Field Goals

Was It Football?

At no time were the Auburn cagers in danger. They whipped through the opposing lines like lightning and their tackling was spectacular. It was a game which kept every fan on edge.—Auburn Star.

Better begin storing up your pep for Friday night. A lot of good loyal rooting will help the D. H. S. cagers very much in their battle with the Auburn team in the new gymnasium.

Iowa won another Big Ten victory Saturday night by conquering the Chicago University five after trailing at the end of the first half. Stagg's men gave the Hawkeyes an awful scare.

Indiana's two representatives in the Big Ten are beginning to climb up the ladder now. Purdue occupies fifth position and Indiana is close behind in a tie for sixth place with Northwestern. Purdue plays Wisconsin in her next game and a victory over the Badgers will pull them out of a tie with Iowa for first place and will boost the Boilermakers considerably.

Indiana's next conference game is with Illinois, February 12.

The Crimsof five should win fairly easily from Notre Dame Wednesday night. The Irish quintet has had rough sledding in its games with other Hoosier Fives.

The game between the Decatur Catholic High five and the Van Buren High has been postponed from next Friday night until the following Friday night. The local boys should be putting in some hard licks because Linn Kern has his boys at Van Buren going at a good clip now.

Rummage Sale—Methodist Church Basement, 1 to 8 p. m.

The members of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity will hold their regular meeting in their club rooms over Mills' grocery at 7 o'clock tonight. In addition to the regular meeting, there will be initiation given tonight.

Mrs. Blossom, of North Eleventh street, will be hostess to the Baptist Woman's society at 2:30 Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Flanders entertained with dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. George Flanders and daughter, Gladys.

The Dramatic section of the Woman's club will have the program tonight with two plays, "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil," by Stuart Walker, with Miss Leona Bosse, Mrs. A. R. Holthouse, Miss Olive Peterson, Mrs. James R. Blair, Miss Lois Connel and Katherine Seilemeyer as the characters, is one of the plays, and the one act play "Everybody's Husband," by Gilbert Cannan with Miss Fannie Hite, Virgene Smith, Eva Acker, Mrs. Kathryn Niblick and Mrs. E. W. Kampe as the characters, is the other.

The Ladies Aid society of the Mt. Pleasant church will meet all day Thursday at the home of Mrs. Jessie Singleton for the purpose of knitting comforts. Mrs. Singleton will serve dinner and all members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Sam Chronister will be hostess to the Ladies Aid society of the Christian church and the W. R. C. at her home Thursday. All members of both societies are asked to be present.

The rummage sale that has been conducted in the basement of the M. E. church during the past few weeks has proven such a benefit to many people who have attended that the committee in charge has decided to continue the sale next Saturday, Feb. 10th. From one o'clock to eight.

On account of the dedicatory services of the new high school auditorium and gym, the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon instead of Friday as previously announced. All members are urged to notice the change of date and plan to attend the meeting on Thursday, as some very important business is to be transacted.

An important meeting of the Reformed Missionary society will be held in the Sunday School room at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon and every member is urged to be present. Business for the year will be closed and at the meeting next month new officers will be elected. Mrs. Martin Jaberg is president of the society.

MEYERS APPEALS CASE

Eli Meyer Takes Case to Allen Circuit Court Following Fine

Eli Meyer, of this city, former county sheriff and well-known citizen, took an appeal to the Allen circuit court Saturday afternoon after he had been fined $10 and costs by Justice H. F. Bullerman, of Fort Wayne, on a charge of trespass.

The charge was preferred against Meyer by Fred William Franke, of Madison township, former county commissioner, who claimed that Meyer had cut timber on the Franke farm after he had been warned by Mr. Franke to stop.

Mr. Meyer says he did not violate the terms of the agreement. He declares that he cut only that timber which he had contracted for.

Mr. Franke, the prosecuting witness is 83 years of age. Prosecutor Louis P. Crosby and Attorney Elmer Leonard represented the state in the case and Attorney R. C. Parrish represented the defendant.

FRENCH EXTEND THEIR HOLDINGS

The Infantry and Artillery Push Forward During The Week End

Berlin, Feb. 5.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The French extended their hold on German territory over the week-end today, consolidated positions that gave them a strangle hold on rail transportation between Germany and Switzerland.

Cavalry, infantry and artillery, pushed forward from the Kehl bridgehead, held Offenbourg and Appenweier, on the edge of Black Forest.

The Frankfurt-Basle railway lies in the French grip.

JESS MERCER IS LOCATED

Wanted Here for Wife and Child Deserter Found in Huntington

Jess L. Mercer, who has been wanted in Adams circuit court on a charge of wife and child desertion since February 21, 1922, was arrested in Huntington by police officials of that city yesterday. He as returned to this city and placed in the county jail last night by Sheriff John Baker. This morning, he furnished bond in the sum of $500 and was released. He is to appear in court here on the first day of the next term of court.

Mercer's wife and three children are living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Huffman, in Blue Creek township. Mrs. Mercer has a suit for divorce pending in the circuit court. Mercer has been working in Huntington.

Avenues of Service

REGINALD MCKENNA, head of the largest bank in the world, says that "Splendid isolation is a dream," a truth which every industrial leader accepts as axiomatic. Had he substituted monopoly for isolation he would have expressed another self-evident truth which would have been acclaimed by every man who has given serious thought to the development of business on a large scale.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a big business striving to do a big job in a big way, yet no thought is given to achieving a monopoly: for those who direct the Company's activities know that in any basic industry such an ambition is impossible of fulfillment. Competition is welcome, for no single organization can hope to serve the people of the Middle West with petroleum products as they should be served. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) enjoys a large volume of business and is satisfied to let this volume take care of its profits.

There is a reciprocal bond between every great industrial organization and the social environment in which it operates. An organization is truly great only when the service it renders is great.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is in daily contact with a community of about 30 million people.

It serves them through a host of useful products refined from petroleum. Through these products it touches the home and industrial life of the people. It enters the sick chamber with mineral oil and petroleum jelly. It enters the factory, the roundhouse, and the farmyard with lubricating oils for machines, engines, and tractors. It seeks the farm home with gasoline, kerosene, candles and paraffin. It touches the railroad right of way with Formic Long Time Burner Oil for signal lamps; it supplies thousands of public and private garages with gasoline and lubricants. It feeds the furnaces of homes and factories with Stanolind Furnace Oil. It goes to the hospital with Stanolind Surgical Wax. It paves the streets with Stanolind Paving Asphalt.

These are but a few of the avenues of service which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) maintains. To keep these avenues open the Company operates 1700 service stations, 3970 bulk stations, 7000 tank wagons serving thousands of garages, and 6 great refineries to supply their needs.

Thus does the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) acknowledge its reciprocal bond, and by creating a host of useful, essential products from a single basic raw material—crude petroleum—justify its claim to master craftsmanship in industrial husbandry.
