

At My Age---62

My Youth Cream keeps this baby skin
By Edna Wallace Hopper

Thousands upon thousands of women have asked me to tell what cold Edna Wallace Hopper's Youth Cream cream I employ. They see me with a girl's complexion at the age of 62, it is even softer, even rosier than 40 years ago.

Yet my life has been lived in the limelight. And I served France for five years in the rigors of the war.

A French creation

French experts perfected this cream for me many years ago. It contains both lemon and strawberry. Also all the best that science knows to soften, whiten, smooth and feed the skin.

Neither I nor my friends have ever found a cream to compare with this. The expert makers tell me it is the greatest cream produced. So I have arranged to have them make the identical cream for you. It is called Edna Wallace Hopper's Youth Cream. All druggists and toilet counters now supply it at 50c per jar.

They also supply my Facial Youth—my famous liquid cleanser. Also my White Youth Clay—the last word in facial clay. Also my Hair Youth, to which I owe my heavy, lustrous hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

Go try my Youth Cream. Learn how it exceeds all others. Then I think you will want all the beauty helps which have come so much for me. Edna Wallace Hopper. Business address, Waukesha, Wis.

Note: Miss Hopper is now playing the Pantages Vaudeville circuit, of the western states.

STAR ON ILLINOIS ELEVEN

Was Married Fourteen Times To Twelve Men; She Is a Good Cook

East St. Louis, Ill., (United Press).—Mrs. Cora La Forge, 43, famous in these parts as a cook, is living here happily with her fourteenth husband. She has been married fourteen times since the age of 14. One marriage was annulled, the other twelve severed by divorce. She has been married to twelve different men, one man, Albert Lilley, having tried to make a success of matrimony with her three times.

Henry La Forge is her present husband. She met him in August, just after she separated from Alexander Yates. She went with him steadily for two months, for her experience has taught her to become well acquainted with a man before marrying him. They were married late in October, two days after "Mrs. Yates" got her divorce.

All of her divorces were secured in St. Clair county. She formerly conducted a boarding house here so successfully that men swarmed to get in on her cooking.

Mrs. La Forge, who originally was Miss Cora Walker, at the age of 14 married Joseph Truxler, a farm hand (when he worked), but the girl-wife was forced to eke out the living by working in the berry fields, she told the judge.

Her names, by marriages, consecutively, were, Truxler, Joyce, Barnes, Ditcher, Crow, Whitney, Riley, Porter, Lilley Swanson, Lilley, Lilley, Yates, and La Forge.

A Few Experiments

The second husband was divorced after he had been given a jail sentence for stealing a pig. John Whitney was divorced because he had an ungovernable temper, which he showed by chasing her daughter by a previous marriage around a cornfield with a shotgun.

Sherman Porter was next, but he went the way of his predecessors when he lost money his wife earned in running a rooming house in horse trading. There was something of a sense of humor about Porter, for it is said that he wrote his former spouse a note of sympathy after one of her subsequent divorces. Albert Lilley was the next but he left town when Porter threatened action because they hadn't waited long enough. This marriage was annulled.

Lilley didn't return when the legal period was up, and William Swanson made the trip to the altar. When Swanson was divorced, Lilley became the next husband, however. In due course of time Lilley was divorced, but effected a reconciliation and married her for the third time and was again divorced.

Mrs. La Forge got her last matrimonial liberty bond when the court divorced her from Alexander Yates. Her wedding with La Forge brings the tale up to date.

The undisputed marriage and divorce champion is keeping house. She says she doesn't care if her husband is a Catholic and she isn't; that he says that one can feel and act religious without a lot of fuss about it, and that that's all that makes any difference.

"Primping" Is Business

Bismarck, N. D., (United Press).—The eternal feminine was formally recognized by the North Dakota Workmen's Compensation Bureau, which ruled that the stenographer who "primped" before going on an office errand is engaged in the course of her employment. The decision was made in awarding compensation to an office employee who hurt here eyes while brushing her hair before going to the post office for the mail. The board awarded the girl compensation by a vote of three to two.

Mail Planes May Be Be Equipped With Radio

Stops are under way, at the instigation of the Post Office Department at Washington, to supply the government mail planes with voices and ears. The equipping of many of these planes with radio sending and receiving sets is expected to follow the completion of experiments which are now in progress, with every indication of success.

The advantages are obvious when it is realized that in time of heavy fog or severe snow storms, especially at night, a pilot might stray out of his course and find difficulty in locating his next landing station, even though aided by the powerful electric beacon lights which have been set up along the route. If the pilots and the landing stations can talk to each other, the pilot can be accurately directed from the ground, and thus always find his bearings.

There are also times when a plane has to make an unexpected landing, or when it is desirable to report to the landing field the presence of unusual atmospheric conditions. It has happened several times that air mail pilots have been forced to land at remote and isolated spots in the Rocky Mountains. When this occurs, with a radio outfit installed the pilot can immediately call for assistance, instead of waiting hours and perhaps days for a searching party to find him. It is also an advantage to be able to transmit instructions to the pilot between stations, should occasion arise.

For all these purposes, as well as others, radio equipment on the mail planes will be invaluable, in the opinion of the department.

DRUGS EXCITE THE KIDNEYS, DRINK WATER

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have "rheumatism" when the weather is bad, begin drinking lots of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about our ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before our kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney rushing any time. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Important to all Women

Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes anyone so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.
