Cafeteria Supper—Methodist church 5 to 7 o'clock.

The young peoples' classes of the Pleasant Mills Baptist Sunday school, will hold a box social and oyster supper at Pleasant Mills next Friday evening, October 7. The public is cordially invited to attend.

An unusual and pretty party was given yesterday by Mrs. Samuel Lochner at her home east of Bluffton, when she announced the approaching marriage of her daughter, Viola, to Mr. William Kruetzman, of Preble township. A lovely three course dinner was served at noon and covers were laid for fifteen guests. During the afternoon Miss Crystal Baltzell, of this city, found the tiny script "Viola and Will, Oct. 21" in a cluster of grapes, which she was eating. The announcement came as a pleasant surprise and the guests showered the bride-elect with congratulations and good wishes. The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lochner, of Adams county, and is prominent in social and church work in the community. She is an able musician and has served as pianist of the St. Luke Reformed church for the past several years. Mr. Kruetzman is the eldest son of Mrs. Christena Kruetzman, of Preble township, and is well and favorably known. He is a member of the Salem Reformed male quartet and Glee Club of Magley. The young couple will reside with the groom's mother, north of Preble.

Stengel-Neuenschwander.

The marriage of Miss Olga Neuenschwander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Neuenschwander, of Berne, and Ernest J. Stengel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Stengel, also of Berne, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of the members of the immediate families. Rev. P. R. Schroeder, pastor of the Mennonite church, received the marriage vows. "But the Lord is Mindful of His Own," was sung by the bride's father preceding the ceremony after which, Milo Neuenschwander, brother of the bride, played Mendelsohn's Wedding March. Junior Moser, a nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer. Immediately following the wedding the couple left on a wedding trip through the east. After their return they will be at home in Berne where the groom is in business with his father at the Stengel & Craig Drug Store.

A cafeteria supper will be served in the dining hall of the Methodist church next Saturday evening from 5 to 7 o'clock. A liberal patronage of the public is solicited.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will meet Thursday after-

THE PUBLIC RELATIONS OF INSURANCE.

Business would be at a standstill if insurance should go on a strike. Not a train would move; not a ship would sail. The machines in factories would be still; automobiles would be left in garages. Even the banker's hand would be paralyzed—he would not know which would be the better policy; to call a loan, the collateral support of which is unprotected by insurance, or pile the money in vaults deprived of burglary protection insurance. Indeed, the sense of security against misfortune, which the public enjoys, is given to it by insurance. The lamentable feature of it, however, is that the public in general is not acquainted with the fact.

The insurance business is performing another service invaluable to the public. The stocks and bonds of the railroads you ride on are owned in part by the insurance companies. The insurance companies are today holding $1,000,000,000 worth of railroad securities in trust for the benefit of 50,000,000 policyholders.—From an address by Albert N. Wald, Assistant Secretary, Insurance Federation of America.

CARPENTER KNOCKS OUT BECKETT IN 20 SECONDS

(United Press Service)

London, Oct. 2.—Georges Carpenter, withered flower of France, blossomed again last night when he knocked out Joe Beckett, the British heavyweight champion, in 20 seconds of the first round. Ten thousand spectators were hardly more than seated when the fight was over and Beckett was being dragged to his corner.

The Frenchman rushed out and rocked Beckett with a right to the jaw. Beckett returned a light left to the body and Carpenter crossed a left and a right to the jaw. Beckett sank to the floor. Getting up at seven, Beckett got another right to the jaw and he went down again.

The Englishman's seconds threw in a towel.

GIANTS TRY OUT YANKEE STADIUM; DO NOT LIKE IT

New York, Oct. 2.—Fine for batting but very poor for fielding, the New York Giants voted after their first workout in the Yankee stadium in preparation for the opening of the world's series next Wednesday with the Yankeens.

McCraw's outfields said the gardens were bumpy and the infielders said that the infield dirt was too hard and fast and that there was too much sand mixed with the soil.
