Rehearsals are being held by members of the dramatic section who will give two one-act plays at the regular meeting of the Woman's club on Monday evening at the Library. The title of the one play is "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil," by Stuart Walker, in which Miss Leona Bosse, Miss Lois Connell, Mrs. John S. Peterson, Mrs. James R. Blair, and Mrs. A. R. Holthouse are the characters. Mrs. Blair is directing the play. The other play is entitled, "Everybody's Husband," by Gilbert Cannan, and those taking part are the Misses Fannie Hite, Virginia Smith, and Eva Acker and Mrs. Elmer W. Kampe and Mrs. Dan M. Niblick. Miss Hite is directing the above play. The evening promises to be a most enjoyable one and in order to give others an opportunity to see the home talent plays, the club members will invite guests to the evening's program.

There will be many attractive bargains offered at the rummage sale to be held in the Methodist church basement next Saturday afternoon. The stock includes shoes, hats, caps and clothing for men, women and children, and any one in need of such clothing is urged to attend.

The St. Vincent de Paul society met with Mrs. V. J. Borman at her home on Mercer Avenue, last night, with thirty-five in attendance. A short business session was held after which the ladies sewed. Delicious refreshments were served. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Bert Gage and Mrs. Teresa Shafer.

The Telephone Club was entertained by Miss Esther Bowers last evening at her home on First street. The evening was spent sewing and playing music. At a late hour the guests were taken to the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with hearts and valentines. A two-course lunch was served which was also of the valentine decorative scheme.

Miss Marcella Kern entertained the Tri D Club at her home on Seventh street last evening to a delightful sewing party. Music and sewing were the diversions of the evening. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and favors of dainty valentines were given to the guests. The next meeting will be with Miss Lucille Butler next Wednesday evening.

Members of the Civic Section of the Woman's Club are especially requested to be present at the important meeting which will be held Saturday night in the Committee Rooms of the Old Adams County Bank. Business of importance will be discussed and disposed of.

The Shakespeare Club met with Mrs. J. C. Sutton at her home on Sixth street yesterday afternoon at 2:30. A very interesting meeting was held and Mrs. Sprang gave a paper on "Brazil" beginning with South America and leading to the county of Brazil, with descriptions of the people of that country and many interesting features on that subject. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. H. R. Moltz with Mrs. Herman Elinger having the paper on "Children's Stories and their Writers."

The Women's Auxiliary of the Moose lodge will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Moose hall. All members please be present.

Miss Rose Christen will entertain the Friday Night club at her home on First street tonight.

The Psi Iota Xi sorority will have their regular meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock with Miss Dora Marie Magley as hostess at the home of Mrs. John Heller. A short business session will be held and then the meeting will be turned into a social.

The Historical club was delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon, by Mrs. Roy Runyon at her home on Ruef street. After an interesting rendition of quotations and current events, Mrs. W. F. Beery read a most instructive paper on "Modern Day Miracles." The paper dealt minutely on the various wonders of the present age as compared with a period twenty-two years back. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Runyon, assisted by Mrs. B. N. Covert and Mrs. Clyde Noble, served delicious refreshments. Mrs. B. N. Covert was a guest of the club. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. S. E. Hite on South Third street.

The wedding of Mr. Oscar Lankenau, prominent business man of this city to Miss Emma M. Guenther, of Petawawa, Ontario, Canada, was solemnized last evening at eight o'clock at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Catharine Lankenau, in Fort Wayne. The Rev. Frank Lankenau, of Napoleon, Ohio, a brother of the bridegroom read the single ring ceremony. Others than the near relatives of the couple who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hite, of this city. Following the ceremony a dinner was served by Mrs. Lankenau. The newly married couple spent the day in Fort Wayne and after February 20th will be at home at 707 North Third street in this city. The bride is well and favorably known in this city, having visited here on several occasions and the many friends of the couple will be glad to welcome them. Mr. Lankenau is a member of the Kuebler Dry Goods firm and is one of Decatur's prominent and progressive young business men and the best wishes of their many friends are extended to them.

There will be many attractive bargains offered at the rummage sale to be held in the Methodist church basement next Saturday afternoon. The stock includes shoes, hats, caps and clothing for men, women and children, and any one in need of such clothing is urged to attend.

The St. Vincent de Paul society met with Mrs. V. J. Borman at her home on Mercer Avenue, last night, with thirty-five in attendance. A short business session was held after which the ladies sewed. Delicious refreshments were served. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Bert Gage and Mrs. Teresa Shafer.

The Bachelor Maids met with Miss Mayme Deininger at her home on Madison street last evening at 6:30 o'clock. A delicious dinner was served after which "500" was played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Dick Boch and Miss Adelaide Deininger. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Theodore Gallicker.

Miss Agnes Kohne was hostess to the Auction Bridge Club last evening. Bridge was played and prizes were awarded to Margaret Smith and Tootz Keller. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Miss Margaret Smith.
