Plan to Increase Coal Production Given Blow

(Continued from page one) mobilized. If the guardsmen prove ineffective, federal troops will be sent to their assistance. Should the trouble be too widespread for control of these forces the government will induct the National Guards of non-coal producing states into the federal service and detail them to duty in the coal producing states.

Indianapolis, July 19.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Declaration of martial law in Indiana coal fields apparently was near today to protect open shop mining of coal.

Governor McCray assured mine owners the state would protect their property and any employees if they desired to resume operations during the nation-wide strike.

A state law would prevent the use of strike-breakers by permitting only licensed miners to work in Indiana. The effects of the law can be avoided only by a declaration of martial law.

Chicago, July 19.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Martial law throughout the Illinois coal fields because a possibility.

Because of a state law requiring all miners to pass a safety test before a board composed of three miners, use of strike-breakers appeared impossible.

Attorney General E. J. Brundage declared, however, that this law could be nullified by the declaration of martial law.

Illinois coal fields are 100 per cent union and even with the establishment of martial law, it was feared that only a small portion of shaft mines could be operated.

Washington, July 19.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The 680,000 union coal miners of this country are more determined today to win their strike than they were on the day the strike started. Never before in the history of industry has there been such a demonstration of solidarity as is now witnessed in the ranks of the miners engaged in this struggle. Their determination and their perfect morale is the marvel of all time in industrial controversies. Those men cannot be coerced into submission to terms and conditions that are repulsive to them. It is idle to talk about driving them back into the mines.

Coal companies bent upon destroying the miners' union and starving the miners and their families into the acceptance of pauper wages and poverty living conditions, forced this strike upon the miners and the American people. We did everything humanly possible to avoid it. We repeatedly asked the operators to confer with us and agree upon a wage scale that could be worked out around the conference table. But they refused time and again. We are still ready and anxious to meet the operators in a joint conference for that purpose and we will meet with them at any time and place, just as we have done for the past twenty five years.

The body of Corozav, the bandit who terrorized the Tampico oil district, was on display as a "horrible example" today at Zacomixtla. Thirty-five bullets of federal troops ridled the body of the bandit.

There is but one way to settle this strike and that is by the joint conference method. And that is the way it is going to be settled, regardless of what anybody thinks, says or does.

Pittsburgh, July 19.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Western Pennsylvania coal operators today accepted President Harding's invitation to reopen mines under protection of state police and national guards.

The operators decided to resume operation in the Pittsburgh district at wages in effect in November, 1917.

The new wage scale according to the announcement of the scale committee of the Pittsburgh producers association will be $5 a day for eight days work by laborers, 70 cents a ton for machine coal and 87.64 cents a ton for pit coal.

The practice of collecting union dues and assessments known as the "check off" will be abolished.

MEXICAN PRESIDENT BEGINS CAMPAIGN TO CRUSH REBEL BANDS

Mexico City, July 19.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—President Obregon decided today upon a "nailed fist" policy when he ordered all federal troops to mobilize for a drive to crush rebel bands.

Soldiers were withdrawn from garrisons in the cities and dispatched to the country with orders to continue a campaign against insurgents until all rebellion was stamped out.

The order is considered as highly significant by political observers, who point out that the government evidently fears the growing strength of rebels may lead to the concentration of all lawless elements under one leadership, thus becoming a real menace to Obregon's power.

The body of Corozav, the bandit who terrorized the Tampico oil district, was on display as a "horrible example" today at Zacomixtla. Thirty-five bullets of federal troops ridled the body of the bandit.
