Mrs. Page Declares Tanlac Has Again Won Her Lasting Gratitude By Restoring Health After Recent Flu, Just As It Years Ago.

"Tanalac rid me of stomach trouble on one occasion and the miserable after-effects of influenza on another, and I will always keep it on hand now as our family medicine," states Mrs. Elizabeth A. Page, 301 S. Sixth St., West Terre Haute, Ind.

"When Tanlac was first introduced in this city I was suffering terribly from indigestion, had no appetite, and would choke up from gas until I could hardly breathe. My nerves were shattered, I couldn't half sleep, and was too weak to do my housework.

"Well, the Tanlac treatment relieved me of every ailment. I could eat to my heart's content, sleep like a child, and never felt better.

"Last January I had influenza, and became weak and nervous, had no appetite, and felt sick all over again.

"But I got some more Tanlac, and now I feel as if I had never been sick a day. Tanlac has won my everlasting gratitude, and I can't praise it enough."

Tanalac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

Tanalac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

LAST DAY FOR PAYING TAXES

County Treasurer Has Busy Day Today; $51,000 Taken in Saturday

Today was the last day to pay the spring installment of taxes without the ten percent penalty being added. It was also the last day to file mortgage exemptions with the county auditor.

Saturday's receipts totaled $51,000 and it was estimated that on Saturday evening about $350,000 had been paid into the treasurer's office, leaving between $90,000 and $100,000 of the spring installment unpaid this morning. The rush today was heavy, in view of the fact that nearly one hundred thousand dollars would be paid into the treasurer's office. The total taxes for the year amount to $905,000, and the spring installment is always heavier than the fall. County Treasurer Hugh Hite estimated that between $450,000 and $500,000 would be paid by today. Many remittances were received by mail this year and the banks at Berne, Geneva, Preble, and Linn Grove assisted greatly in paying the taxes for many of their patrons, they sending a check or money order in payment of them. The check of the Pennsylvania system was received this morning. The treasurer's office will close at five o'clock this evening.

File Mortgage Exemptions
The auditor's office was also a busy place this morning, attorneys, notaries and individuals filing their mortgage exemptions with the auditor. It is estimated that between 1,500 and 2,000 mortgage exemptions will be filed with the county auditor by tonight.

Michael and Nick Miller will leave tomorrow morning for West Baden where they will recuperate for ten days.

SEXTON'S OFFICE DECATUR CEMETERY ASSN. Decatur, Indiana.

We wish to call the attention of the Lot-Owners of the Decatur Cemetery Association to the Ordinance of the Cemetery prohibiting the raising of graves. This Ordinance was enacted upon our books in Jan. 1904, and has been in effect since that time. Under no circumstance will graves be permitted to be raised. The practice of decorating graves with tin cans, glass fruit jars, cream pitchers, dish pans and other unsightly containers is not appropriate to and will not be tolerated in the Decatur Cemetery. The ravines and open spaces in the Cemetery are not proper places for the accumulation of discarded rubbish and the pollution of these places must cease.

It is unlawful to enter the Cemetery or leave other than by the entrance gates, and hereafter anyone violating this Ordinance will be considered trespassers and dealt with accordingly. Children under twelve years of age, in groups or singly will not be permitted to enter the grounds unless accompanied by parents or guardians. Any dog found upon the premises unless attached by a chain and led by owner or secured in vehicle, will be taken in charge by the sexton on sight.

The Value of Personal Contact

PERSONAL contact is essential to the growth of complete understanding.

When business operations and business organizations were small the employer could know his employees personally and the merchant could know his customers. All had the advantage that comes from the intimacy of close, personal acquaintanceship. Misunderstandings were easily adjusted. Every man knew every other man as a citizen and as a friend, and there was no suspicion of motives.

Today, when big enterprise is the order of business; when large accumulations of capital are essential to the accomplishment of undertakings of real value to the public, the several groups are denied the advantage of this personal contact.

Recognizing this handicap, the management of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has established a system of direct personal contact with the great body of employees and through them with the public.

The management maintains close, personal relations with the employees through the Department of Industrial Relations, where the employer and employee get together on common ground to discuss and settle, in friendly conference, questions of mutual interest.

To promote still closer relationship, the Board of Directors, as a body, make frequent visits to refineries and to the field, where they meet and confer with the great body of employees.

The value of this personal contact is reflected in the harmonious relations which exist between the Company and the earnest, loyal, hard-working employees, who thrifly invest their savings in the Company's business and who have added interest in seeing that the Company's customers get efficient service.
