Mr. and Mrs. John Hilker, Mr. and Mrs. George Geerkin, and Mrs. Ella Shoppman of Fort Wayne motored here last evening and were the guests at dinner at the Dr. Elizabeth Burns home, Mrs. Burns giving a dinner in honor of her daughter's birthday, Mrs. Mable Sargeant. Other guests were Mrs. Dora Fosnaught of Toledo and Miss Ada Stevens of this city.

Decatur Chapter No. 127, Order of Eastern Stars, held a most delightful social and business meeting in the Masonic rooms last evening, when impressive initiatory services were rendered for the following candidates: Mrs. Josephine Robindoll, Miss Anna Carlisle, Mrs. Ruby Durkin, Mrs. Riley Chrisman, Miss Ruth Vizard, Mrs. Frank Carrell, and Miss Eva Acker. During the course of short business session, Worthy Matron, Leona Graham, read a clever piece of verse, urging all Stars to vote on election day. Plans were also completed for a Benefit Bridge Party to be given in the Masonic Hall on the evening of November 13th. Both Bridge and 500 will feature the evening's entertainment and all Eastern Stars and their friends are asked to reserve this date. The proceeds of the party will be sent to the Masonic Orphan's Home at Franklin. At the close of the meeting, the refreshments committee comprised of Mrs. Maud Dorwin, Mrs. Lydia Elzey and Mrs. J. H. Burroughs served delicious refreshments of sandwiches, scalloped oysters stuffed celery sticks, individual pumpkin pies with Hallowe'en favors and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Graham entertained at a 5 o'clock dinner last evening at their home on North Fourth street for Congressman and Mrs. Albin in the production of sugar beets secretary.

The League of Women Voters held an interesting meeting at the Adams County Memorial Hospital Thursday afternoon. Letters were read from the state candidates and much information from state headquarters was given out. This was one of the most important meetings of the year. The next meeting will be held on the third Tuesday in November and a good program will be given.

A number of friends and neighbors pleasantly surprised Mrs. Sam Baker, at her home on North Ninth street, last evening, the occasion being her sixty-sixth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Baker received forty birthday greetings from friends of the Winchester Church near Monroe. Mr. and Mrs. Baker have both been confined to their home for several weeks. Mr. Baker has been suffering with cancer of the stomach for the past several weeks and Mrs. Baker suffered a stroke of paralysis recently. Late in the evening light refreshments were served. Those present included: Mrs. Mary Klopenstein, Mrs. Emilie Stalter, Mrs. William Heller and Mrs. Edna Essex, of Monroe, Mrs. Cora McCain, Mrs. Iva Heller, Miss Inez Heller, of this city.

Miss Gladys Butler will entertain the members of the Tri D Club Tuesday evening at her home on West Monroe Street. This is the first meeting of this club year and all members are urged to attend.

The annual masquerade Hallowe'en Ball will be given Friday evening October 31st, at the Masonic Hall. Good music will be furnished and prizes will be given to the best masked persons present. An admission fee of thirty-five cents will be charged. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. William O'Brien entertained the members of the So Cha Rea Club last evening at her home on Fifth street. Five Hundred was played and prizes were won by Mrs. V. J. Borman, Miss Marie Murtaugh and Mrs.

R. O. Gass. Plans were made for the opening in front of the Vogelweide annual Hallowe'en party to be held, shoe store has also been repaired at the home of Miss Florence Harris, Thursday evening. At the conclusion of the game and business meeting, Mrs. O'Brien served delicious refreshments. The next regular meeting will be held with Miss Marie Gass.
