

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Rowles Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.

Jess Willard Battered Down By Luis Irpo

Willard shook his head and waved his right hand weakly in a feeble effort to silence the orders of those who wanted him to further submit himself to the fury of an enraged opponent who was foaming rage from his every pore.

The former champion listened to her and seemed to snap out of a trance when the referee slapped him on the back and said:

"Sover, Get over there and let 'em fix you up."

Willard's Strength Fails Him

Willard did not need much fixing up. His physical powers had failed him and after a short rest he was able to walk to his corner and shuffle through the crowd within earshot of many nasty remarks.

Firpo was winning by a wide margin of points up to the time of the knock-out. The South American had won the first, second, fourth, sixth, and seventh rounds. Willard had taken the fifth and by the exercise of a little consideration for the venerable Kansan, the third might be called even.

Firpo's victory will be construed as earning for him a shot at the world's championship and a Firpo-Dempsey fight seems almost certain for Labor Day, some place.

Opinion does not agree on the probable result.

One thing was apparent from Firpo's fight last night. He never can be taught to be clever. All the teachings of Jimmy De Forest in the use of his right hand in blocking and boxing were lost when Firpo was angered. He went right back, in the heat of the battle, to a club-swinging and a rock-throwing. He led with his right hand and carried his left with him only because it hung on him.

"Why teach him to be clever? It would spoil him. He's a natural fighter and a dangerous one," the sage, Jack Britton, former welter-weight summed it up.

Guy Players To Show Here During Fair Week

Beren Thornberry, advance agent for the Guy Players, is here today to complete arrangements for the appearance of those old favorites in Decatur fair week, beginning Monday July 23rd. They will pitch their big water proof theatre on the Willard Steel lot on First street, south of the Kitson garage and will give an up-to-date series of plays. The company is well known here and is carrying eighteen people this year with plays that captivate the audiences, and will furnish a week of amusement.

Bluffton Chooses Flower

Bluffton, Ind., July 13.—Bluffton's floral emblem is to be the iris, according to a decision of the Chamber of Commerce Thursday evening. This flower was picked because of the fact that it is being propagated in such large numbers by E. B. Williamson and others that it is gaining wide recognition.
