More than fifty couples enjoyed the annual Phi Delta Kappa June Jamboree, given in the Masonic hall last night. Music for the dancing was furnished by True Frisco's Syn-copating Eight. Although the weather was very hot, everyone appeared to have a delightful time. Many dancers were present from surrounding cities.

Mrs. Owen Davis delightfully entertained last evening in honor of Miss Agnes Conklin, of Bluffton, bride elect, of June 6th. The home was beautifully decorated with bridal wreath and pink wedding bells. A contest, "Courtship in Flowerland," was held and prizes were won by Mrs. Margaret DeHaven and Mrs.
Lloyd Sleppy. Miss Beth Koenig and Mrs. Jay Tigar won prizes in progressive hearts. The guests were then lead to the dining room where they were served with a delicious two course luncheon. A miniature bride standing in a basket of pink and white crepe paper flowers with bridal wreath forming the handle, was used as the centerpiece. The dainty nut cups were pink with tiny roses forming the handle from which suspended the wedding bell, with place cards to correspond. Pink candles in silver holders were placed at each end of the long table. Miss Conklin will be married to Mr. Ray-
