

WORLD'S CHAMPION FIGHTER INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK

The $20,000 automobile which overturned on stretch of boulevard near San Juan Capistrano, Cal. Dempsey suffered a dislocated right arm, while Florence Lee, movie queen, his companion, was severely hurt.

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Cal.—When his $20,000 automobile overturned on a stretch of boulevard near San Juan Capistrano, Cal., Jack Dempsey, world's white heavy weight champion, received the count of ten for first time. According to reports, the champion was the victim of a dislocated arm (the famous right "Iron Mike") and minor bruises. Florence Lee, his leading lady in the movies, was seriously injured in the crash. Teddy Hayes, Dempsey's trainer, and the chauffeur escaped with lesser hurts.

o'clock, the plan being for the state to conclude its case by mid-afternoon.

Chief Defense Attorney Clarence Darrow may place Leopold and Loeb on the stand in their own defense, he indicated today. In his determination to leave no stone unturned in the fight to free them from the gallows, Darrow said he was prepared to put on the witness stand the boys' parents, their friends and the boys themselves.

"They probably will not take the stand unless some unexpected situation develops," was the last official word from Darrow, but according to sources close to the defense the "unexpected situation" has developed.

SUSPECT IN ROBBERY CASE

there that Landis had said he was shot Saturday night and that his partner was killed. As Landis has been a police character for some time, Sheriff Badgers said he believed Landis was one of the men who held up H. P. Crum, Honduras storekeeper and robbed him of from $75 to $80.

Sheriff Baker and Deputy Sheriff D. M. Hower drove to Portland and placed Landis under arrest. He was taken to the jail in Portland and questioned. Mr. Crum, Marshal Robert Andrews and Vernie Circle, of Monroe, who fired at the robbers who broke into the Liechty Brothers & company hardware store there early Sunday morning, were already at Portland and they expressed their belief that Landis was not one of the bandits.

Landis gave the officers a complete account of his whereabouts from 8 o'clock Saturday evening until 1 o'clock Sunday morning. He denied having said he was shot Saturday night. Not satisfied with this the officers had Landis strip himself of his clothing so that they could see if there were any marks on his body which could have been caused by the shot from the guns in the hands of Andrews and Circle, but no marks were found.

Mr. Crum told the officers yesterday that he had just put the money from his store in a cigar box, closed the store and started to walk to his house, on one side of the store when the three bandits drove up in their car. They asked for gasoline and the distance to Fort Wayne. Crum placed the cigar box containing the money on a bench in front of the store and began pumping the gasoline in the tank of the car. After he had put two gallons in the tank the men said that was enough and then one of them pointed a revolver and flash light at Mr. Crum, demanding him to hand over his money. Mr. Crum said he didn't have any money but the bandits had evidently seen him putting the money in the box and seen him place the box on the bench, because they demanded the cigar box. Mr. Crum handed over the box and the men drove away.

Sheriff Baker stated today that a number of places were being watched and lines were out for the apprehension of several persons in connection with the robberies, but that no definite information as to the identity of the guilty parties has been obtained. He is of the opinion that the robberies was the work of amateurs.

NEW COACH CAN STILL PLAY GAME

Coach Kennedy On Winning Basketball Five At University Of Illinois

Maurice Kennedy, Decatur high school's new athletic coach who has made a fine reputation as a basketball coach, can still play the game, as was demonstrated recently at the University of Illinois, where Coach Kennedy is attending a school for coaches. Coaches from eleven states are attending the school. The coaches from the different states organized basketball teams to represent their respective states and held a tournament. The Indiana team, of which Coach Kennedy was a forward, won the tournament.

Coach Kennedy expects to be on hands when school opens here next September, or perhaps a few days ahead of time, to start plans for the football season. While Coach Kennedy is in coaching school, the prospective candidates for next fall's Yellow Jacket eleven are keeping in good condition. Some are working on farms and others doing manual labor of different kinds to keep their muscles and bodies in trim. Prospects for a good team are good, despite the fact that a number of last year's players were graduated.

of that I dropped the spectacles," Leopold said. "I had them in my pocket at the time we were carrying the body to the culvert. I stumbled and the spectacles must have fallen out at the time."

Leopold's confession went over the ground frequently covered in state's attorney Robert E. Crowe "perfect hanging" case. The confession showed how the boys discussed the kidnapping and murder last November, their plans for securing the ransom money and the method of escaping detection.

Leopold said they had no particular victim in mind, although when they made a "reconnoitering expedition" to the playground of the Harvard school, John Levinson, nine-and-a-half-year-old son of a Chicago corporation lawyer, was considered. But as Levinson left the playground unexpectedly, Leopold and Loeb came across Robert Franks and invited him into the car.

At this point Leopold's confession differed from Loeb's. Leopold said he was driving the car and that Loeb, sitting in the rear seat, reached one arm under Robert's chin—Robert was sitting in the front seat—and struck him over the head with the chisel. In almost every other respect the confessions are identical. Loeb's confession gives as the reason for the murder the desire for excitement, adventure and a "little money."

INDIANS ARE NOT SUFFERING

Stranded Indians Get Word Regarding Their Return To S. Dakota

A telegram was received this afternoon by James C. Thompson, interpreter for the Sioux Indians who have been stranded here since Saturday, informing him that the superintendent of the Indian reservation at Pine Ridge, South Dakota, had notified the government and the bonding company that Bill Penny had left the Indians and that his bond for $5,000 should be forfeited. The Indians will wait here until they receive the money. It is thought that the entire $5,000 will be awarded the tribe.

A report was circulated this morning to the effect that the Indians were without food and were destitute. Although living on scanty rations, they are not destitute, the interpreter stated.

The local Red Men's lodge is planning to entertain the Indians Wednesday evening at their hall and give them a big feed, providing they are still in the city. The Indians have been given free camping space at Belmont Park by Col. Fred Reppert. They have a large tent and in the evenings held their pow-wows. Six squaws are members of the tribe.

The Indians were here during the fair, being members of Bill Penny's Rodeo show. The Indians were left here by the Penny management and in the meantime the interpreter got in touch with their reservation in the effort to get enough money to get back to the reservation.

PARKING LINES BEING MARKED

Street Department Begins Repainting Lines On Principal Streets

The city street department began this morning to mark the parking lines on Second, Monroe, Third, Madison and Liberty Way streets. The same parking regulations as have been in force in this city the past two years will be observed again this year.

With the exception of Liberty Way all cars are to be parked parallel with the curb. On Liberty Way the cars are to be parked at an angle with the curbing.

A space of 50 feet on Liberty Way has been reserved for licensed taxis. This stretch begins at the intersection of Second street and extends west for 50 feet on the north side of the street. No other autos are permitted to use this space, the city council having passed an ordinance to that effect two weeks ago. Violators of the ordinance are liable to a fine of not more than $25 and a jail sentence of not more than ten days.

The "stop" regulations at the intersection of Mercer avenue, Winchester street, Second street and east and west Adams street are being enforced as originally made, the driver of a vehicle being required to come to a stop at all five crossings.

Harold Daniels is still employed by the city council as special automobile policeman to enforce the traffic and speed laws in the city.
