Re-Open Mount Case
(United Press Service)
Chicago, June 14.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe's office today re-opened its investigation of the death of Leighton Mount, Northwestern university freshman, whose parents declare he was slain by hazers.
The new probe followed a coroner's jury verdict that Mount was murdered and urged that the guilty persons be brought to justice.
Mount disappeared during the 1921 freshman-sophomore class fight at the university. Eighteen months later his skeleton was found under a Lake Michigan pier.
Following a telegraphic "tip" that a former student, now in Tucson, Ariz., was an "eye-witness" to the alleged slaying, Crowe's assistants began efforts to locate the man in the Arizona town.

MOTHERS VISIT BIBLE SCHOOL

Mother's Day At Presbyter- ian Daily Vacation School Wednesday

Friday has been designated as Mother's Day at the Presbyterian Daily Vacation Bible school. At that time the mother of every child enrolled is invited to be present at the classes and see the work which has been done.

This is the second week of the Bible school and interest has been steadily increasing. About seventy are enrolled with an average daily attendance of over 90%. The children are progressing rapidly with their memory work. Their ability in craft work has been especially pleasing.

Every mother is asked to set aside tomorrow morning to attend the school. The sessions will begin promptly at 9 o'clock and will close at 11:30 a. m.

The marriage of Miss Melvina Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butler, and Mr. Francis Eady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Eady, will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents, on Winchester street at 8 o'clock. The bride will be attended by Miss Mildred Railing, of Fort Wayne, and Mr. Virgil Cross, of Fort Wayne will attend as groom-smen. Rev. R. W. Loose, of the Evangelical church, will receive the vows in the presence of sixty invited guests.

Of interest to the relatives and friends of the bride, is the following article taken from the Jonesboro, Arkansas, paper telling of the marriage of Miss Lillian Falk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Falk, of Jonesboro, to Mr. Arthur P. Jones also of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Falk formerly lived in Decatur and Mrs. has visited in this city several times with the Daniel Erwin, John S. Falk and Holt-house families. The paper said:
"The wedding of Miss Lillian Mary Falk and Arthur P. Jones was solemnized at 9:00 o'clock Thursday morning, June 7th, at St. Roman's church.
Reverend F. X. Strasner, pastor of St. Roman's performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The church was beautifully decorated with Dorothy Perkins roses and ferns. A large white floral wedding bell marked the place of ceremony. Garlands of Dorothy Perkins roses festooned across the altar and the chancel rail entwined with the same flower brought into relief by white tapers burning in tall holders presented a charming effect. The nuptial music was beautifully rendered by Miss Marguerite Mason.
Miss Frances Mason sang "At Dawning." The bridal party entered to the strains of "Mendelssohn's Wedding March." During the ceremony could be heard the soft notes of "I Love You Truly." Miss Rose Falk, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid, wearing Jade green organdie with white val lace trimmings and large white picture hat. She carried a sheaf of pansies. Miss Patricia Falk, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore yellow organdie with white val lace trimmings large white and yellow picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of Shasta daisies. The little flower girls, Elizabeth Hopkins of El Dorado wearing pink organdie and Winifred Jones of this city wearing blue organdie scattered rose petals in the path of the bride from prettily decorated wicker baskets. The bride who was given in marriage by her father, Fred M. Falk, looked lovely in her wedding gown of white canton crepe with ropes of pearl trimmings and long white tulle veil fastened coronet style to wreath of orange blossoms. Her flowers were shower bouquet of Bride's roses and white sweet peas. Mr. Jones, attended by John Mason as best man, joined the bride at the altar and pledged their vows kneeling on white satin and lace cushion. Master Richard Falk, James Hudson Jones, Ray Hopkins, Jr., of El Dorado and Franklin Winters served at the altar, and Charles E. Jones, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. Ushers were Lonnie Jones of Pine Bluff and Tony Falk. A wedding breakfast was served the bridal party and a number of relatives and close friends immediately followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Falk and South Main street.

The home was elaborately decorated with roses and sweet peas. A most delicious fried chicken menu and ice course was served. The bride's table was centered with a large wedding cake baskets of sweet peas and silver candelabras holding burning tapers. In cutting the cake the groom cut the dime, Miss Rose Falk the thimble and Frances Mason the ring.
The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Falk and is a most attractive and popular girl. After graduating from the Jonesboro High school she attended the Incarnate Word College at San Antonio, Texas.
The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
J. G. Jones, Sr., of East Cherry avenue, is a splendid young business man and is one of the managers of the Jones Brothers Shoe Company in this city, Little Rock and Pine Bluff. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left overland for Biloxi, Miss, and other points on the Gulf Coast on their wedding trip. Mrs.
Jones' travelling costume was sand colored point twill with Egyptian embroidery trimmings with which she wore a becoming matching hat and accessories to harmonize. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hopkins of El Dorado, Mr. and Mrs.
Lonnie Jones of Pine Bluff and Miss Mary Hopkins of El Dorado.
