The Queen Esthers will have a pot luck supper Thursday evening at the Methodist church instead of Tuesday evening as was previously announced. It was necessary to make the change on account of the Latin Club picnic.

Mrs. Herbert Kern's section of the Delta Theta Tau sorority will give a benefit bridge and "500" party Friday evening. Tickets may be obtained from any member of her section.

The meeting of So Cha Rea has been postponed from Thursday evening of this week until Tuesday evening of next week at which time Miss Helen Gass will be hostess. All members please notice.

The Friday Night Club will postpone its meeting of Friday night with Mrs. D. M. Hensley until a week from Friday night, May 18th, on account of the Delta Theta Tau card party.

Mrs. Jennie Schlickman will be hostess to the Work and Win class of the United Brethren church at her home at 116 South Tenth street, Thursday evening. All members are requested to be present.

Kohler-Walchle

A quiet wedding was solemnized at seven o'clock Saturday evening when Miss Lilly Walchle, of Berne, became the bride of Clifton Kohler, of French township. The vows were received by Rev. A. M. Clauser, pastor of the Linn Grove Missionary church, at his home on South Hendricks street. The couple were attended by Miss Silva Kohler, a sister to the groom, and Andrew Hackenigos. Mrs. Kohler is a daughter of Mrs. Marianna Walchle, of Monroe township, and during the past two years has been working at the home of Dr. A. Reusser in Berne. Mr. Kohler is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kohler of French township, and has been assisting on his father's farm. The young couple will reside on the Alfred Kohler farm.

Miss Ethel Fuhrman will be hostess to the young peoples society of the Evangelical church at her home north of the city this evening at 7:30. If the weather clears up it is hoped that a good attendance will be there.

The Misses Helen Blee, Marcella Teeple, Leota LeBrun, Euelah Nichols and Edna Miller formed a party and hiked to Monmouth last evening for a picnic supper and flower hunt. They returned on the interurban after which they motored to Berne and Monroe.

The Y. W. M. A. of the Reformed church will meet in the Sunday School annex at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet in the church parlors next Friday afternoon, May 11th at 2:30 o'clock. This is the first meeting of this conference year and some very important plans of work will be announced. Mrs. E. A. Beavers and Mrs. A. D. Hunsicker are the chairman in charge.

Mrs. Charles Burdge and Mrs. S. E. Shamp left this morning for North Manchester to attend the annual convention of the Pythian Sisters of District Four. A special program will be given to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the writing of Home Sweet Home, written May 8, 1823. Lydia J. Leverton, district leader, will have charge of the meeting. Mrs. Shamp is an officer of District Four. North Manchester, Huntington, Portland, Bluffton, Peru, Andrews, Pennville, Ossian, Redkey, Roll, Jonesboro, Marion, Converse, Warren, Van Buren, Toccoa, Montpelier, Wabash, Bunker Hill, Gas City, and Decatur, are the cities of this district.

Miller—Spangler

The wedding of Paul Miller to Miss Rosa Spangler, took place this morning at the St. Mary's Catholic church, at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. J. A. Seimetz received the vows of the single ring ceremony. The attendants were the brother and sister of the bride, Anthony and Cecilia Spangler. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler, of east of the city, and has been employed in Fort Wayne for the past several years. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller of east of the city and is employed as moulder at the Decatur Foundry. The wedding dinner was served at the home of the brides parents for members of the immediate families. The young couple will reside on Adams street, where they have their home already furnished.

NAME FOUR FOR JURY SERVICE

Four new jurors were drawn today to take the places of those who were excused from further service during the April term of the Adams circuit court. The jurors excused from service were Lewis F. Miller, Charles D. Schenck, Charles A. Mann and Abe Schnepf. The new jurors drawn today were Clark F. Fink, of Geneva; Martin Miller, of Decatur; James W. Barr, of Geneva; and Clement L. V. Snell, of Monroe. The jury will be called to hear the case of Niblick vs. Parrish on Thursday.

A motion for a new trial in the case of V. Frances Murphy vs. Frances Murphy, administratrix of the estate of the late J. W. Murphy, was filed today by the defendant. In a recent trial, the jury awarded the plaintiff judgment in the sum of $4,500.

Letters of execution were issued today in the estate of Elijah Pease to Joseph V. Pease. Mr. Pease filed bond in the sum of $8,000.

John B. Stauffer was appointed guardian of Mary A. Stauffer and Eugene E. Stauffer, minor heirs of Maude Stauffer, deceased.
