People can't move to Decatur unless we provide houses for them and any one who has been looking for one during the past few weeks will tell you its some job. There is not only a shortage in modern homes here but there are few places for laborers of any kind. There are no homes here with rent cheap and there is a demand for them. If we could have a dozen or so modern homes and twenty-five to fifty plain every day houses, they could be rented at a profit. Its time to get them too.

According to the latest in the Yeoman Shield, which came today, the decision for the location of the home and school has been deferred until October. Rochester, Minnesota is a new possible site, the famous Mayo Brothers offering free medical care for the children if the home is located near there. The offer from the Iowa state university is also given serious consideration and Des Moines of course is in the running. The job of picking out the one spot in the United States is a difficult one and the frequent delays it seems but complicates the problem. So far no official information has been received here.

If the auto races next Monday are a success and this now seems assured, you may safely predict more of them. There is talk now of the organization of a company which will conduct these and similar events at frequent intervals during the year, attracting big crowds here and helping to call attention to the best town in this section. The men who are putting the races on are taking the chances. All they ask is your co-operation, good will and patronage. They feel every business man and every booster should buy a ticket. Many are coming from out of town. Every racer will be backed by a crowd from home. The people here should show their loyalty by attending. You will more than get your money's worth for the program is high class. The men behind the races are in deep earnestness and are trying their best to give the community something new and interesting. Don't miss it. Buy your ticket in advance and show the right spirit.

CE CREAM SOCIAL.

O. L. Vance and family recently returned from their annual trip this year, traveling through Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois and camping each night near some city where there was provided a camping ground. Mr. Vance is a greater enthusiast than ever for a camp for tourists conveniently arranged near Decatur. He says that from forty to seventy tourists were camped each evening with them and the cities which have them are gaining in many ways. It is not uncommon to travel twenty-five to fifty miles out of your way to reach one of these places and the news of camp facilities travels rapidly, one driver passing it on to another. The tourists buy supplies, gas, machine parts and other things in the towns thus visited and every camper is a booster for that place. He is agitating a tourists camp here and with a little co-operation, Lee can put it over. He knows just what is needed and what it means to the tourist and the community. Its worth thinking about.

While we haven't had the opportunity to study the budgets which bring forth the various tax levies which combine to make a total of $3.45, estimated, for Decatur, the figures are rather startling. An advance of thirty-eight cents over last year is too strong if there is any way to avoid it. We realize that its hard to meet all demands of the people and keep the rates down, but its most important that we guard the tax rate and make every effort to lower it. If each taxing unit will go over their estimate and knock off a few cents, the total will be some where near that of last year at least and there ought to be a real effort to keep it down to three cents. As stated we haven't studied the figures and it may be impossible to cut, but we are convinced that the safe way for those who have the authority to levy taxes, is to tax only for necessary appropriations and those petitioned or voted for. If you try to meet every suggestion the tax rate will soon become unbearable. Use caution. A low tax rate is about the best asset that a community can have and that's one big reason why the levies should be made with great care and always with Economy as the watchword. The Nash Motor company, one of the big ones, is now seeking a location. They have decided to move to South Bend, if the tax rate there compares favorably to other places under consideration. They are investigating and comparing the taxes this week and on that alone hinges their decision. When a concern must invest millions in a community, they want to know these things, for the amount saved as the difference between tax levies may be all or a large part of the profits of that concern. Its a big factor in community building every where and it should have the greatest and most thoughtful attention.

Complaint On Note

A complaint on a promissory note was filed in the circuit court today by the Gilliom Lumber company, of Berne against Edwin Heller. Judgment in the sum of $300 is demanded. Attorney Frank M. Cottrell, of Berne represents the plaintiff.

The Pleasant Mills Baptist Sunday School will hold an ice cream social at Pleasant Mills Saturday evening, September 1. Music and an entertainment will be given and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Honoring Miss Flanders

The following account of a tea and garden party given by the Tri Kappa sorority in Peru last Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Gladys Ann Flanders, of this city who is a bride-elect of September 1, appeared in the Peru Daily Tribune:

"Among the first of the prenuptial gaieties for the members of the Tri Kappa sorority who will be September brides was the pretty garden party and tea given Saturday afternoon at the C. E. Redmon residence on East Third street, honoring Miss Gladys Flanders, of Decatur, Indiana, who will be married in September to Richard Chamberlain, of this city. The hostesses were Mrs. Lyman Keyes, Mrs. Donavon Debolt, Miss Ercell Brubaker and Miss Goldie Martin. A shower of miscellaneous gifts was given by the honor guest Miss Flanders and Miss Ocal Fidler presided at the tea table which was adorned with a basket of fall flowers. The decorations were in orchid and pink. The guests were 39 members of the Tri Kappa sorority. Miss Catherine Urban, of St. Louis, house guest of Mrs. Berne Welch, was the only guest from out of the city."

DODGE BROTHERS ANNOUNCE IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS

Dodge Brothers have not simply brought out a complete new line of motor cars. They have done something infinitely wiser and better than that.

They have brought new beauty, new riding ease and new mechanical perfection to the product on which their reputation as builders has been founded.

They have built a better and a more desirable line of motor cars—yet basically and fundamentally the identity of their product remains the same.

The same sturdy engine is under the hood; the same dependable chassis, improved in numberless details, underlies the body.

But the rear springs—now underslung—have been materially lengthened. The wheelbase, too, is longer, and the combined result is a notable improvement in riding qualities.

Bodies of all types have been designed to give improved appearance, and greater comfort. Lower, longer, with deeper seats and more leg room, the lines of these new cars are low-slung and graceful—the interiors are comfortable and roomy.

New head lamps and fenders, especially designed by Dodge Brothers to conform with the general lines of the car—a long straight hood and cowl effect—longer and wider running boards—unusually wide doors—combination stop signal and tail lamp—and instruments attractively grouped on raised panel—are a few of the numerous body innovations common to all types.

Combining these features with important mechanical improvements too numerous and technical to enumerate here, it is not extravagant to predict a reception for these cars unprecedented in automotive annals.
