The annual South Ward Halloween party will be held at the South Ward building, Friday evening. The third and fourth grades will present a play. Apples, candy, hamburgers, and pop corn will be sold. A fish pond will be conducted for the children. A good time is being planned and the public is invited to attend.

The Delta Theta Tau will give a benefit picture show at the Crystal theatre tonight. "The Man Next Door," starring Alice Calhoun, will be shown. Tickets are being sold by the sorority girls and a liberal patronage of the public is solicited.

Miss Dora Marie Magley was hostess to the Psi Iota Xi sorority last evening at her home, north of the city. Initiation ceremonies were held for Miss Carolyn Acker. A short business session was held at which time plans were made for the chapter to attend the installation of a chapter at Bluffton, Saturday, October 27. A Christmas sale of hand-made handkerchiefs will be held December 7 and 8, at the Peoples Shoe store. The husbands and sweethearts will be entertained at the home of Mrs. John Baumgartner, November 6, at a dinner party at eight o'clock. The hostess, assisted by her mother, served delicious refreshments.

There will be a masquerade party at the Yoeman Hall, Thursday evening at eight o'clock. The public is invited and a good time is assured.

The Catholic Ladies of Columbia will give a shower, Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the Elks Hall for Mrs. Christena Niblick. All members are invited to attend.

Mesdames C. C. Schafer, E. G. Coverdale and Roy Archbold will entertain with a series of parties at the Schafer home of Second street. The first will be October at which time they will entertain at bridge. A sewing party will be given, November 2, and bridge, November 6. A number of invitations have been issued.

Don't forget the Big G. E. Dance and Masquerade Party next Friday night at the Masonic Hall. Everyone interested in having a good time should not miss this big feature. At nine o'clock the grand march will lead the dance and at that time the ones who are masked the best and most comical will receive a prize. Following the grand march will be a cake walk for which tickets will be sold at 10 cents each. This is the one big feature of the year that the General Electric affords the public. Everyone is invited. Good music by Billy's Syncopators, and good eats.

Kreutzman-Lochner
A most impressive autumn wedding was solemnized Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the St. Luke Reformed church when Miss Viola Virgie Lochner, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lochner, became the bride of Mr. William F. Kreutzman, eldest son of Mrs. George Lies, of Spencerville, Ohio. The church was beautifully decorated. The altar was banked with fall flowers, ferns and autumn leaves. Streamers of white crepe paper ran out from the huge white wedding bell suspended from the ceiling, forming a pretty bower under which the vows were received. Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Marion Lochner, cousin of the bride, sang "Because," and Mrs. Marion Lochner played "Lohengrin's Wedding March" for the entrance of the bridal party, and played Mendelssohn's wedding march very softly during the ceremony and at the conclusion. Immediately before the entrance of the bride, the bride's mother, dressed in blue canton crepe, was ushered in by her only son, Mr. Ervin Lochner. Little Marguerite Leah Sprunger, the bride's niece, scattered rose petals up the aisle, followed by Master Meredith Sprunger, as ring bearer, and Helen Knatz, niece of the groom, as flower girl. He carried the ring on a white satin pillow and she carried a large wicker basket of flowers. Mr. Victor Kreutzman, brother of the groom, as best man, entered with the groom. Mr. Ervin Lochner, the bride's brother, and Mr. Otto Kreutzman, another brother of the groom, were ushers. Miss Irene Tonner and Miss Lena However were bridesmaids. Miss Tonner wore grey and orchid changeable taffeta made in boague effect. Miss Hawver wore grey and orchid georgette, also made in boague effect, each having grey accessories to match. They carried shower bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The maid of honor, Miss Lillian Neuen schwander, cousin of the bride, wore a gown of grey canton crepe, with cascade and shirring and harmonizing embroidery at the low waistline. Her footwear was grey and she carried a shower bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums tied with orchid tulle. The bride was lovely in a gown of white crepe Romaine with shirring and cascade held in place with a large ornament of pearls and rhinestones, she also wore a rope of pearls. Her footwear was white kid. Her tulle veil fashioned in Russian style was held in place by a narrow band of rhinestones and fell to the hem of her gown. She carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and swastika. She entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage the Rev. Otto H. Scherry, a cousin of the groom, of Vera Cruz, receiving the vows in the presence of 150 guests. The single ring ceremony being used immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, which was profusely decorated with autumn flowers, ferns and wedding bells. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Sprunger. Refreshments were served by Miss Emma Dick, Miss Crystal Baltzell and the Misses Sylvia and Wilma Beer, close friends of the bride. The bride is an able musician having served as pianist of the St. Luke church the last two years and is prominent in church and social circles in this community. The groom is an industrious farmer and is also musically talented, being a member of the St. Salem Reformed Glee club and Male Quartette. They will reside on the large farm, which is owned by the groom and his two brothers, north of Preble. Guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knatz, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Neuenchwander, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hardisty, Mrs. Lydian Miller, Miss Lillian Neuenchwander, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lochner, Miss Edna Neuenchwander, all of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Sprunger, Mrs. Peter Lochner and family, Mr. David, Lochner, of Woodburn, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. George Lies, Spencerville, Ohio; Mr. Victor Kreutzman, of Flint, Michigan; Miss Leona Hawver, Liberty Center; and Miss Agnes Schenk, of Lagrange, Indiana.

Women's Clubs Favor Stricter Liquor Laws

(United Press Service)
Evansville, Ind., Oct. 24.—The Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs went on record today as favoring stricter liquor laws.
The resolution, introduced by Mrs. W. N. Short, Salem, Ind., chairwoman of the resolutions committee, was received with great enthusiasm. More stringent enforcement of narcotic laws also was favored.
The federation approved restriction of immigration and urged examination of all immigrants before they leave their home ports.
A uniform divorce law to govern marriage and divorce was approved.

Court House

Suit On Account Dismissed.
The case of Marion Brown vs. C. O. Brown, complaint on account, was dismissed today as the costs paid.

Title Is Quiet.
The case of Carl Adler vs. James Galbraith et al, complaint to quiet title, was submitted to the court today. The court found for the plaintiff and quieted the title to the real estate in the plaintiff's name.

Case Being Tried Today.
The case of Harry J. Rowell vs. Thomas Mack, doing business under the firm name of the Resilite Manufacturing company, was submitted to Special Judge Henry B. Heller this morning. The evidence was heard this forenoon and the arguments of the counsel were being given this afternoon. The case is a complaint on account.

Illegal Operations Were Performed On Many Girls

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Denver, Oct. 24.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—More than 1,000 girls under 17 years of age were illegally operated upon to prevent child birth, in Denver within the last year, Judge Ben B. Lindsey told a grand jury here today. The judge said he had personal knowledge of that many cases and told the grand jury that the birth rate had been cut at least 50 per cent by such operations.

Germany Preparing For A Break With France

(United Press Service)
Berlin, Oct. 24.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The German government is preparing to break with France if its note sent to the reparations commission pleading inability to pay under present conditions is abruptly repulsed, it was learned.

The note was said to point out Germany's inability to deliver coal supplies and other reparations in kind. The French attitude was blamed for failure to arrive at an agreement that would have led to resumption of deliveries.

The note asserted Germany was willing to pay reparations under "proper conditions," government officials said.

WALTON FIGHTS

The governor was suspended by the senate last night after the lower house had adopted impeachment articles charging him with paying his private chauffeur from the state health board funds and with preventing a grand jury from meeting by a declaration of martial law.

Lieutenant Governor Trapp arrived in the city during the night to take up the duties of acting governor although Walton was understood to be ready to fight the suspension, declaring he could not be removed until he impeachment charges were finally acted upon by the senate.

T. J. Johnson, chief justice of the supreme court, was called in by the senate to organize it as an impeachment body.

The twenty other accusations against the governor, which still remain before the house will be acted on in the meantime.

The vote to suspend the governor was 36 to 1.

The house adopted the one article of impeachment, 89 to 17, and the second 75 to 23.

PENNSY RAILWAY

The benefit to Decatur would be large for, aside from furnishing a great day of sports, it would mean weeks and months of publicity of a most favorable kind.

On behalf of the splendid people of this community the Daily Democrat extends a welcome, accompanied by a promise to do our full share towards making the occasion the happiest in all the history of the association. We want you to come.

MUCH DISORDER

The British consul there attempted to induce the besieged separatists to surrender, but was unsuccessful.

Coblentz messages say separatists there seized a castle but were unable to hold it. They abandoned it with the intention of attacking other buildings.

A state of siege is reported to have been proclaimed at Wiesbaden.

The Fourth Down

By Willie Punt

Two more days until the journey to Logansport, the city of bridges.

Can't you just picture the Yellow Jackets stinging the Red Devils?

We are predicting Wabash to win its second game next Saturday. The Hillclimbers play Bluffton. Bluffton has played three games this year and lost by the scores of 56-0, 48-0 and 40-0. Mr. Leadpencil has been telling us about the hard schedule this team has this year. We don't see how Leady can celebrate much if Wabash does win this game, after kidding Huntington for playing "easy" teams.

Our friend Leady, at least we thought he was our friend, comes forth with the information that he is for Logansport in the game with us next Saturday. He says, "We don't wish you any bad luck, but we are for Logansport. We may tell you why some time." Really, we don't see how we can beat Logansport without Leady's support.

The Yellow Jackets had their stingers out yesterday evening and turned the tables on the Catholic high boys in scrimmage, winning by a score of 20-6. The Yellow Jackets are having difficulty in mastering a few new plays, but they are getting them in fair shape. If they can't depend on them in Saturday's game, they have several mighty good old plays to fall back on.

Huntington plays Peru Saturday. Smarting under two straight defeats.

the Huntington crew is liable to prove to be a thorn in the Tigers' sides. Peru is getting pretty confident, too.

The Catholic high boys are steadily improving and by a week from Saturday should be in shape to give the C. C. H. S. team a hard battle. Considering the fact that they have played only one game and that every member on the squad is green at the game Coach Conter's men have made fine progress since the opening of practice. This progress can easily be noted in the practice scrimmages with the Yellow Jackets. At the beginning of the season the D. H. S. team had little difficulty in making long gains and stopping the D. C. H. S. boys in their tracks, but now they give the Yellow Jackets a hot battle every day and twice within the last few days have won the practice battle.
