Building Trade Workers In Chicago Get Raise

(United Press Service)
Chicago, June 1—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Suspension of Chicago's $300,000,000 construction boom was averted today when an agreement was reached giving the 13 "open shop" building workers a 20 percent pay increase. The new wage is effective today and increases the pay of the so-called "basic trades" to $1.25 an hour. Other workers will receive wages ranging from $1.05 an hour for stone planer men to $1.37 1/2 an hour for stone carvers.

Gun Battle With Alleged Bootleggers At Washington

Washington, June 1—(Special to the Daily Democrat)—Police and prohibition agents engaged in a running gun fight with alleged bootleggers here today, when a booze car tried to escape back into Maryland with its cargo, which was being brought into Washington through the cordon of dry agents surrounding the capitol.

Two men were captured and 45 gallons of whiskey were taken.

Daily Report of Local and Foreign Markets

New York Stock Exchange
New York, June 1—Considerable improvement in the ratio of both the local federal reserve bank and the system as a whole and another high record in weekly car loadings were encouraging developments which served to stimulate trading in the early dealings today. California Petroleum jumped to a further new high for the year at 117, a gain of a full point over the previous close while fractional gains were scored by American Can, Corn Products and other industrial leaders.
