Agent Busche. An interesting address on home beautification was delivered by Ed Chronister, Washington township farmer, who has very successfully landscaped his home. Mr. Chronister explained very clearly the advantages of beautifying the home surroundings, showing that in financial benefit could be derived as well as self-satisfaction in having a more agreeable place in which to live. Photographs of Mr. Chronister's home were of much interest to those present and following the meeting it was found that several were interested in knowing the probable cost of such work.

Dirigible ZR-1 Reaches Lakehurst in 21 Hours

(United Press Service)
Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 3.—The naval dirigible ZR-1 arrived here at 6:48 o'clock this morning from her trip to St. Louis. The ground crew was awaiting her and speedily landed the big airship. She made the return trip in twenty-one hours.
The air cruiser sighted from the hanger at eight minutes after six. The ground crew was called an hour ready to land the huge craft a few minutes later.
The dirigible made sixty knots over Pennsylvania, according to Commander McCrary, who piloted the ship throughout her trip.
Rear Admiral Moffett, chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics, boarded the ship in St. Louis and made the return trip with a rear admiral's flag hoisted and fluttering in the breeze for the first time in history on such a craft.
The naval dirigible made the 1,100 miles between Lakehurst and St. Louis in twenty-two hours and made the return trip in one minute more than twenty-one hours.
