Sheriff Deserts Petting Parties To Catch Runners

(United Press Service)

Indianapolis, Feb. 16—Run-runners who think to roar through the country roads of Marion county this spring will be "out of luck," according to Sheriff Snider, while moonlight parking parties will receive less attention.

Snider said he did not think he would resume the 1923 campaign against parkers in woodland dells.

"Too many boot leggers this spring," the sheriff remarked laconically. "I won't have time to attend to parkers."

That anti-sparking drive last year had it smothered, even for the sparkers, Snider declared.

"I kept 'em moving," he said, with a grin. "That way the choicy spots were generally available for another car. You see, there are hardly enough roads to go around when a warm summer evening comes along."

"These young fellows who feel the urge to go out and twang a banjo at the moon along some lonely roadside ought to know they are taking an awful chance of twangling a harp in some heavenly choir."

The sheriff said numerous horse-thief detectives associations among the farmers have promised to patrol the lanes and see that parking is kept within safe and sane limits, and bandits shooed away.

In an impressive Valentine Day wedding, the culmination of a high school romance, which took place at the home of the bride's mother at 8 o'clock in the evening, Miss Virginia Seabold, daughter of Mrs. C. P. Seabold, East Washington street, became the bride of Carroll Costello. There were fifty guests, the Rev. W. A. Alspach, pastor of the First Reformed church, receiving the vows. Preceding the ceremony, which took place before an altar of ferns, Mrs. Harry R. Starr sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Ila Siferd. To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, which was played by Mrs. Starr, the bridal couple approached the altar together, after the bridegroom had met the bride at the stairway. The double ring ceremony was used. As the service was being pronounced Mrs. Starr played softly "The World is Waiting For The Sunrise." The bridal couple are popular among a wealth of friends. Both were graduated from the Bluffton high school in the class of 1922. Mrs. Costello is a member of the Psi Iota Xi. Mr. Costello is associated with his father in the produce business. After the ceremony the couple left on a few days wedding trip. Huntington was their first destination.—Bluffton News.

A delightful 6:30 dinner party was given at the Murray Hotel last evening by the So Cha Rea Club in honor of Mrs. Frank Crist. The large table was decorated with pink and white cut flowers. A dainty little bride with flowing veil, and a groom in full dress suit formed the center piece. Pink and white nut cups and pink and white heart shaped cups bearing the place cards were found at each place. The bride's chair was decorated with a large crepe paper bow of pink and white and at the bride's place was found a corsage of pink roses and white sweet peas. A delicious three-course dinner was served. After the dinner the girls were taken to the home of Mrs. Raymond Keller. A line of march was formed lead by the bride and her mother, Mrs. L. W. Frank. They were taken to the dining room where an altar was improvised decorated with pink and white flowers and streamers. Three little bridesmaids were as cending with the dainty little bride to meet the groom at the bottom of the altar. Mrs. Crist received many beautiful gifts. Five hundred was then played and prizes were won by Miss Marie Gass and Miss Florence Harris which were presented to the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Crist were married May 19th and succeeded in keeping their marriage a secret. Last week a 6:30 dinner party was given at the home of the bride who announced her marriage of last May. Mrs. Crist, formerly Miss Anola Frank, is one of Decatur's most popular young ladies. She is president of the So Cha Rea Club and a member of the Methodist church choir. Mr. Crist is the only son of the late Geo. Crist.

Cultivating flowers and dollars is much alike.

Nature gives us flowers, by cultivation—they yield beautiful blooms and new seeds by which they multiply.

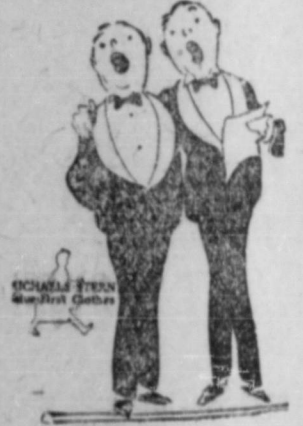

By work we earn dollars, and like the flowers if we care for them they yield interest each year and in time double themselves.
