STATUE THAT SHOCKED NEW ROCHELLE.

Photo shows the statue of Venus and Adonis photographed before canvas was draped on it on the lawn of the public library at New Rochelle, N. Y.

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y.—Venus and Adonis in dark hued marble, sans fly leaf and girdle, may or may not be art, but the group of life sized sculpture stood draped in a piece of dirty canvas on the lawn of the public library at New Rochelle, N. Y., as a result of protests received by police from residents, who complained that the statue is immoral. The statue by Frederick MacMonnies, sculptor of civic virtue, forms part of an exhibition of the works of famous sculptors which is to open at the public library on Monday. The design of the work is from Shakespeare's famous but frequently suppressed poem, and because of its size it was left on the lawn. It was recently purchased by the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York for $10,000.

Dettinger Reunion.

The annual Dettinger reunion was held Sunday at the home of W. H. Dettinger in Kirkland township, one hundred relatives and invited guests attending. The day was a happy and enjoyable one and old acquaintances were renewed. At noon a delicious dinner was served, tables being erected on the lawn in front of the Dettinger home. During the afternoon a program was given, Rev. Otto Scherry of the Reformed church at Vera Cruz, delivering an excellent talk. The accordian orchestra of Berne rendered a number of selections and Freeman Falk gave an interesting talk. It was voted that the reunion next year be held at the Ben Lininger home in Kirkland township. Mr. Dettinger, who is trustee of Kirkland township, was president of the organization last year. Several people from this city were invited to the reunion and report a fine time.

Hinck-Heinrich

A very pretty wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends was performed Sunday afternoon at the Preble Lutheran church, Rev. Robert Gaiser, performing ceremony which united the lives of Miss Anna Hinck, daughter of John Hinck of Root township and Mr. Herman Heinrich, well known young man of Fort Wayne. The bride was beautifully dressed in a charming silk crepe dress, trimmed with beads. She was attended by two bridesmaids, the Misses Margaret Hinck and Ada Roesner and by maid of honor, Miss Minnie Hinck. The gown of Miss Hinck was a peach color crepe while that of Miss Roesner was of green crepe. The maid of honor wore a gown of orchid taffeta. Little Miss Wanda Heinrich, a niece of the groom, acted as flower girl, she wearing a white crepe de chine dress. The groom was attended by Wm. Cook and Herman Hinck, who like the groom wore dark suits. Following the wedding ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hinck in Root township where a wedding dinner was served to about sixty guests. The couple will make their home in Fort Wayne, Mr. Heinrich being employed at the Dudio plant. The best wishes of the many friends of the couple are extended to them.

The Loyal Workers class of the Evangelical church will hold their picnic Thursday at 12 o'clock at the home of Henry Barkley.

Girod-Habegger.

A very pretty church wedding occurred at the First Mennonite church in Berne Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, when Miss Esther Habegger became the bride of Roy O. Girod. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. J. Neuenschwander, of Philadelphia. The ceremony was witnessed by members of both families and a few invited guests. The bride attended by Miss Ella Habegger, entered the church through the east door, while Mrs. Martin W. Baumgartner of Bluffton, Ohio, played the Lohengrin wedding march. At the altar they were met by the groom who was attended by Waldo Lenman. Little Christine Hebegger served as flower girl. Mrs. Baumgartner played throughout the ceremony, after which she played Mendelsohn's wedding march. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The altar was banked with ferns and flowers. The aisles leading to the altar had been decorated with white streamers. The bride wore a tan suit with hat to match. She also wore a corsage bouquet. A short reception was held at the bride's home immediately after the wedding to which a number of guests had been invited.

Mr. Girod is a daughter of J. P. Habegger of Berne. After her graduation from the Berne high school she entered the Oberlin Kindergarten Training School. Since that time she has taught school, having taught the second grade in the Berne schools for two years and then she has taught in the public schools of California and last year was employed in the Racine (Wis.) schools. Mr. Girod is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Girod of Salem, Ore., and formerly of Berne. After his graduation from the Berne high school in 1914, he taught one term of school in this county and for a few terms taught in Oregon. During the war he enlisted in the U. S. navy, having served a three-year term. Last year he was a student in the school of commerce of the University of Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Girod left Sunday evening for Fort Wayne and Monday left for Grand Rapids, Mich., where they will visit with his brother. They expect to make their future home at Madison, Wis., where Mr. Girod will continue his studies at the university.

The Loyal Workers class of the Evangelical church will hold their picnic Thursday at 12 o'clock at the home of Henry Barkley.

A family reunion was held at the Sam Fuhrman home, Sunday, Aug. 26. The family gathered in the morning and at noon a sumptuous dinner was served to which all did ample justice. Those present were:
