It is reported that heavy trucks traveling over Seventh street recently opened after being paved are causing great damage to the thoroughfare. The street is open for use but people who pay taxes and costs of construction should not continue to damage the street. The bed has not had an opportunity to set and just at this time the pavement can be easily ruined, meaning additional cost to the city and those who must pay for the improvement. Let's use good judgment in caring for our investments.

Bob LaFollette has been renominated for United States senator from Wisconsin by a majority over the administration candidate of 178,000 in a total vote of about 400,000. Certainly the administration will feel rebuked over the showing which is perhaps the most decisive so far recorded in a year when anti-administration returns have been the fashion. We do not often agree with Bob LaFollette but he certainly has the confidence of the people he represents and in his attitude of opposition to the Harding administration.

A few people are arguing that in case the Yeomen home and school is located here it will increase taxes by exempting the 1,500 acres from taxes. We do not know whether the land would be so exempted or not or what part of it but we feel sure that the construction of the home here would lighten taxes rather than increase them. The Mooseheart home is located near Aurora, Ill., and that city has grown from 4,000 people to 36,000 adding millions to the tax duplicate. Also the county draws more than any in that state excepting Cook as its proportion of the school fund. The building of a Yeomen school city near here would mean additional railroad facilities and other investments which would overcome any exemption many times over. Don't be foolish. The counties which grow and progress have the lowest tax rates and the most improvements. It's the dead ones which have to groan under heavy burdens for the taxes increase and are paid by an ever diminishing number of people for the youngsters leave to make their homes in those places where they do things.

Most of us are ever looking at the bright spots, seeing only the pleasant and happy side of life and letting ourselves think that everybody is as fortunate as we are. Then someone who has seen the inner side of the way a few of the unfortunate live tells us something. In the south part of the city several families are now living in a degenerate and shameful way, some of the children being terribly diseased, others living amidst surroundings and associations that are bound to ruin them and most all of them without proper nourishment.

and guidance. We are told that in several cases the parents are to blame. This is no doubt the truth, for as a child is tutored at home so does he live. In a few cases we are told that many of the children cannot go to school for reason of the diseases from which they are suffering. The community should lend a hand in trying to correct these deplorable conditions. If the children cannot be cared for, educated and given at least half a chance they should be sent to an institution. Living conditions in the southwest part of the city need attention and it's part of your duty to see to it.

Came Home to Die

"Three years ago I came home thinking 2 or 3 weeks would be my limit to live. I had suffered for 15 years from colic attacks and severe liver and stomach trouble. I happened to see an advertisement of May's Wonderful Remedy and purchased a bottle at the drug store and after taking the first dose I felt better than I had for 15 years. I am now in the best of health—thanks to May's Wonderful Remedy." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at Holthouse Drug company and druggists everywhere.

Why Fordson Farming Is Big Yield Farming

FORDSON farmers have an adequate amount of power available for all farm operations. They can plow at the time when plowing does the most good. They can harrow, drill, cultivate, and harvest without delays and so save all their crops in the best of condition. That's why their crops are bigger. That's why their crops sell at higher prices.

Only one-ninth of the wheat in one of the biggest wheat states grades No. 1 or No. 2. The loss in grade is between harvest and marketing and most of this loss is caused by delays in threshing. But, this doesn't need to happen on a Fordson farm. With a Fordson and a Wood Brothers Individual Thresher, you don't have to wait your turn. You can thresh when the grain is in the best condition and when it will grade well on the market.

The Individual, being Standard Fordson Equipment, is in the price class that makes it economical for every Fordson farmer to own one. Often five or six go together in buying.

It wasn't a case of cutting down a big thresher to fit the Fordson. The Individual was built from the ground up to take its place as an important part of this new system of farming. It saves all the grain. It is fully guaranteed.

38 Indicted for Part in Herrin Mine Massacre Marion, Ill., Sept. 8—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Round-up of Herrin massacre participants was underway today in Williamson county. With the return of 38 indictments by the special grand jury late yesterday, each charging murder, Sheriff Thaxton assisted by his regular and special deputies arrested and imprisoned in the county jail here as many of the indicted as could be found.

The first arrest was made by Sheriff Thaxton ten minutes after the indictments had been returned, when he took into custody Philip Fontanetta, a miner of Marion.
