Keller, Who Impeached Attorney General

This is an up-to-date picture of Representative Oscar Edward Keller from the fourth Minnesota district who got into the limelight by bringing impeachment charges against U. S. Attorney General Daugherty. He quit the house judiciary subcommittee hearing, alleging "whitewash." He refused to respond to a subpoena forcing him to give under oath the information upon which he based impeachment charges against Attorney General Daugherty.

Meantime the hearings on the charges against Mr. Daugherty went forward, the committee summoning such witnesses as it could find without the aid of Mr. Keller.

Chairman Volstead planned to appoint the subcommittee which, in the language of a formal motion adopted by the entire committee, was "to make an investigation of what action, if any, should be taken in connection with the conduct of Mr. Keller towards this committee and towards the house of representatives."

Mr. Keller was born in Helenville, Wis., in 1878 and was educated in the public schools, taking short courses in dairying and agriculture at the University of Wisconsin. He moved to Minnesota in 1901. He married Alice Sebeck of St. Paul in 1911 and has three children.

Wood Is to Stay in the Philippines

Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood has resigned the office of provost of the University of Pennsylvania in order that he might "comply with the expressed wishes of the administration" and remain as governor general of the Philippines. It has been officially announced by the War department.

Secretary Weeks made public copies of two cablegrams received from General Wood. One, addressed to the secretary, said:

"The situation here is going to require my remaining on into the next year. Reports of my returning the first of January should not be credited. Do not see how I can leave before the legislature adjourns and perhaps not until afterwards. As I have stated before, the situation here must take precedence over personal and university interests. Am placing resignation in hands of university."

The second cablegram, addressed to the chairman of the board of trustees, University of Pennsylvania, said in part:

"In view of the impossibility of definitely foreseeing the date upon which I can leave the islands and because of my realization that the university should no longer be without a permanent head, I tender my resignation. This I do with very real regret and with sincere appreciation of the honor the university has done me and of the leave granted me in order that I might comply with the expressed wishes of the administration that I remain here to carry out my work."

Congress Has Its Eye on Automobiles

WITH all previous records for road building smashed by the laying of almost 40,000 miles of new highways during the fiscal year 1922, there are a number of movements affecting the millions of automobile owners in the United States having small beginnings in congress. The impetus given the work by the enactment of the federal aid bill is backfiring on the capitol in the form of schemes which range all the way from regulating interstate use of automobiles to federal intervention in the settlement of accident trials.

One of the measures now pending before congress which is of great interest to automobile owners is a bill, at present slumbering in the house ways and means committee, providing a special tax on automobiles which engage in interstate travel. Representative Appleby of New Jersey is the author of the bill. It also would provide a federal license for the convenience of the so-called "tin-can tourist," who chugs along over the highways from Maine to Florida and from coast to coast. The price would be 40 cents per horsepower, with a minimum of $5 on any vehicle. Ninety per cent of this would come into the federal treasury.

There are three almost identical bills pending in the senate and house interstate commerce committees to regulate the interstate use of automobiles by providing reciprocal courtesies between the states. Senator Pittman is the sponsor of the measure in the senate and Representatives Fuller of Illinois and Sweet of Iowa in the house.

Another senate bill would amend the national motor vehicle theft act by providing a fine of $5,000 and imprisonment for five years for any one transporting a stolen machine across a state line. Senator Brandegee of Connecticut introduced this bill.

"Can't Have Your Cake and Eat It Too"

MADISON, WIS.—Women, married and unmarried, now the equals of men before the law in Wisconsin, must bear the responsibilities of their new privileges granted by the women's rights bill enacted in 1921, the Wisconsin Supreme court has decided. It held a woman liable in her separate property and business when she endorses a note of her husband, incurring financial liability for him.

The court in its decision affirmed the ruling of Judge Fritz of the Milwaukee Circuit court that Amalie John of Milwaukee is liable for the debt of her husband incurred by an $8,000 note on the First National bank of that city, which was countersigned by Mrs. John.

Justice Rosenberry, writing the opinion held, however, that recent legislation giving equality of right and privilege to both sexes before the law "does not, and should not, strike down sex as a basis of classification in the enactment of law relating to the health, morals and general welfare of the people."

The court decided that the disability of a woman at common law to make a contract now does away with the Wisconsin statute was not a special protection or privilege which she enjoyed for the general welfare. Under

Field Goals

Has your team lost yet?

We don't know how you feel about it, but we think the tournament here is mighty good.

Lancaster was the first to upset our dope. Too much Meyer spelled defeat for Bluffton. The big center on the Lancaster outfit sank nine field goals during the thirty minutes of play.

That Monroe-Decatur game was worth the price of a season ticket. The two teams were very evenly matched and it was anybody's game all the way through. Lammiman, center, was the star in the Monroe lineup. There were no outstanding stars in the Decatur lineup, each one putting up a good game.

There's a fine lot of centers in the tournament this year. Landis, of Liberty Center; Lammiman, of Monroe; Meyer, of Lancaster; and Walker, of Union Center, all played exceptionally good games yesterday. Meyer and Walker each scored nine field goals in their games.

Thoma, of Union Center, showed up about as good as any forward on the floor yesterday. The little fellow is fast, handles the ball nicely, and is an accurate shooter.

Several hundred hearts beat as one when Dorwin stepped to the foul line to toss those two free throws at the close of the Decatur-Monroe game yesterday afternoon. Dear sure delivered in fine style.

No doubt, Kessler, floor guard for Monroe, who committed the personal foul at the close of the Decatur-Monroe game, which resulted in Decatur's victory, felt mighty bad after the game. Kessler was playing the and say, he's a pretty good sort of a game, though, and it was due to his over-anxiety to prevent a field goal in the last few seconds, that caused him to commit the foul. It happens to the best of guards.

Well, fans, we had the pleasure of meeting Out of Bounds yesterday, sport. He complimented us on the fine game the D. H. S. boys played yesterday. For his sake, we kinda hated to see his Red and Black warriors defeated last night.

"Dizzy" Steele came over from Kokomo yesterday to see the boys beat Monroe. The former star back guard on the D. H. S. five stood on the sidelines and he was just as happy as anyone in the big gym when Dorwin tossed in those two free throws and sewed up the game for the locals. Fuzzy's home town team, Kokomo, lost its first game in the sectional tournament yesterday to Greentown, 21 to 16.

Clowser and Early, of Bluffton, played a nice game against Lancaster last night.

We are told that not one of the players on the Lancaster quintet use profane language or indulge in the use of tobacco in any form, even when not training for basketball. Clean habits go a long way in making a good athlete.

It's a tough life, ain't it Outta. Anyhow, we enjoyed the tournament longer than you did.

MONROE NEWS

C. W. Hocker of Elkhart, was calling on friends here Thursday.

Ed Fugate is suffering with an attack of tonsillitis.

Monroe was well represented at Decatur Friday, attending the basketball tournament.

Mrs. O. O. Hocker, who has been quite ill during the past week, is able to be about again.

J. P. Johnson and W. W. Hendricks, on last Wednesday, butchered ten hogs on the Johnson farm. After they had nine of the squealers hung up, and one in the tub taking his hot water bath, they noticed that the nine hung up were "coming down." Johnson and Hendricks at once adjusted the trouble by doing the hanging act over again, and Joe was busy for sometime afterward in giving them a cold water shower bath. Joe had but little to say, however.

Monroe has now a real up-to-date millinery emporium. Mrs. Mary Oliver, who recently started a millinery store here found that the quarters were too small at her home to display her goods, has rented and moved into the M. S. Liechty office building where she has added a large stock of ladies' and Misses' hats, and is showing the latest creations in Easter bonnets.

March started in like a lamb, and will probably go out like a lion.

DRAG YOUR OWN

Scottdale, Ind., Feb. 28—"Every man drags the road along his own farm," reads the slogan adopted by several township farm bureaus of the Scott County Farmers association. Each township bureau has adopted a program for the year which includes better dairying, the raising of more legumes, the use of ground limestone, and several have taken up the road dragging project.
