

After Every Meal WRIGLEY'S

Most of us eat too hastily and do not chew our food enough.

If people realized how much more good their food would do them if properly masticated, and followed up with a bit of WRIGLEY'S to assist the digestive process, we'd have far better health.

Keep teeth clean, breath sweet, appetite keen and digestion good with WRIGLEY'S.

WRIGLEY'S is the perfect gum, made of purest materials, in modern, sanitary factories.

The Berne Witness says of the Krick-Reusser wedding which took place at Berne:

"Miss Laura Reusser, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Amos Reusser, was united in marriage to Robert H. Krick of Decatur at 7:30 Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Bockman at his home on East Van Buren street. Only a few of Mrs. Krick's friends had known of the wedding which came as a great surprise at this time. The bride wore a suit of blue pique twill and a picture hat for the occasion. She also wore a corsage bouquet of orchids, roses and lilies of the valley. The wedding was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Michael and daughter, Miss Josephine and Rebecca Reusser, Clifford Kohler and Miss Lily Walchle. Mrs. Krick is a popular young lady of Berne. At present she is employed as stenographer for the Smith Baby Chick Co., in their office in Berne. She is a graduate of the Berne high school, having graduated with the class of 1922. After completing her high school course she took a business course in the Anthony Wayne Institute at Fort Wayne. Mr. Krick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Krick of Decatur. He has been employed for some time as the cashier for the American Railway Express at Decatur. Mrs. Krick will for the present continue her duties in the office of the Smith Baby Chickery. The newly married couple will be at home to their many friends at their home on Eleventh street, Decatur after April 21st."

Stauffer-Gilliom
A very pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized at 7:30 Saturday evening, when Miss Hulda Gilliom became the bride of Menno E. Stauffer, at Berne. The wedding ceremony was performed in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer, which was just recently built and furnished, by Rev. P. R. Schroeder, pastor of the First Menonite church. The nuptials of the bride and groom were accompanied by song. Miss Edna Nussbaum played the wedding march while little Ruth Elcher, ring bearer, Mary Ann Stauffer, flower girl, and the bride and groom arrived at the altar. The double ring ceremony was observed. The bride was dressed in silk crepe de chine designed with beads. She carried a bouquet of white roses and narcissus. A reception was held at the home and dainty refreshments were served to the guests, who were members of the immediate families. Mrs. Stauffer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gilliom, of Berne. Mr. Stauffer is the Berne representative of the R. L. Hollings company. The couple went to Indianapolis for a short honeymoon.
