FROG EYES DEFEATED IN TWELVE-INNING GAME SUNDAY

It took the Goecklein team from New Haven twelve innings of fast baseball to defeat the Frog Eye nine on the latter's diamond Sunday afternoon. The final score was 10 to 8.
The score was tied 7-7 at the end of the ninth, 8-8 at the end of the tenth and eleventh innings. The Frog Eyes play Dixon, Ohio, next Sunday.

A MODERN SPARROW

Fords have been used for almost everything under the sun, it remained for a little sparrow to win the championship by establishing her home in one of the cars, the property of Lew Durbin, who lives on the James Arnold farm. Lew stopped in Pleasant Mills yesterday to get some gas.
Some one saw a bird fly from beneath the pan just back of the gas tank, and investigating, found a bird nest containing four baby sparrows. Durbin has used the car every day and the nest must have been built, the eggs layed and hatched at a speed of twenty or thirty miles an hour, which is going right along, even for this speedy age. Lew noticed the bird dart under his car several times, in and out but thought nothing of it. He will be careful of his pets until they are able to take care of themselves.

Wisconsin "Wets" Cam- paign For Votes Today

(United Press Service) Madison, Wis., June 4.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Twenty-five anti-prohibition members of the assembly paigned today for the votes of forty "mild wets" to pass the Tucker bill repealing the state prohibition enforcement law next Saturday.

The repeal bill, lifted from the table after New York's repealer had dissolved their fears that it was too radical has slim chances of passing the senate, but the wets plan to make a gesture against prohibition in the lower house.
