughter, Naomi.

The Ladies Aid of the Evangelical Church will meet Thursday afternoon at the church.

Miss Sally Kern will entertain the Psi Iota XI sorority at their regular meeting tonight at her home on 7th street at 7:30.

BROKE COLLAR BONE

Della, the six year old daughter of the Rev. J. K. Wyant, fell while playing Monday afternoon and broke her collar bone. The injury was dressed by Dr. Beavers.

DECATUR WOMEN IN CONVENTION

At Elwood Today for the Convention of Federation of Clubs

Mrs. John S. Peterson and Mrs. L. A. Holthouse left this morning to attend the convention of the Eighth District Federation of Clubs to be held in the Methodist church in Elwood today. Both ladies are to take part in the program. Mrs. Holthouse will sing and Mrs. Peterson will be the leader in one of the discussions. Mrs. Peterson was formerly district chairman of the clubs in the Eighth district.

Mrs. Laura Wylie delivered the address of welcome this morning and Mrs. C. C. Deam, of Bluffton, made the response. The speakers at the session this afternoon were Mrs. W. I. Torrence, of Evansville, president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs; Mrs. Richard Lieber, of Indianapolis; and William J. Hamilton, of the Indiana Library Commission. A luncheon was served in the church at noon.

Notair Double Mesh HAIR NETS

We strive to buy the best, for the least possible money. In our years of business we have never had a net that would compare with the Notair Double Mesh in price, size, color and strength. We are purchasing these nets in 100 gross lots, which means over 14,000 nets in one shipment. This enables us to maintain a price of 8c each or 2 for 15c.

To introduce this famous net, we are placing them on sale Friday and Saturday ONLY
