"Music Box Revue" Opens Engagement In Chicago

Irving Berlin's second annual "Music Box Revue" opened its brief engagement in Chicago at the Colonial theatre last Monday night, and took the capacity audience by storm. The critics are unanimous in the expression of the certainty that this production of Sam H. Harris is far and away the most gorgeous spectacle and the best revenue ever seen in the metropolis at the foot of Lake Michigan.

As a series of spectacles this second annual revue has never been equaled on the American stage, so far as Chicago playgoers know. Any one of several numbers—"The Porcelain" number of the Auction Scene, "Satan's Palace," "Crinoline Days" and the dazzlingly beautiful "The Diamond Horseshoe"—makes audiences gasp in bewilderment at the poetic imagination which could conceive so marvelously beautiful a stage picture. Anyone of these four numbers mark Hassard Short as the stage director par excellence of spectacular scenes.

Laughter runs riot in the second "Music Box Revue" which is chiefly furnished by Charlotte Greenwood, Clark & McCullough and their associates. Irving Berlin's delightful melodies have that haunting lifting strain which has made his composition so world-wide popular. Hal Shorman's eccentric dancing is a riot and stops the show, while Ruth Page's ballet work and Amelia Allen's Oriental fantasy completely captivate lovers of terpsichorean art. "The Music Box Revue" is now in the second week of its brief stay.

Would Shut Down Gas Works

"My stomach has been so filled with gas for the last three years that I felt I could pretty nearly supply our town. I also had frequent pains in right side in region of the appendix. Doctors didn't help much. One day my neighbor told me about what Mayr's Wonderful Remedy had done for him and I got a bottle of our druggist. I can say that it will do all and more than you claim for it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by Holthouse Drug Co. and druggists everywhere.
