The following program will be given: Hymns, Mrs. Ben Schrover, chorister; devotions, John 15, 5-14. Mrs. Beisser; Hymn; outlook of missions, Mrs. Baumgartner; the gospel pious in India, Mrs. Effie Brodbeck; Indian women, Mrs. Jaberg; Indian castes and the outcasts, Mrs. Elliker; the story of Mary Reed, missionary to the lepers in India, Mrs. Baumgartner; vocal solo, Hulda Schroyer; "Shall We Pack a Missionary Box?" Mrs. Otto Reppert; a thank offering box convention, Mrs. Tilman Gerber; prayer from the Prayer Calendar.

The So-Cha-Rea club met at the home of Mrs. Claud Coffee, on North Fifth street last night. Following a business session, 500 was played. Prizes were won by Mrs. R. O. Gass, Mrs. Dan Falk, and Peggy Frank. The hostess served a delicious two course luncheon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss C. J. Miller, on Marshall street. At the meeting last night the club decided to hold a bake sale at the Schmitt meat market on Saturday, October 7. The sale will begin at 10 a. m. and all kinds of home baked goods will be on sale.

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the Methodist church met with the Misses Ethel and Hazel Tumbleson Thursday evening and a most interesting program was given. Mrs. Chalmers Porter read the chapter of "The Life of Service" and Mrs. Tommy Moore and Miss Workman gave a playlet entitled "Whys, Pros and Cons," which was greatly enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostesses and it was decided that the next meeting would be held on the first Thursday in October with Miss Frances Harkless as hostess and Miss Laura Stanley as the assistant hostess.

The Rosebud Sunday School class of the Evangelical Sunday school taught by Mrs. Robert Garard is enjoying a picnic supper at Belmont park this evening. Almost all of the girls were present and it is needless to say that they were enjoying themselves. The picnic is given at this time on account of Sunday being promotion day at the Evangelical church and it is probable that some of the girls will be promoted and others taken in the class.

Mrs. Wesley Hoffman entertained a number of young girls at her home last night in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Margaret Jane. A delicious six o'clock dinner was served, after which the girls played a number of games.

LOCAL MAN WON AN AUTOMOBILE

Leo "Dutch" Ehinger Won a Durant Six in Legion Drawing Contest

Leo "Dutch" Ehinger was all smiles last night and today. The cause of Dutch's happiness was a telegram which he received yesterday evening telling him that he had won a Durant Six touring car, offered as second prize in the American Legion Service Campaign. Today Dutch was besieged with many requests for rides in the new "buggy."

The drawing was held at the close of the American Legion state convention held at Terre Haute the first part of this week. Fourteen prizes were given away. The chances on the prizes were sold for one dollar each and the profit derived from the contest was turned into the coffers of the Legion. Several of the chances were sold in this city. Dutch refused to tell how many chances he had on the prizes, saying "I had more than one." However he did not have a large number of chances. He has not decided yet whether he will take the automobile or the cash prize, which is $1,765. Dutch is a veteran of the World War and was a delegate from the local post of the Legion convention this week.

First prize in the drawing contest was a Buick six-cylinder Special automobile, third prize a Durant 4-cylinder touring car; fourth prize a Ford Coupe, and the other ten prizes were trips to New Orleans, valued at $150 each.
