

LIBEL SUIT OF WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON AGAINST CHICAGO TRIBUNE BEGUN

(United Press Service).
Chicago, May 26.—Mayor William Hale Thompson declared in speeches that "British-American bankers were responsible for the entrance of the United States in the world war."

This was the charge today of Weymouth Kirkland, chief counsel for the Chicago Tribune in his opening statement to the jury in the mayor's $500,000 libel suit against the newspaper.

"After the United States had formally declared war on Germany and Austria, Mayor Thompson made several speeches in Chicago in which he blamed English and American financiers for our entrance into the European conflict," Kirkland said.

Council for the defense also read in to the records, the war message of President Wilson and numerous articles published in the Tribune and explained the situation in Chicago at the beginning of the war.

Counsel for the mayor in the opening statement characterized the Tribune as a "malicious newspaper which distorted the mayor's remarks for political reasons and printed false news concerning his wartime activities."

RECORDS OF CHICAGO POLICE SHOW THAT NUMBER OF WOMEN ROBBERS IS ON INCREASE

(United Press Service).
Chicago, May 26.—Women robbers and bandits are on the increase, according to records of Chicago police.

A greater number of robberies by women has been reported during the first part of the present year than ever before in the city's history.

While women criminals formerly were connected with robberies, involving small amounts, now the charges often run into thousands of dollars.

The largest proportion of robberies by women are the work of thieves who gain entrance to homes posing as maids; the records show. Maids, police believe, operate usually as members of gangs, enabling them to get away with bulky loot.

Authorities today sought a "maid" who gave the name of "Agnes Swanson" in obtaining employment at the home of Owen W. Brewer, wealthy gold coast resident. When the family was away from home on the third day of the maid's employment, she walked out with $15,000 worth of jewelry and silverware.

RECORDS IN DANGER AT BIG CAMBRIDGE COLLEGE MEET

(United Press Service).
Boston, May 26.—Swarthy colored, sun-tinted hands from the far west were waving with hypnotic gestures in front of the east as the greatest of America's college athletes got ready for the first day of the forty-sixth annual intercollegiate track and field championships, at the Cambridge stadium.

Pleased with the taste of last year's championship, the Pacific Coast, in the desire for another title, sent California, last year's champions, and Stanford, two of the strongest of the many star teams gathered here for the annual classic.

"If California doesn't repeat, Stanford will win. We'll finish first and second either way," the California contingent gloated and there was no strong rebuttal from the east.

Pennsylvania, Princeton, Cornell, Harvard, Dartmouth, Penn State and Georgetown have strong combinations, but the points will be split so many ways that there seems little chance to head off the wellbalanced combinations from the coast.

Among all the Olympic, world and national champions that will compete, perhaps none will draw the attention of "Tiny" Hartranft, the sensational Stanford shot-putter, discus thrower and sprinter. He is within inches of the world's record in the shot and discus, and although he carries over 200 pounds, he can do ten seconds in the century. He is counted upon as the biggest individual point scorer of the meet.

Several world's records may be broken and it is almost a certainty that many intercollegiate marks will be shattered.

Kirksey, Stanford; LeConey, Lafayette, and Lovejoy, Cornell, are consistent 9 and 45 men in the hundred yards and on the Harvard track, which is about the fastest in the world, one of the three may jump out into the Paddock class.

Larry Brown, Pennsylvania captain, is going out for a record in the quarter and the half and if he beats the field lined up against him, he will have to better the present mark. Allen Woodring, Syracuse star and Olympic 200 meter champion, might set a new mark in the 220-yd dash if he is in form.

The shot, discus and javelin records are in dire danger.
Jack Merchant, California star, probably will establish a new distance in the hammer throw.

Nothing like the present assemblage of talent has ever appeared in the intercollegiate and tickets are in such demand that a new attendance mark may be set.

SO NERVOUS SHE WOULD ALMOST SCREAM ALOUD

Mrs. Frush Gives A Strong Story of Her Sufferings. Declares that Tanlac Has Restored Her to Finest Health.

"Tanlac has proved to be the right medicine for me," said Mrs. Rae Frush, 326 Hamilton St., Toledo, Ohio.

"About two years ago my stomach began bothering me and I got so I could scarcely eat anything without suffering the worst kind of indigestion. I had a stuffed up feeling and severe pains in my stomach and chest. I was so weak and nervous I couldn't even sweep a room without stopping to rest. The least noise, and sometimes the prattle of my baby, would get me so nervous I would almost scream out loud. Awful nausea and sick headed added to my troubles and I almost despaired of ever regaining my health."

"A nurse told me how fine Tanlac would be in my case and I tried it. I have been built up to where I can do all my housework, have a good appetite, my nerves are steady and in fact I enjoy the finest health. I am only too glad to tell others about this grand medicine."

Tanlac is sold my all good druggists.

foretelling the dreaded storm are the symptoms of women's diseases which point the way to physical and mental breakdown. The nervous irritability, the backache, the dragging pains, are not only hard to endure, but they bring certain knowledge of collapse unless something is done to relieve the sufferer. There is one standard remedy which has shown the way out for nearly fifty years. The women who have "come back" through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound present an argument stronger than words could ever be.

MONROE NEWS

Mrs. Lee Refrey and daughters Misses Lela, Luetta and Glenola of Decatur, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sells a few days last week.

C. E. Bahner and family of this place and Mrs. Lee Refrey and daughters visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baker, south east of town.

Too much rain is the cry of our farmers, especially those who have completed their corn planting.

The moving season is about at an end at this place. There was quite an amount of moving done last week and this. Roe Wynn moved into the Wagner property west of town, Wm. Stuckey into the Dr. Parrish home Old Heller into the Dr. Parrish building and Forest Ray into the Menno Wittever property recently purchased by Mrs. J. P. Johnson.

Quite a large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Busche who were recently married and went to housekeeping on the E. W. Busche farm just east of town, on last Saturday night sprung a surprise on the young couple by giving them a real old-fashioned belling. A fine time is reported by those present. Mr. and Mrs. Busche are both well known and highly respected young people of this community, and their many friends wish them success and prosperity through life's journey together.

Warning to parents—It has been the custom of a lot of small children to congregate in the new building in the business part of town, ranging from four to six years old, running and playing on the first floor. This is very dangerous as there are many holes left open in various parts of the large room, and should one of the little tots fall through to the cellar below, which is half filled with water, there would be a case of drowning to be reported. Such will probably be the case if the small boy or girl is not kept away from the building. In addition, in the rear of the room there is a very large cistern, containing several hundred gallons of water, which is also a very dangerous trap. It should be the duty of the parents of these little tots, to prevent their children playing at that place and save further trouble. The owners, or anyone interested in the building, whoever it may be should safeguard the lives of the little children by enclosing the openings with barrels so as to prohibit children from making the place such a perilous place to lose life by drowning in a large cellar filled with water. It should be looked after at once.

Through some misunderstanding it has been reported that Sherman White & Co., is going to discontinue their cream and egg and poultry station at Monroe, Ind., which is an absolute error. We are there to stay. And we thank you for your past favors and hope we may continue to serve you.

SHERMAN WHITE & CO.

The People's Voice

The children of Decatur will be glad know hat the civic section of the Woman's club is going to interest themselves concerning playgrounds. They are going to try very hard to raise funds with which to repair the tennis courts already built; build several new ones; put in some croquet yards for those who do not care for the more strenuous game of tennis; and also some sand tables for the smaller children.

There is a real need of playgrounds in our city. There are over one thousand children under the legal age of employment for whom places of amusement and recreation should be provided. Also young people employed should have a place for healthful exercise during their leisure hours.

The only thing needed to start playgrounds in our city is a sincere desire to have them. Grounds have been secured and the money for equipment will not be hard to secure, for anything for the benefit of the children finds a ready sympathy in the public mind.

The Civic Section feel that in doing the work they are helping in the training and character building of the young people of the city. The business men have promised to back the project in every way they can but the co-operation of every individual is desired.
