MONROE NEWS

Mr. Frank Thompson of Jewett, Ohio, after a visit at the home of J. A. Hendricks and family, returned to his home. This is the first visit made here for 27 years by Mr. Thompson.

A Curtis army airplane from the Aviation Co., of Kokomo, landed on the J. A. Hendricks farm in the west part of town on Friday forenoon. After a short stay he secured a passenger, Mr. Martin, of Portland, who was here at that time. The airplane was a fine one and of modern type, and attracted considerable attention when it encircled the town before landing.

Mr. Homer Oliver and family drove from Kalamazoo, Mich., in order to attend a double birthday party here; that of Mrs. Hattie Sells, and his own, both being on the same date. While seated at the supper table, uninvited number of relatives took it upon themselves to intrude and share a part in the festivities, coming with will filled baskets, and took immediate possession. They assisted to celebrate the birthdays of Mrs. Hattie Sells and Homer Oliver. Those present were: Mr. J. A. Hendricks and family; Mr. C. W. Hendricks and family; Mr. Boss Martz and family, of this place; grand-ma Martz, of Berne; and Marion Oliver, of Decatur.

The Ladies Aid society of the Monroe M. E. church with their husbands were entertained on Wednesday evening at the parsonage by Rev. and Mrs. Zechiel. After a business session the following program was given:

The duties of our offices.
Mrs. Ernest Busche—President.
Mrs. Will Keller—Vice-Pres.
Mrs. M. Lechty—Secretary.
Mrs. Jim Hendrick—Treasurer.
Mrs. John Crist—Work committee.
Solo—Mrs. John Nelson.
Violin Duet—Mr. and Mrs. Aurand.
"Why Every Lady Should be a member of the Aid"—Mrs. A. Shirk.
Piano duet—Mrs. M. Lechty and Mrs. Zechiel.

"What Relation Is the Aid to the Church?"—Mrs. L. Thomas.

Ladies Quartet, Mesdames Ernest Busche, Robert Shirk, John Nelson, and Ollie Heller.

Our Aim—Mrs. Eli Hendricks.

Violin solo—Mr. Chancy Aurand.
After a closing song and benediction the pastor and wife assisted by the Misses Ruth Liby, Margaret Le-wellen, Cleo Crist and Mildred Heller served light refreshments in buffet style. Then followed an hour of be-a child again just for tonight, and but-ton, button who's got the button.

There were forty two present and every body seemed happy. The parsonage was tastily decorated with Au-tumn leaves and chrysanthemums.

Becker Funeral Services To Be Held Sunday A.M.

Funeral services for Oscar S. Becker, who committed suicide in this city Thursday evening will be held at ten o'clock Sunday morning from the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary K. Becker at Chattanooga, Ohio. The body was taken to the home of his mother Friday morning. Burial will be made in the Chattanooga cemetery. Becker shot himself to death after he delivered a love note to his former sweetheart, Miss Celia Tucker, who resides at 1516 West Madison street. Going to his automobile he rested the butt of the shotgun on the auto and pulled the trigger, sending the contents through the heart. Several notes were found showing that he was in love with Miss Tucker.

Pat Harrison Headliner At The Closing Rally

spoke for several minutes on the important issues of the campaign. Following Mr. Tyndall's speech, Mr. Flemming introduced Judge John Smith, of Portland. Judge Smith made a very able discussion of the tax question. He vigorously attacked the numerous boards and commissions established by the republican party.

A reception committee of local men left Decatur in two automobiles at 1:30 o'clock for Bluffton to bring Senator Harrison to this city. Senator Harrison spoke at Bluffton this afternoon, also. The committee to gather with Senator Harrison, was expected to arrive in this city about 3:30 or 4 o'clock, and the senator was to speak immediately, in order that he can proceed to Fort Wayne where he will speak tonight. Senator Harrison is a great orator and a leader against the stand patters in the senate. Many Decatur and Adams county people are planning to go to Fort Wayne tonight to hear him speak again.

The rally this afternoon was a splendid ending for a highly satisfactory campaign in Adams county by the democrats. This ends the speaking campaign and the remainder of the time will be devoted to making arrangements to obtain a large vote Tuesday.

Aviators Make New Record in Flight Today

It is calculated that the ship, barring accidents, will arrive about noon, eastern standard time.

No official word as to the whereabouts of the aviators had been received at the field. The only information at headquarters is that the flyers took off shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday morning and were crossing Kansas at midnight.

Proclamation

Washington, Nov. 4.—President Harding, in his annual Thanksgiving proclamation, issued Friday, calls upon the people of the country to continue "to make our own great fortune a means of helping and serving, as best we can, the cause of all humanity."

WORKING GIRLS LOOK HERE

Read What Mrs. Lucas Writes Concerning Her Troubles, Which May be Just Like Yours

St. Louis, Mo.—"I had troubles that all women are apt to have, with pains in my back, weak, tired, nervous feelings and a weak stomach. I had been this way about a year and was unable to work or stand on my feet for any length of time. My husband's aunt told me how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done her and begged me to try it, so I did. All my pains and weaknesses are gone, my stomach is all right and I do my work at home and also work for Swift's Packing Company. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may publish my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. LULU LUCAS, 719A Vandeventer St., St. Louis, Mo.

Again and again one woman tells another of the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

You who work must keep yourself strong and well. You can't work if you are suffering from such troubles. Mrs. Lucas couldn't. She tried our Vegetable Compound and her letter tells you what it did for her. Give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial now.

Let Our Trust Department Manage the Money You Leave By Will

In the event of death let our Bank protect your family. Property cares were never so burdensome as today. Investments need watching—careful watching; and every change in interest rates affects values. Income tax provisions, too, are difficult.

You can save your family these troublesome details by placing your estate in trust with this bank. With all its advantages, the cost to your heirs for our expert service is no more and is usually less than would be paid an individual executor trustee for less competent service.
