Tyndall for congress organizations are being perfected in each county in the district and the progress being made indicates a victory in November. He is the kind of a man needed to represent this district and his thousands of friends in this county are anxious that he be given the opportunity. The election is but six weeks away and there is much to do. The most important thing right now is to see that every voter registers. Have you?

Indications are that the allies will agree to the return of Constantinople, eastern Thrace and Adrianople to Turkey and thereby will at least for the present conclude the near east crisis, which for some days past has bordered upon another war in Europe. Staggered by the debts and the reconstruction problems after seven years of terrible struggle, it is not surprising that most any thing half way acceptable is taken as a basis for peace rather than war and the astute Turk knew that when he started to enforce his program.

Just now those interested in politics in Indiana realize the most important job is registering the vote. Unless you qualify you cannot vote and that means you must sign up registration blanks. At the September registration about half the voters reported. The last day comes October 9th. In the meantime you can register by filling out the blank and having two voters of your precinct sign as witnesses. The democratic headquarters are kept open in the evenings to accomodate you. Better fix it up.

The Huntington City council has passed an ordinance forbidding the Ku Klux parading in their masked uniforms or otherwise adding to the mysterious and fear inspiring methods used in other cities. Ft. Wayne is agitating similar procedure. Probably too much attention is being given the order for such organizations thrive on that very thing. That's what the parades and the public meetings are held for. Eventually it will fade away and some thing else bordering on the sensational will take its place. The American public loves something different and just now in a number of localities it is in the form of the ghost like maneuvers of the klan.

The democratic state committee announces that Bryan, Marshall and Cox will speak over Indiana during the campaign and besides these a half hundred orators of state and national reputation will be on the stump. Dick Miller, president of the City Trust Company and well known here has been named treasurer of the state committee. In other words the organization is being completed and well manned and there will be plenty of interest the last four or five weeks of the campaign preceding election day, November 7th. The republicans have also secured the assistance of outsiders, four United States senators coming to the assistance of Mr. Beveridge.

The other day Congressman Oscar E. Keller, republican, of Minnesota, demanded the impeachment of Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty. Among other charges brought against Daugherty was that his Chicago injunction constitutes an infringement on every American's constitutional rights. Events followed rapidly. Congressman Volstead, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, quickly maneuvered the thing off the floor of the House and into his committee room. "Now file your charges and

Farmers In Law Suit
Over Partition Fence

A law suit involving the correct location for a fence between the farms of two neighboring farmers of Monroe township was heard in the court of Justice Staley of Geneva Wednesday morning. The principals contesting the location of the fence are Fred Stauffer and Anton Zuercher of north of town and their differences have grown to such a grievance that the court has been appealed to.

Stauffer contends that Zuercher had built a boundary fence between the fields of the two farmers. Stauffer felt that the fence had been set in too far on his farm and therefore he (Stauffer) took the privilege to tear up the fence and posts and to throw it upon Zuercher's farm.

The case had previously been aired in the court of Justice Lammiman of Monroe in a jury trial but was venued to the Wahash township justice. The trial Wednesday was also a jury trial, but Stauffer who is dissatisfied with the results may carry the case into a higher court.

Surveyors who were engaged to survey the exact location of the fence report that Zuercher may have put the fence about one or two inches too far onto Stauffer's land. The case has been contested about the technicality of the location of a fence within two inches. Zuercher maintains that since Stauffer tore up the fence he should be made to replace it. Stauffer maintains he only tore up the fence built by another on his property and that Zuercher must build it in the proper place.

Zuercher is being represented by Attorneys Fruchte and Littorier of Decatur while Stauffer has Armand of Geneva and Skinner of Portland to push his case.—Adams County Witness.

A FRIEND IN NEED
A FRIEND INDEEDWrites Mrs. Hardee Regarding
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Los Angeles, Calif.—"I must tell you that I am a true friend to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken it off and on for twenty years and it has helped me change from a delicate girl to a stout, healthy woman. When I was married I was sick all the time until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in bed much of my time with pains and had to have the doctor every month. One day I found a little book in my yard in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and I read it through and got the medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and took eight bottles and used the Sanative Wash. I at once began to get stronger. I have got many women to take it just by telling them what it has done for me. I have a young sister whom it has helped in the same way it helped me. I want you to know that I am a 'friend indeed,' for you were a 'friend indeed.' —Mrs. GEORGE HARDEE, 1043 Byram St., Los Angeles, California.

Let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound be a "friend indeed" to you.

It's get through with this thing. And make it snappy," was the Volsteadian attitude. "All right," replied Keller. "Mr. Samuel Untermyer of New York will represent the American people in this case." Said Mr. Untermyer being not only one of the most able lawyers in the country, but a scrapper on the side of the people in more than one controversy. "Case postponed until December," announced Chairman Volstead after a hasty, strictly party, committee vote of 11 to 3. When it had appeared that Keller stood alone in the fight to impeach Daugherty, Volstead seemed prepared to hustle the thing through. But if Keller was to have reinforcements—well, that was different. Better wait awhile, say until after the elections.—Indianapolis Times.

Many senators and congressmen who have studied the matter closely feel that the board failed to function as intended in the recent rail strike crisis. They hold the board partially responsible for the strike and claim that when peace negotiations were started by President Harding it long delayed a settlement by actions which antagonized both sides in the dispute.
