SOUTHERN MUSICAL COMPANY WINNING PRAISE FOR ARTISTIC PROGRAM OFFERED

Edward Stallings, Violinist, Heads Exceptional Music and Entertainment Trio—Costumed Numbers Featured.

SOUTHERN MUSICAL COMPANY.

The Southern Musical Company renders a program beautiful and unusual in every way, consisting of violin, cello, piano, songs, pianologues, readings in ensemble and solo numbers, both classical and popular.

Much of the program is given in costume. Mr. Edward Stallings, violinist, is worth going a long way to hear. Mrs. Stallings is a pianist, soloist and entertainer of note. Miss Hardy, cellist, singer and reader, completes the trio, which for variety and charm of entertainment is quite unsurpassed. Many years of platform experience on the most pretentious courses have won them an enviable reputation.

The Southern Musical Company will give a concert in the high school auditorium on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Senior Lyceum Course.

ACCUSES BILL HART

MISS ELIZABETH MACCAULEY
Although William S. Hart, "two gun man" of the movies, never admitted parentage of a child born to Miss MacCauley, he has set a trust fund of $50 monthly for the benefit of the child. Hart denied everything with considerable emphasis and made preparations to take criminal action when Miss MacCauley took steps for civil action, the result being a settlement out of court.

MONROE NEWS

Miss Margaret Kurry, telephone operator at Craigville, was the guest of the "Hello" girls at this place over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith, entertained relatives at an Easter dinner. C. L. Oliver, of Bluffton, was here Friday on business.

Mrs. Mary McChilough, was the guest at supper Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Hocker.

Mr. Carl Tratler, of Kendallville, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Short Sunday afternoon, while enroute to Cincinnati, Ohio in his touring car. Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mitchell a few days ago underwent the pangs of pulling a tooth, in a short time his jaw began swelling and it was feared that blood poison would set in. Medical aid, however, soon reduced the swelling and at this time is considerably improved.

Clarence Mitchell, who recently underwent an operation at the Magley hospital, Decatur, was able to be brought home Friday, being greatly improved.

A deal was closed between C. M. Andrews and J. N. Burkhead, when they traded farms. Mr. Andrews traded his 40-acre farm just outside of the corporation line on the east, for an 80-acre farm of J. N. Burkhead, just north of town. This deal was consummated within a very short time. Mr. Burkhead and family will move into their new home this week. Frank Andrews will move into the Burkhead home this week.

Miss Martha Hofer, telephone operator here, who has been ill for some time, was taken to the Methodist hospital at Fort Wayne Monday morning for treatment.

Mrs. Homer Raudabush, living northeast of town, on Sunday morning presented her husband with an Easter greeting in the form of three husky five-pound boys. The trio are a lively set and late reports state that the mother and sons are doing nicely. Homer says he believes in a large family.

On Sunday, April 1, our fellow townsman, J. P. Johnson, had reached his 73rd birthday anniversary. Joe, as usual, went to church, and on arriving home found, to his surprise that the home was filled to overflowing with his children and relatives who came to surprise him on this occasion. A bountiful dinner was served and an enjoyable and social time was had by the gathering of father, children and relatives. Those present were: Mayor and Mrs. R. O. Johnson, and son, and Chester Johnson and family of Gary; S. V. Johnson and family of Farm-land, Ind.; Walter Johnson and family, C. E. Hocker and family, of Decatur; Mr. and Mrs. Levi Johnson, W. W. Hendricks, Forest Ray and family and Wilford Ray and family of Monroe. The table contained a large birthday cake with 73 candles. Many congratulations were extended and also wishing Mr. Johnson many more years such happy occasions.

George Smith and Miss Cleo Crist and Rolla Osterman and Miss Le-attended the concert given at the lah Bahner were among those who Mennonite church on Sunday evening by the Bluffton, O., college students.

DO YOU REMEMBER WAY BACK WHEN--

The calaboose stood opposite the Murray House and Jake King was Marshall and Rudolph Schroeder was the first prisoner?

The postoffice stood where Ed Phillip's house now is on First street?

Mathias Colchin sold a big English currant pie for a nickel?

When old man Flag operated a store where the Tanvas harness shop is?

When the first passenger trains came in on the C. R. & Fort Wayne, afterwards the G. R. & I. and now the Pennsylvania, with Dad Nixon punching tickets on one train and Harvey Brokaw on the other?

The dwellers on 7th street along where Marshall Reynolds lives, after every hard rain, had to hunt their wells with a long pole?

The St. Mary's river overflowed Ahr's field and the weather turned cold and froze six inches of ice all over it and the water went down, leaving the ice on the ground? It was the safest skating rink in the world and skaters came from many miles to use it. The place looked like Belmont park on Yeoman day.

Child Health Week to be Held in Allen County

Allen county child health week conferences are to be held in 10 or 11 centers in the county. Announcement to this effect was made last night by Miss Isabel Devlin, supervisor of the Red Cross public health nursing service, following a conference yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Zella Duntun, of Hometown, general chairman in charge of that health conference in the county, and Mrs. Allen Hamilton, chairman of the nursing activities committee of the Red Cross.

Under the auspices of one of the sororities in this city, a child health conference may be held in Decatur in the near future. Plans are now being discussed.
