Dr. Frohnappfel's Car In Accident Last Night

A car driven by Claude L. DeVenney, of Fort Wayne, collided with a car driven by Dr. H. Frohnappfel, of this city, on the Fort Wayne road a mile north of Monmouth about 9 o'clock last night. Mrs. Frohnappfel and her mother, Mrs. William Freese were scratched and cut by glass, but were not seriously injured. Dr. Frohnapfel and three children were not injured. Dr. Frohnappfel stated that he was coming towards Decatur when he saw the other car approaching on his side of the road. He stopped his car at the side of the road and waited for Dr. DeVenney to pass. The latter's car skidded in the fresh stone when he attempted to pull over to the right side of the road and the front end struck Dr. Frohnappfel's car in the left side, almost upsetting it. The Frohnappfel car was damaged too badly to be driven into the city and the family rode in with another motorist.
Both cars were insured.
