REVIEW BOARD WILL ADJOURN NEXT FRIDAY

work by Friday, but it could have been completed soon had the members not been delayed through the failure of a member of the state board to appear.

The state commission, has issued the following formal order, setting out the purposes of the hearings, to be held July 20-26, and at which all counties will be represented at various times:

"The purpose of these hearings and for considering such assessments is to equalize assessment of property for taxation among the various counties of the state. After such hearings have been had the state board of tax commissioners will certify its findings and such information as it may have to the auditors of the counties wherein it may appear to the board that the assessments are not uniform or equal as to local units or as to classes of property, and are not in harmony with assessments in other counties as the same shall be considered for equalization purposes.

"After the action by the county boards of review upon the certified notice to such counties shall have been certified back to the state board of tax commissioners, the board without further hearings will proceed to equalize the value of property as listed and assessed in the various counties and in so doing will consider the several classes of property separately and any sub-divisions of said classes and determine such rates of addition to or reduction from the listed or assessed valuation of each class of property or subdivision thereof in each county, or to or from the aggregate assessed value of each class of subdivision thereof in the state, as may be deemed by the board to be equitable and just."

William Reinking Was Murdered in California

East Fourteenth street when August noticed Reinking walking along the street.

"August said to me," Alexander declared, "I am going over and slap that bird in the face." I asked August what he wanted to slap the fellow in the face for, and said, 'He hasn't done anything to you; leave him alone. But he didn't pay any attention to me and went right ahead.'

"August walked over to Reinking and said, 'Here's where I get even with you for what you did to me.
What did you want to make all that trouble for me in Alameda?'" "Reinking said he did not know August and hadn't made any trouble for him. August pulled back and struck him in the face. He fell over and hit the sidewalk. We saw that he was knocked out and beat it.

August beat it to Santa Clara and said he would stay there until it all blow over."

"The inspectors who have worked on the case and whose efforts resulted in the arrest of August and Alexander are: A. M. Sanderson, George Burbank, Joe Robinson, William Kyle, Louis Kersch and John Gannaw."

"To Inspector Kyle and his assistants on this case, Inspectors Sanderson and Burbank, go the honor for the quick 'clean up' of the matter and the capture of young Reinking's assailants, according to a statement issued by Captain Peterson today.

"These three men deserve distinguished mention for the manner in which they handled the case," said Captain Peterson. "When we started to work on the case yesterday there was absolutely no clue to the identity of the murderers. We did not even have a motive for the crime.

"We talked the matter over and decided that it was a case of pure rowdiness and commenced to work from that angle. The district in which it happened is one handled by Sanderson and Burbank and they were called in to assist Kyle. Less than twelve hours after they started to work the case was cleaned up and we had confessions from the murderers."

"What charge will be placed against Alexander, Captain Peterson has not determined. According to his confession and statements of persons interviewed, the police say, August struck the blow that killed Reinking and Alexander was an accessory to the crime.

"Asked by Captain Peterson today why he should seek to take the life of young Reinking, August sullenly replied:

"I didn't mean to kill him. I didn't even close my fist. I just slapped him."

"His partner, Alexander, however, told the police that August struck Reinking with great force and with no provocation.

"Following the arrest of the men Chief of Police James T. Drew complimented the inspectors' office on its work and said that the crusade against the East Oakland gangsters will be pursued until the gang spirit is quelled or all the gangsters are in jail."

AFTER BABY WAS BORN

Many Mothers Left in Weakened Condition

Many, many letters similar to the following recommend the Vegetable Compound as a wonderful medicine for bringing the mother back to normal health and strength.

It is an excellent restorative, contains no harmful drugs and can be taken in safety by a nursing mother.

Thousands of mothers who have regained their strength by taking it are its best recommendation. Very likely you know some. Why not take it yourself?

Will Gladly Answer Questions

Olney, Ill.—"For over a year after my boy was born I was troubled with weakness of the female organs. Although I was able to nurse him, I so my stomach would bloat up and I simply could not do anything. I saw your 'ad.' in the papers and read what your Vegetable Compound did for others, so I gave it a trial. After the first few doses I could tell a change. (Some might think this impossible, but it is true.) I took two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and felt so fine that I neglected to take any more for about a year. This last winter I had pains again so I have been taking it to relieve them. I tell everyone I hear complaining of female troubles that it is grand. If any woman asks me questions about the medicine I will gladly tell her what I know."

Baltimore, Md.—"I first used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for general weakness following the birth of my first child. Later on for a dull pain in the small of my back and for a bearing-down feeling. These pains had an effect on me to such an extent that very often I was unable to stand on my feet to do my housework, and at times I was compelled to lie down for short periods. I found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very helpful and recommend it highly."—Mrs. LORETTA B. SIMONS, 645 S. Belvidere Ave., Baltimore, Md.

"Cannot Thank You Enough" Allentown, Pa.—"After my last baby was born I lost weight and was in a very run-down condition. After taking the second bottle of Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to gain strength and flesh. In the past four months I have done all my own housework and do an extra wash besides. I do not feel at all like I used to and I cannot thank you enough for my health. My friends ask me what I am doing and I recommend your medicine."—Mrs. WM. STECKEL, 241 Ellinger St., Allentown, Pa.
