Smith-Graber

One of the first weddings of the year was solemnized Friday afternoon when Mr. Lowell Smith and Miss Neva Graber were united in marriage at Hillsdale, Michigan.

The wedding comes as a surprise to their many friends and was first learned when Mr. Smith wired his father, Dr. W. E. Smith Friday afternoon, stating that he and Miss Graber had been married during the afternoon. The bride is the charming daughter of Albert Graber and is a popular young lady of this city.

Since her graduation from the local high school, and up until the time of her marriage, she had been taking nurse's training at the Lutheran hospital, at Fort Wayne. Mr. Smith is the only son of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, of this city, and is a graduate of the local high school. He is attending Ohio State University and at the end of the present semester will be a freshman in the school of medicine. Mrs. Smith accompanied her husband to Columbus, yesterday, where they will reside until he completes his course of study.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of the eighteenth birthday anniversary of their son, Walter. Cut flowers and dainty place cards were used as table decorations. The guests included the members of the high school basketball team and a few other guests.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Kennedy, Robert Strickler, John Dierks, Lloyd Beal, Milton Swearingen, Hugh Andrews, Chester Reynolds, Audrey Moser, James Leonard, Carrol Cole and Doyle Johnson. During the afternoon a picture of the team and guests was taken.

The Ladies Aid Society of the United Brethren Church will meet with Mrs. U. S. Drummond Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Mrs. Hodge will be the assisting hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bower and son, Junior, of Columbia City; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Keller, of Columbia City; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Blair, and daughter, Ethel, and Mrs. Amos Hale, of Bluffton.

The employees of the Schafer company enjoyed a bob sled party Saturday evening. The guests were taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Braun, south of the city. Cards and dancing were enjoyed after which delectable refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed the affair included the Misses Helena Meyers, Catherine Omlor, Mary Schultz, Alys Kreigle, Theresa Appelman, Jane Murtaugh, Messrs. Arnold Gerberding, Arthur Breiner, James Downs, Joe Suntheimer, Henry and Martin Bulte-meier, and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Braun.

ROBBERS LOOT TWO HOUSES HERE

had made no attempt to take the eggs, merely wanting to break them.

Night Policeman Sephus Melchi, who was still on duty when the robbery was discovered, made an investigation this morning. He and the other officers who investigated, are of the opinion that the work was that of boys. Footprints were found in the snow at the rear of the buildings.

A small quantity of cigaret and tobacco was taken from the Appleman restaurant a few weeks ago

A New Coach

Recognizing the demand for a truly comfortable and economical car of the coach type, Dodge Brothers have provided it.

The new Coach reveals a characteristic maturity of design—in the low-slung lines of the body, in the arrangement of the interior for five-passenger comfort, and in the exceptional dimensions of the doors and windows.

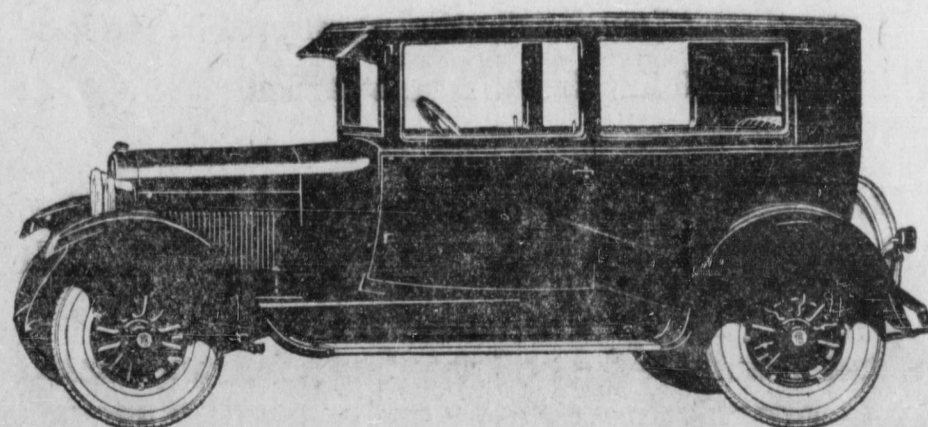

The car is lacquer finished in Dodge Brothers blue with a body stripe of cartouche yellow. Fittings and fixtures are first quality throughout, and balloon tires are standard equipment.

So far as riding comfort and dependability are concerned, it is only necessary to add that the Coach is built on Dodge Brothers sturdy chassis and cushioned by Dodge Brothers underslung springs.
