

Court House

Appears For Plaintiff

In the case of Mary Opliger vs. Lawrence Opliger, Attorney D. E. Erwin has appeared for the plaintiff.

Answers Filed

In the case of McConnell and McConnell vs. Niblick and Niblick, answers have been filed by the plaintiffs to the cross-complaints filed by the defendants.

Special Judge Named

In the case of Carrie Kelly vs. Frances Decker et al, Judge Jesse C. Sutton declined further jurisdiction in the case on account of having been of counsel for the defendant Mrs. Frances Decker prior to the time of his appointment as judge. The court appointed Attorney L. C. DeVoss to sit as special judge in the case. Mr. DeVoss accepted jurisdiction in the case. The final report of the commissioner was approved and the commissioner discharged. The clerk of the court was ordered to pay over the money in his hands to the persons entitled thereto according to the final report of the commissioner.

Estate Settled

In the estate of William Blackburn, the final report was approved by the court, the administratrix discharged and the estate adjudged settled.

No Inheritance Tax Due

In the estate of Sarah A. Bell, an inheritance tax report showed the total net value of the estate to be $2,709.73. No inheritance tax was due from any of the heirs, who were the nine children and two grandchildren. The final report of the administrator was approved, administrator was discharged and the estate was adjudged settled.

Files Divorce Case

A suit for divorce was filed in circuit court today by Fred E. King, of this city, against Elyna King, whose present address is unknown, according to the complaint. The plaintiff alleges that his wife abandoned him without cause on August 24, 1922. Attorney L. C. DeVoss represents the plaintiff.

Special Judge Appointed

In the case of Frances Vail vs. Hugh T. Vail Judge Jesse C. Sutton today declined further jurisdiction in the case on account of having been of counsel for the defendant in the case, prior to his appointment as judge.

BAAT NEW YORK PICHERS HARD, WINNING 7 TO 4

Second Inning

Washington—Goslin singled past Frisch to center. Frisch missed a headlong dive for the ball. Judge fouled to Kelly. Bluege beat out an infield hit to Lindstrom. Goslin stopped at second. Ruel, out, Lindstrom to Kelly. Both runners advancing. Miller out, Lindstrom to Kelly, after Lindstrom had fumbled. Peck was missed again when Miller, batting in his place, came up with runners on third and second and failed to deliver putting a roller down to third. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Jackson filed to McNeely for a catch back of second. Gowdy out, Harris to Judge on an easy play. Barnes walked. Lindstrom singled past Harris to right. Barnes stopped at second. Frisch popped to Harris in short right. Mogridge made Jackson and Gowdy hit at bad balls, but he lost control and was in trouble until he got Frisch to swing at an outside ball. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third Inning

Washington—Mogridge fanned. McNeely singled in front of Meusel. Harris singled in front of Young. McNeely stopped at second, when Young made a fine return. The crowd yelled for Washington. Rice out, Frisch to Kelly. Both runners advancing. Frisch fumbled and just did get Rice. Goslin hit a home run into the right field stands scoring McNeely and Harris ahead of him. The crowd went into a hysterical outburst. Judge out, Kelly to Barnes. Kelly made a nice stop. 3 runs, 3 hits, no errors.

New York—Young out on strikes. Kelly out on strikes. Meusel filed to Goslin who made the catch against the left field. No runs, no hits, no errors. Mogridge was using a wide sweeping curve that was catching the Giant batters with their bats on their shoulders. Young and Kelly failed to move at the third strike.

Fourth Inning

Washington—Bluege singled past Lindstrom who dived for the ball and missed. Ruel sacrificed, Barnes to Kelly, Bluege stopping at second. Miller filed to Meusel, who went back for the catch. Mogridge out on strikes. Barnes tightened up after Bluege opened the inning with a single and got Miller and Mogridge with ease. No runs, 1 hit, no errors.

New York—Wilson filed to Goslin. Jackson out, Miller to Judge on an easy roller. Gowdy filed to Goslin on the first ball. No runs, no hits, no errors. Mogridge was working beautifully. His control was fine and he was working on the Giant batters with a puzzling curve ball.

Fifth Inning

Washington—McNeely singled over Lindstrom's head. Harris singled to left, McNeely making third with a beautiful headlong slide. It was the hit and run play. McNeely scored and Harris went to second on a wild pitch. There was great activity in the Giants bull pen. Rice popped to Lindstrom. Goslin singled past Jackson, scoring Harris. The Giants tried to get Goslin at second but he slid back to first safely. Judge filed to Wilson back of second. Goslin died stealing. Gowdy to Frisch. Gowdy kept looking at McGraw all during the inning for another pitcher, but Barnes was kept in and he very luckily escaped further damage. The decision on Goslin at second caused the crowd to jeer. Two runs, 3 hits, no errors.

New York—Terry batting for Barnes. Terry out, Harris to Judge. Lindstrom beat out a bunt. Miller gumming up the play and it was scored as a single. Frisch filed to right. Young filed, Lindstrom out at second, Harris to Bluege. Mogridge continued to pitch beautifully and was fooling the Giants with a wide curve. No runs, 1 hit, no errors.

Sixth Inning

Washington—Baldwin went to the box for New York. Bluege popped to Frisch back of second on the first ball. Ruel out, Jackson to Kelly. Jackson made a nice stop and throw. Miller filed to Wilson who misjudged and just got to it. Baldwin looked better than Barnes did at any time and he was not the least bit stage struck. He pitched very confidently. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Walter Johnson went out to the bull pen. Kelly hit to right center for a clean double. The drive fell between McNeely and Rice.

Meusel out, Bluege to Judge, Kelly taking third. Wilson out, Bluege to Judge, Kelly scoring. Jackson up, Jackson out, Bluege to Judge. The Giants' run in this inning was a gift the Washington infield would take no chances on Wilson and laid back on the green. Bluege taking no chances in trying for Kelly at the plate. Mogridge was not upset. One run, 1 hit, no errors.

Seventh Inning

Washington—Mogridge fanned for the third time. McNeely hit to left center for a double. It was the third hit in three times up. Harris filed to Wilson in deep center, McNeely going to third after the catch. Wilson threw wild to third but Baldwin was backing up the base and saved a run. Rice filed to Meusel. No runs, 1 hit, no errors.

New York—Gowdy out, Harris to Judge. Harris made a most spectacular throw for the out. Southworth, batting for Baldwin, up. Southworth beat out a bunt down the third base line. Miller fumbled momentarily. Miller charged with an error. Lindstrom forced Southworth at second, Miller to Harris and just missed being doubled at first. Frisch out, Harris to Judge on another spectacular stop by the Washington manager. No runs, no hits, 1 error.

Eighth Inning

Washington—Dean pitching for New York. Goslin singled in front of Wilson on the first ball. Wilson made a nice stop. Judge singled past Jackson, Goslin going to third and Judge to second when Meusel fumbled the ball. It was no error for Meusel and a single for Judge. Bluege singled to left center scoring Goslin and Judge. Bluege taking second on the throw to the plate. Gowdy looked at McGraw. Ruel fouled to Kelly, Bluege holding second. Miller popped to Frisch. Mogridge fanned. 2 runs, 3 hits, 1 error.

New York—Young walked. Kelly filed to McNeely. Meusel walked. Mogridge was taken out of the box and Marberry came in. Wilson hit to right field scoring Young, but Meusel was out at the plate. Rice to Harris to Ruel. Wilson pulled up at second and was credited with a double. Jackson out, Judge unassisted. One run, 1 hit, no errors.

Ninth Inning

Washington—McNeely fanned. Harris out, Jackson to Kelly. Rice out, Frisch to Kelly. No runs no hits, no errors.

New York—Gowdy singled to right. Rice's throw in hit Gowdy on the leg and the ball rolled to the stands. Gowdy going to third. It was an error for Rice on the wild throw. Bentley batting for Dean. Bentley fanned. Gowdy scored when Lindstrom singled to Harris. Young forced Frisch at second, Judge to Bluege. Lindstrom stopping at third. Kelly fanned. One run, 2 hits, 1 error. New York, Oct. 7.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—In desperate need of another game to get back into the running for the championship, the Washington Senators drew up today for a last stand battle with the New York Giants in the fourth game of the world series.

Dropped twice in three games and with much of their punch gone, the Senators were in serious straits. The Giants have the natural advantage of a two to one count in a short series and with Roger Peckinpaugh injured, the betting switched today to a 2 to 1 on the Giants.

Peck, the most dangerous hitter on the team and the mainstay of the defense, was hurt in the second game. He pulled a muscle in his leg in running out the double that won the game and he had to quit yesterday. There was doubt in the Washington quarters today that Peck would be able to play tomorrow. "You can't tell about those things. Peck is being treated and he may come around but we can't count on him, Bucky Harris said.

Weather conditions today were again ideal and a crowd, equalling yesterday's record number of 47,600 was expected at the Polo grounds. Washington can't use Walter Johnson today, because if he should be unable to stop the National league champions, the Senators would be as good as gone. With an advantage of one game, the Giants can take a chance with Virgil Barnes, a young right hander, who has plenty of good pitching in him when he is right.

Harris probably will ask George Mogridge, a veteran left hander, to work today with the hope that he can even the series. He could then send Johnson back tomorrow.

If Barnes gets away with his game today, however, the chances of another trip to Washington tomorrow night would be rather remote because McGraw would have Nehf left to headline his team in tomorrow's matinee.

It was generally agreed that the two games in Washington were two of the finest of any series but it was accepted unanimously that the third

Certainly no worse pitching has ever been seen in a series. Yesterday's game had only one record to make it stand out at all. Rosy Ryan hit a homer and became the first National league pitcher to get a four base hit in a world's series.

Buck Harris pulled the break against "Fip" Marberry in the second inning that may have been the deciding factor in the game. He dropped a throw from young Bluege in his eagerness to make a double play and Marberry blew up.

There were other breaks against the Senators and they were mostly Frankie Frisch. The Giant captain and second baseman dashed way back into centerfield for two catches off "Goose" Goslin that robbed the Washington slugger of two sure hits and he pulled another stop and throw that took another one from the Goose.

With Peck on the job through the entire game, Washington might have won. Miller, who took his place in the batting order, was up twice in the tightest of pinches and failed to deliver. The defensive strength of the infield is also greatly reduced with Peck out of the game.

Frank Brown, Former Decatur Printer, Dies

The following telegram was received at this office at noon today: "War-saw, Ind., October 7. Frank Brown, former printer in your city, died this morning, funeral Thursday, signed E. H. Dodge." Mr. Brown came here from Huntington about nine years ago when Messrs. Butler and Stults purchased the Decatur Herald and served as foreman of that office for two years. While here he made a number of friends who will regret to hear of his death.

MARKETS-STOCKS

Daily Report Of Local And Foreign Markets

Opening Grain Review
Chicago, Oct. 7.—Grain futures moved upward at the opening on the board of trade today.
Wheat was the market leader. A wave of buying sent values soaring to a fraction below yesterday's record. Unfavorable crop advices from the Argentine and continental Europe induced buying.
Rains in the central sowing area and strength in wheat sent corn up. The crop now needs dry weather to mature. The old corn movement continues heavy.
Oats was inclined to lag, advancing only a fraction.
Provisions had a steady opening.

Vanderburgh County Has Debt Of Only $475,000

(United Press Service)
Evansville, Ind., Oct. 7.—Vanderburgh county has the lowest bonded debt of any county in Indiana, according to county auditor Alvin Gerhart, today.
The county's total bonded debt is $475,000 he said.
Eighty-thousand dollars worth of courthouse bonds will be retired next year. They bear 3 1/2 per cent. interest.
The court house was built thirty years ago for $1,000,000. Virtually $325,000 of that amount is still due.
Rushville—Authorities believe that thieves who entered the Christian church here were after sacramental wine.
