

Happiness

Happy the man who early learns the width of the chasm between his desires and needs, that he may bridge his with service and thus find rest on the Isle of felicity.—John Grant Lyman.

BOILEX FOR BOILS

Draw and remove core without poultice or lancing.
At any Druggist.

ADJOURN AFTER NINTH BALLOT

(Continued From Page One)

at 3:30 that "about 5 o'clock we will take a short recess." It is assumed it will be a recess from 5 to 8 p.m.

United Press Headquarters, Waldorf Hotel, New York, June 30—With the democratic national convention ready to begin balloting today, managers of Governor Alfred E. Smith were claiming their candidate would become the party's candidate on the tenth ballot.

A total of 225 votes, with a possibility of 270½ will be shown for the governor on the first ballot, they claim, and this strength will be steadily increased as the voting continues.

On the tenth ballot, according to Smith managers, the governor will receive the necessary two-thirds vote to make him the party's standard bearer.

McAdoo Headquarters, Vanderbilt Hotel, New York, June 30—McAdoo leaders decided in a series of conferences lasting until early today to attempt a coup of the democratic convention for their candidate before another session adjourned.

Their plans call for his nomination between the eighth and tenth ballot. Group leaders informed the Californian that his certain maximum strength would be conservatively estimated at 553 votes. On the first ballot he will get 428, according to their checkup. On the third ballot a break toward him will be manifest and by the fifth ballot he will have picked up 125 votes, they say.

In view of this lineup, the leaders agreed that if McAdoo is to be put over he must be put over tonight and they are prepared, according to their present agreement, to attempt to hold the convention in session until at least 10 ballots have been taken.

Madison Square Garden, New York, June 30—The democratic convention today adopted the following resolution in memory of the late Pres'dent Harding:

"In political campaigns, the American people are divided into opposing parties; after the election they are as one man in allegiance to the government and in loyalty to the nation's chief executive. As democrats we stand uncovered beside the grave of Warren G. Harding, late president of the United States, with his most devoted friends in expressions of regret at his untimely death and share the sorrow that it has brought into his home."

Madison Square Garden, New York, June 30—Now for the democratic nominee. Emerging from one of the most spectacular sessions in its history and after a full day given over to conference and estimate of casualties, the democratic convention resumed its labors this morning bent upon selecting a standard bearer for the coming campaign.

Threats to re-open the fight on the platform by reconsidering the votes taken early Sunday morning apparently had been quelled over Sunday by the convention leaders. When the delegates started for the garden today they were anxious to start balloting and bring the convention to a close.

Because the greatest interest and bitter feeling had been created over the Klan issue and because the so-called political "bosses" and George Brennan, Illinois, Ed Moore of Ohio and the New York delegations leaders, had stirred up so much smoke over the subject, it was a somewhat subdued group of men who conferred Sunday after their defeat and mapped out the final snuffer on McAdoo's hopes.

Brennan is chastened by the defeat of the Klan plank. His confident predictions that it would have at least 200 majority to taunt him in his efforts to nominate Al Smith. But he also is mad. He's very disgruntled at Tom Taggart of Indiana. And it might be said with a good measure of surety that Brennan will no sooner support Samuel M. Ralston for the nomination than he will McAdoo. This being the case, the stock of Ralston as the darkhorse has fallen away materially over Sunday.

The plan of the McAdoo and Smith forces, on the eve of the balloting, was to let the two leading candidates fight it out with everything they have on the first ten ballots. During this time a study will be made of the strength both polled and prospective, of John W. Davis, Samuel Ralston, Carter Glass and Oscar Underwood. If neither Smith nor McAdoo goes over in ten ballots, the votes under the direction of George Brennan, estimated at about 490 will be swung around to first one dark horse and then another until the most likely candidate is decided upon.

Chairman Walsh was on hand at 9:30 the hour calling the convention to order, but few of the delegates were in their chairs.

McAdoo arranged to keep in touch with developments in the balloting by radio. He has a large set installed in his suite. A private telephone has been rigged up from the hall to the hotel so that he may communicate with David L. Rockwell, manager of his campaign.

Before the convention was called to order there was a conference on the platform among Chairman Walsh, Tom Taggart, Key Pittman, B. Bruce Kramer and other parliamentarians regarding the procedure. It was not believed that a motion would be made to reconsider the adoption of the platform Sunday morning, but it was agreed that if such a motion were made a motion would be made immediately to table the motion to reconsider. All elements will then vote on voting to table, thus clearing the way for starting balloting for a nominee.

Newton D. Baker was an early arrival and continued receiving handclaps and congratulations on his Saturday appeal for the league of nations.

James Quigley, the mayor of Chelsea, Mass., who did everything but completely block the convention early Sunday morning, was conferring with numerous delegates. Quigley said he intended to make a point of order with regard to adoption of the convention platform or move its reconsideration.

When the convention was called to order shortly before 10:30, many of the delegates were absent and the smallest crowd of the convention occupied the spectators' galleries. Chairman Walsh called on the Rev. Gustav Arnold Carstensen, Holy Road Protestant Episcopal church, New York City, for the invocation.

Chairman Walsh announced the first order of business was to call the convention in session until at least 10 ballots have been taken.

Immediately Quigley was on his chair asking recognition.

"I rise," Quigley shouted, "to a point of information. I want to know whether the chair will permit a delegate cast his vote way last Saturday can now change it?"

Walsh said he knew no way how the question could be inquired into.

LOCAL PEOPLE IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Adam Wise, Truck Driver, Injured Saturday; Gallogy Car Ditched

Several accidents were reported over the week-end in which Decatur people figured, but none were of a very serious nature. During the rain storm Saturday evening, Adam Wise, driver for the Decatur Packing Company was taking a load of meat to Fort Wayne when his truck turned over. Wise was thrown out of the car and rendered unconscious for a time.

He was hurried to the Adams County hospital where it was found that he was not seriously injured. His collar bone was fractured, and he was severely shaken up, but no bones were broken. He was later removed from the hospital to his home in this city.

Wise was driving in the blinding rain and hit the Pennsylvania crossing, on the Fort Wayne road north of this city. The wheels caught in the tracks, causing the heavy truck to turn over. He was thrown free from the wreck.

Gallogy Car Ditched

A car owned by Melvin Gallogy of this city was ditched on the Monroe road about five miles south of here last night. Gallogy who was driving got too near the edge of the road in an attempt to pass a car, and his Auburn touring car side-ways in to a deep ditch. None of the occupants were injured, and the car was only slightly damaged.

Several other minor accidents occurred in and near Decatur, but no one was seriously injured, and none of the cars were badly torn up. Several cars were temporarily delayed in the mud, in an attempt to drive to the General Electric's half park in the field east of here yesterday. They all managed to get through the hub deep mud after several attempts.

C. D. Kunkle's Car Hit

C. D. Kunkle of Monmouth, collided with a car, of whom the owner could not be ascertained. The accident occurred on the McConnell hill north of this city. Two cars were attempting to pass each other, and Mr. Kunkle was unable to get over farther in the road.

One of the cars smashed into the side of the Kunkle car, damaging them both slightly. None of the occupants of either car were seriously injured.

DECATUR PRODUCE MARKET

(Corrected June 30)

Heavy Broilers	25c
Lephora and Black Broilers	29c
Heavy Hens	18c
Lephora	13c
Old Roasters	68c
Ducks	11c
Geese	30c
Eggs, per doz.	22c

All poultry purchased must be free from feed.

LOCAL GROCER'S EGG MARKET

Eggs, per doz. 22c

BUTTERFAT AT STATION

Butterfat 37c

as soon as possible, it was announced today. There are ex-service men stationed at the recorder's office during each day to assist in the proper filing of the papers.

Those desiring to fill out their compensation blanks are required to bring their army discharges with them, before the papers can be completed and turned in. There are several hundred Adams county veterans eligible to file these blanks, and the Legion has requested that they do so this week if possible.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Reed baby carriage in good condition. Inquire at 1543x

FOR SALE—Large refrigerator in good condition, will sell cheap. Inquire of Mrs. M. Deininger at the Millinery store. 1543x

FOR SALE—4 year old cow giving about 5 gal. a day. Inquire at 1543x

FOR SALE—Will have early cherries next week. Call phone, one long and a short on 576. 1543x

FOR SALE—Gooseberries. Call Mrs. Simeon Meyers, Decatur phone G-885. 1543x

FOR SALE—Baby chicks, heavy breeds $9.50 per hundred. Barred Rock, R. I. S. C. Red, White Wyandotts. J. F. Stonerock, 1629 West Monroe street, phone 615. 1546x

FOR SALE—7 acres good timothy to sell in field. Chas Hobrock, Preble Ind. Phone 106. 1546x

HARD AND SOFT COAL—If you want some real coal at a real bargain, call 199, Bennett's coal yard. 150-cod-1f

FOR SALE—Baby chicks; White Leghorns, 7c each; mixed heavy breed, 8c; Plymouth Rocks, 9c. Custom hatching, $2.50 per 100 eggs. Orders for chicks must be given in advance. Addie F. Andrews, Decatur R. 5, Monroe phone H 31. 1442-wkcs-ed

FOR SALE—3 burner Nesco oil stove, good as new. Call at 964 W. Monroe street. 1563x

FOR SALE—Lady's bicycle. Call 1061. 1561x

WANTED

WANTED—Refined, Middle Aged Lady. All or spare time. Take orders for new style rubber aprons and sanitary goods. Experience unnecessary. FREE samples. Give reference. American Factories Co., Canton, Ohio. 1x

WOMEN—Earn big money making Bungalow Aprons at home during spare time. Enclose 2c stamp for particulars. Rosemary Apron Co., Ashbury Park, N. J. 1x

RWARD

I will pay $10 reward for the apprehension of party or parties who stole the light bulbs, cut the wires, and ransacked my car Friday night at Buelah Chapel. Certain parties are suspected, and unless the guilty ones return the stolen property and pay for said damage, prosecution will follow. N. H. T. D. A. 1553x

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Sleeping rooms, close in, 310 W. Winchester st. 1561x

FOR RENT—7 room dwelling. Semi-modern. Phone 85. 1561x

M. S. ELZEEY, Jeweler

Ready for your work. Bring it in! Also sell Watches, Clocks, Rings, Diamonds, Novelties of all kinds. Room over Postoffice. 1551x

—

—

—

—

—

—

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Notice is hereby given that the Advisory Board of Washington township, Adams county, Indiana, will receive sealed bids at my office until July 21, 1924, for the purchase, erection and installation of electric lights and power in certain school houses situated in this township, according to the plans and specifications now on file in my office.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

GLEN COWAN.

Dated June 30, 1924.

Trustee of Washington township, Adams County, Ind.

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—